WBA tourney may include 8

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — M. Robert Evans, president of the World Boxing Association, says the field in a tournament to determine a champion to succeed Cassius Clay could include as many as eight fighters.

"While our regulations provide for a four-man tournament, we will give consideration to six or eight-man competition to afford widest and most equitable opportunity for a true champion to emerge," Evans declares.

EVANS PROMISES that "all properly rated boxers will be considered ed'm

The WBA stripped Clay of his heavyweight title when he refused to be inducted into the Army.
