Gadabouting

sion of the Ashburton Family Group was held in Forest Manor, with Dr. H. Garland Chissell Jr., member of the Maryland Commission for the Study of Narcotics and Drug Addiction, as speaker.

Dr. Chissell talked on "Teenagers and Narcotics" and showed the documentary film, "The Losers," after which there was a question and answer period for the teenagers present.

Mrs. Norma Malden introduced the speaker and at the finale presented him with a gift.

After the lecture and refreshment hours, the youngsters danced (until they had to be practically dragged home) to records played by Mrs. John Chissell.

THE YOUNG people present included:

Gerri Brown, Robert Chissell, Thomas Hayes, William M. Hall Jr., John Hargrove, Tony King, Steven Hargrove, Cathy Maiden, Benny King, Saverne Hayes, Wesley Hayes, Monica Jones, Margot Jones, David Jones, Michelle Jones, Keith Saunders, Erich March, Emerson Coleman, Barbara Harris, Lyssa Glover, Lucky Whiten, Marcia Porter, Marcia Malone and Howard Contee.

Adult members at the session were:

Dr. and Mrs. John Chissell, Messrs. and Mesdames Raymond Carpenter, Benjamin King, John Hargrove, W. Emerson Brown Jr.; Dr. and Mrs. H. Garland Chissell Jr., Mesdames Peggy M. Jones, Joan Scott, Norma Maiden, Lillian Jones, Ardelle Jeudy, Grace Scott and Mildred Hall.

Economy meals for good eating

Food shoppers can expect plenty of "Specials" on American — or cheddar — cheese in the weeks ahead, because supplies are unusually plentiful.

It may be welcome news, too, that butter production also made sharp gains during the three months — up about 13 percent, meaning this might be a good time to indulge a bit.

CHEDDAR CHEESES come in a wide range of colors — from white to the deepest orange, but color is no indication of either flavor or texture.

In the weeks ahead, when American or cheddar cheese is plentiful, let the family sample some different variation in flavor.

IF YOU haven't as yet introduced the sharp-flavored variety, or the milder-flavored, now might be a proper time to do so. Serve it as is or in a cheese-enhanced dish — in sandwiches, salads, pizza, cream sauces, casserole dishes, omelets, soups, cheeseburgers, or other tasty combination dishes.

Here's a menu for a day's good eating using foods that are in plentiful supply and reasonably priced:

BREAKFAST
Sliced Orange
Buttermilk Pancakes with Butter and Syrup
Milk
Coffee or Tea
LUNCH
Cream of Tomato Soup
Tuna Salad Sandwich
Fresh Apple
Milk
DINNER
Cheese-Onion Pie with Bacon Slices
Tossed Salad
Pound Cake a la Mode
Milk
Coffee or Tea

TRY THIS good cheese-onion pie, a dish stemming from the famous French dish, "Quiche Lorraine." It consists of a subtle, curry-flavored sharp cheese and custard mixture baked in a crumb crust.

Use 1-1/3 cups water, 1 tsp. salt, 2/3 cup uncooked white rice, ¼ tsp. curry powder, ½ cup melted butter or margarine, 1½ cups cracker crumbs, 3 tbsps. butter or margarine, 2 cups thinly sliced onions (halve large slices).

Also 1 cup milk, 2 eggs, beaten; 1½ cups grated sharp cheese, 1 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. curry powder, 1/8 tsp. black pepper, and Bacon Slices.

PUT THE water, 1 teaspoon salt and rice in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Cover and simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat and leave the lid on until ready to use, at least 10 minutes. While the rice cooks, add the ¼ teaspoon curry powder to the ½ cup melted butter.

Pour over and through the cracker crumbs. (Crumbs are easily made by rolling crackers between layers of waxed paper or putting through a fine bladed food chopper.) Press the crumbs over the bottom and sides of a greased deep 10" round pie plate holding about 6 cups. Melt the 3 tablespoons butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add the onions and cook slowly until tender and slightly yellow.

Coppin dean Dunbar honoree

Dr. Joseph T. Durham was inducted into the Dunbar Hall of Fame Thursday evening, June 1, at the Dunbar High School.

Dr. Durham, a 1941 graduate of Dunbar High School, received the Ed. D. degree from Columbia University, and is presently academic dean at Coppin State College.

The Hall of Fame honored Dr. Durham for outstanding scholarship and achievement in the field of education.

Other honored inductees included Martin Dyer, for distinguished managerial achievement in government services; James McDonald, for outstanding attainment in the performing arts; and Robert M. Bell, for distinguished achievement in education.

To Lew Conine, this is his Saturday foursome
It's the way he checks his golfing cronies on rides, starting times—or whether to ignore a rain forecast and play anyway.
And it's amazing the household details that Lew's wife handles by phone while her husband and car are away. Everything from borrowing a cup of sugar to inviting her foursome for bridge next week.
The Conines will tell you that the fast way—the personal way—to get things done anytime is to—Just pick up the phone.

Coppin courses equip inner-city teachers

In response to heavy demand for special courses in elementary education, Coppin State College is scheduled to offer workshops in mathematics for elementary school teachers; education of the culturally different, and a workshop in science for elementary school teachers.

The workshop in modern mathematics serves as professional subject matter for in-service study. It provides the foundation of arithmetic and geometry which are necessary for the conceptual teaching of a contemporary Mathematic Program in the elementary school.

Number systems from the concept of sets through the systems of natural numbers, whole numbers, integers, rational numbers, and simple geometric concepts will be considered.

Professor William Stanford will be in charge of the workshop.

The culturally different course, taught by Dr. Joseph T. Durham, deals with the special education problems in contemporary American education as they relate to the child whose cultural experiences have been limited.

This course will be helpful to teachers in school systems that are looking for programs devised to meet the needs of children from the inner-city in the major curricular areas as well as in counseling and guidance, discipline, and related school services.

Dan Rachoviak, principal of School No. 74, will conduct the workshop in elementary school science. The workshop will run for six weeks. It provides an orientation to ele-

we care
A&P what every new bride should know!
Let's see!
His shirts...starch or no starch?
His eggs...sunnyside up or over lightly?
His coffee...a bit on the strong side?
His steak...medium-rare or rare-rare?
His favorite pie...apple or cherry?
Knowing these things is important.
Knowing this is important, too: A&P is a store you can trust.
Brides have been doing it for over a century.
As a matter of fact, nobody has ever had more brides walk down their aisle than A&P.
We think it's important for brides, new or old, to find a store they can trust, to know that everything they buy is totally guaranteed.
That's A&P Policy.
No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.
Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
