Roosevelt to speak for Coppin graduates

James Roosevelt, former United States Ambassador to the United Nations Economic and Social Council, will make the Commencement address at Coppin State College on Thursday, June 8, at 6 p.m. Exercises will take place on the North Campus.

Mr. Roosevelt, son of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, is now president of Investors Overseas Services Management Company.

In the event of rain, the exercises will be held in the Thomas Pullen Gymnasium.

The Rev. Donald Wilson, pastor of St. James Episcopal Church in Baltimore, is scheduled to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 4, at 4 p.m. Services will take place in the Pullen Gymnasium.

Following the Baccalaureate ceremonies, President and Mrs. Parlett L. Moore will be at home to members of the graduating class.

Nursing students to be awarded Franklin degrees

The 1967 class of the Franklin Square Hospital School of Nursing will receive their diplomas 7:30 p.m. on June 13 in St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Fayette and Carey Streets.

An address by Prof. William P. Ellis of Essex Community College, will precede presentation of diplomas by Thomas W. Offutt, president of the Franklin Square Board of Trustees, and pins, by Miss Helen V. Kramer, director of the School of Nursing. Mr. Offutt will also present the outstanding nurse award.

Sanford Kotzen, the hospital's administrator, will preside and Dr. W. Kenneth Mansfield will extend greetings from the medical staff, following the Nurses Pledge by the graduating class.

Graduates from Baltimore unless noted, are: Barbara Gail Boehmer, Laurel; Julia Ann Davis; Norma Lee Doyle; Sheldon Foland, Hollywood, Fla.; Alma Mary Futty, Joppa; Kay Frances Hoskinson, Ellicott City; Earl Ray Hostetler, Bowie; June Frances Kricher.

And Carol Ann Lingenfelter, Temple Hills, Md.; Harvey Bernard Maring, Westminister; Jean Elizabeth Oliver, Pompton Plains, N.J.; Patricia Lee Quinn; Sally Rinehart, Edgewater; Maureen Margaret Sheehy, Silver Spring; Brenda Venita Thompson, and Nancy Lou Wilhelm, Hampstead.

VD rate up 200 percent among youth

City Health Department records show that the incidence of infectious syphilis among Baltimore's youth has increased over 200 percent within the past six years.

This alarming increase in the incidence of syphilis as well as the still high incidence of gonorrhea has prompted the Baltimore City Health Department to work closely with the City Department of Education, community organizations and the mass media in developing venereal disease information programs for young people as well as adults.

The Baltimore City Health Department and television station WJZ-TV will conduct a venereal disease campaign which will include several programs on the venereal diseases and numerous spot announcements during the next few weeks.

The programs will be designed to disseminate information to the general population regarding the problem of the venereal diseases, their method of transmission and the signs and symptoms of disease.

The programs which will be devoted to venereal disease education are "Johns Hopkins Review," "The Yet Set," and "Contact." A fourth program will be a special telecast in prime time at 9:30 P.M. on June 8, 1967. This program will quiz the viewers on their knowledge of VD and the questions will be answered on the air by a panel of physicians who are specialists in the venereal diseases.

19-year-old found dead

WASHINGTON

Police were still unable Thursday, to apprehend a suspect in the fatal stabbing of Maurice A. Campbell, a 19-year-old youth who was found, last weekend, in the 1000 block of Irving St., NW.

Police gave no information on why Campbell, of the 1200 block of 49th St., NE, was in that area last Saturday morning.

They only revealed that a neighborhood passerby discovered the youth in front of a house on Irving St., a stab wound in his chest.

He was dead on arrival at Washington Hospital Center.

Steelworkers get action in D.C. meet on bias charges

Worker at the Sparrows Point plant of Bethlehem Steel Company have been promised immediate action to eliminate discriminatory practices and segregated facilities.

Emerging from a meeting Wednesday at the Labor Department, in Washington, representatives of the steelworkers and civil rights groups said the Labor Department issued a directive covering 5 immediate steps.

Under these orders, the company must:

1. Post all job vacancies throughout the plant so all workers might know of existing openings.

2. Eliminate all segregated facilities.

3. Display conspicuously, throughout the plant, materials making known the company's position concerning discriminatory employment practices.

4. Likewise, display the Labor Department's statement on discrimination.

5. Cease any intimidation of employees who have made complaints of bias, or who have joined in the efforts to change conditions.

GOVERNMENT action is expected to go beyond these 5 areas in a proposed July agreement between the company and the Labor Department.

Lincoln G. Lynch, of CORE, and OWE will participate in drafting the new agreement.

This week's meeting was the second within a week. Last Friday, some 350 workers, supporters, and Civil rights figures descended on the Labor Department to protest the government's failure to act promptly on their complaints.

The protest was spearheaded mainly by the Steel and Shipyard Workers Committee and CORE. At that time, Labor Secretary Wirtz met with them and cleared the way for this week's session.

LEE DOUGLAS JR., chairman of the workers' committee, told the AFRO: "What we are doing now will help all working people in the nation."

