vided took up so much of the afternoon, that some of the business went by the board . . . that of discussing new members.

Other deterrent was the absence of a member or so . . . Georgeanna Chester and Catherine Wilson being away, . .their brother - in - law, Dr. Leroy Allen (Mildred's husband) being seriously ill in Johns Hopkins.

Irma Roy returned from Fort Benning, in Georgia, just in time for the session. She and Mrs. John Day were there to see their nephew and son, respectively, graduate from Infantry School.

Catherine Law, Anita Wheatley, Agnes Patterson, Gaynell Spaulding and Elizabeth Stewart art among the G.F.'s spending this weekend in Detroit at the national meeting of the group.

In addition to the above, Mae Williams, Bernice Chatman, Francs Wessells, Laura Jones, Williams, Thela Wilson, Mae Parrott and Lula Mackey were about.

A PRE-MEMORIAL Day black tie affair is the May 29th dance to be given by that new couples' club, Upper Ten Plus. It is set for the Holiday Room at the Village of Cross Keys.

Members met Sunday at the home of the Edward Williamses to complete plans for the affair — a first event for them.

About were Messrs and Mesdames Charles Hillen, co-presidents; Aaron Ellis, Errol Taylor, Royal Weaver, David Wright, Melvin Callaman, Clifton Murray, Paul Ken Wilsons.

DELIGHTFUL Sunday afternoon event was the brunch Joe and Leona Felton had at their Dennlyn Rd. home.

"Twas so special occasion. The Feltons said they just wanted friends to share a couple of hours with them.

For the day, Mrs. Felton was chic in one of those new pants cocktail outfits — a bright orange.

About were: Messrs and Mesdames Tom Green, Charles Hillen, Charles Thomas, Franklin DeShields, Queener Willis, Earl Parker, Richard Malone, Melvin Callaman, Joseph Bracy and daughter; Paul Moss and children, Marie, Benjamin and Rachael Phillips;

Also Mesdames Mary Sprow, Alverta Lee, Evelyn Bass, Eva Creigler, Helen Gattis, Gwendolyn Dedecillo, Gaines Lansey and Dr. Edward McDaniels.

ETHEL RICH made no bones about it. All the way from Harrisburg, Pa., from where she was motoring, she was thinking of what Verniece Reynolds would be serving for dinner.

And her expectations were not in vain.

Verniece and Medford hosted th Couples' Club. . .and a full house they had, so there must have been some basis for John and Ethel's expectations. There was.

'Twas a gay meeting for the group, which is an investment club. Their stock was up, their contingent was complete, and they were in the mood for a party.

SMILE AWHILE

CHANGE IN STATUS

A woman was asked if she had yet made the long trip to California to visit her son and his new wife.

"No, I've been waiting until they have their new baby."

"Oh, I see, you don't want to spend the money for the trip until then."

"No, it isn't that," the woman replied. "I have a theory that grandmothers are more welcomed than mothers in-law."

Sooner or later, that day comes, the day when a woman feels she's changing. It's not a good feeling either. And she could use a good old-fashioned medicine then.
Could be you feel a little edgy, or maybe cross. You might even have what we call hot flashes and feel sad and slightly off-balance.
Whatever you feel, we have something for the day you need a little comforting. Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets. They're made with gentle, natural ingredients that work to give you a better sense of well-being. A sense of well-being you might lose when you start changing. And, you don't run any chance of the kind of unpleasant side effects you can get from some of the newer drugs.
With an old-fashioned problem like this, couldn't you use an old-fashioned medicine?

housing march Hecklers stone car

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Half a dozen white hecklers showered rocks on a carload of open housing advocates Wednesday night at the end of a peaceful march in the city's South End.

The windows of a station wagon owned by the Rev. Ralph Leach, who had paraded with the 75-member delegation, were shattered by flying rocks but there were no injuries.

The incident occurred while Leach was driving a group of marchers from the predominantly white neighborhood.

Police arrested a youth, who arrived late at the march site, on a warrant filed by Mrs. Joan Parrot, of Louisville, charging disorderly conduct. Mrs. Parrot said the would-be demonstrator cursed her while she observed the demonstrtion.

Up to 125 whites gathered along the two-mile parade route, but there were no jeers or catcalls, trademark of previous demonstrations in the South End.

New civil rights unit is playing it COOL

Why didn't someone think of it earlier —COOL?

What a name for civil rights organization —what with CORE, ACT, ACCESS, and EFEC already occupied.

COOL has been around for a long while —but not COOL.

Three months ago, cool was made COOL.

TO THE few civil rights types in Northern Virginia — where Cool makes it home — COOL means: the Committee on Open Occupancy Legislation.

Northern Virginia, while not a hotbed of civil rights activity, does have a history of good names.

Last year, it was QUICK. But that vanished with all the speed its name implied.

QUICK was a fair housing group — in fact, the forerunner of COOL.

Letter-by-Letter, the word QUICK described no organization.

QUICK WAS the civil rights' backlash to the familiar slogan: "Freedom Now." "Freedom QUICK," said the organization.

Now that COOL has arrived, according to one news source, support has been flowing into Northern Virginia political camps favorable to fair housing laws in the Old Dominion.