Participating in the 4½-hour Wednesday meeting were Mr. Douglas, the Rev. O. C. Hoggs, Francis Brown, Robert L. Dalton, Benjamin Hamlin, James Langley and the Rev. Shelton A. Fleming, all members of the workers committee;

CORE representatives Lincoln Lynch, Walter S. Brooks, James Griffin, Milton Holmes, Larry Ageloff, Irwin Auerbach:

Gerald Smith, NAACP Legal Defense Fund; Robert Belton, National NAACP; and, representing the government:

Edward C. Sylvester Jr., director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance; Jack Moscowitz, deputy assistant secretary of Defense; and Robert Hobson, senior compliance officer of the OFCC.

* * *

SPOKESMEN FOR the workers said the Labor Department has demanded certain information from the steel company prior to drawing up the agreement. June 25 was set as the deadline for receiving this information.

The new agreement is expected to be directed toward modification of testing procedures for employment and promotions, improved job classification, and increased utilization of colored workers in jobs previously reserved for whites.

Mr. Lynch said that, in many instances, colored workers receive less pay than whites who perform the same work.

He listed the following jobs with pay inequities: sheet handling, locomotive crane and jack hammer operators, scrap burners, mechanical maintenance men; and, at the shipyard: ship fitters, welders and burners.

Mr. Douglas, workers' committee chairman, said: "The committee still has a great job we must do to awaken the sleeping worker at Sparrows Point. We must continue."

The committee is calling a meeting of steel and shipyard workers Saturday, 8 p.m., at the CORE office, 832 N. Gay St.

"We are asking all workers to come out so we may explain the results of our meeting Wednesday with federal officials," Douglas said.

If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places and things

Graduate of the year honors should go to 37-year-old Mrs. Thelma Whitt McCoy of N. Edgewood St.

Reason: She is the mother of seven who earns a degree at Morgan State College on Monday.

Mrs. McCoy is the wife of Maurice McCoy Sr., a post office foreman.

* * *

Their Seven children are: Maurice Jr., 16, an Edmondson High student; Anita, 12, who attends Rock Glen; Larry, 9; Kenneth, 8; Ralph, 7; all of whom attend Hilton Elementary; and Michael 5; and Eric, who will be 4 in September.

Isn't that grand!!

The family attends Central Baptist Church.

* * *

Proof that it is indeed a small world: Shortly after le were seated at the Arena Players' second annual awards dinner-dance on Sunday at Eastwind, it happened: —

An attractive stranger volunterred, "I'm from California . . . I read the AFRO twice a week . . . my mother sends it to me. . .I don't feel right if I don't get it . . . and I would never miss 'If You Ask Me.'

Well, we were floored!

* * *

The stranger turned out to be Mrs. John Paul Jones Jr. of Palm Springs, Calif.

She is the former Budell Abrams, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams (Margaret), of N. Hilton St.

Douglass High grads of 1949 may remember Mrs. Jones.

She and her husband have a daughter; Veral, 18, an Edmondson High grad.

Which reminds me to mention that Veral became Mrs William Jackson on April 14. That is one reason Mrs. Jones flew East.

While her new husband is serving in Vietnam, Veral is working at Westinghouse.

* * *

Orchids to the Arena Players — they demonstrated to Baltimoreans they can have a glorious Sunday afternoon full of interest and enjoyment . . . in an elegant setting.

Their affair featured Baltimore's own, Singer Sallie Blair . . . and didn't she rock the house . . . she's terrific.

Nicest gesture — the special citation to Mrs. Morris Mechanic, widow of the man who built the city's first downtown theatre (And, is she a delightful person to know)!

And, Arenas also remembered their own who have achieved in the arts — so there were special citations to Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, Miss Ellen Stewart, Irv Turner, Annette Burton.

* * *

Sometimes people overlook their own who achieve. But not the Arena audience. —

They gave tear-jerking sustained applause to Mrs. Camilla M. Sherrard, president of the Arena Board of Directors.

She and her committee labored hard to make the event a rousing success, and it was.

Quip of the evening came from Jerry Levin who allowed he had not been a head table guest "since my brother made his Bar Mitzvah!" (Jewish ceremony equivalent to Christian first Communion).

* * *

Orchids to John Taylor, the choreographer . . . weren't the dances exciting!

And great big nod to Sam Vilson, the managing director of Arena Players. His long hard years of work are finally paying off . . .

A bit about this and that

Club note: The Baltimore Chapter of the National Executive Housekeepers Association is preparing for its Annual Moonlight Dance aboard the M. V. Port Welcome, June 14.

It sails from Pier 1, Pratt St., at 8. There'll be dancing to the music of the Bob Craig Orchestra.

Sounds like an interesting evening.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the Educational Fund of the Association. Lee Casey is president; Bill Atertmus and Miss Anne Emerine are working with him on the Nanning committee.

* * *

Cuff note: The Chapter meets the third Tuesday of every month at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel.

Membership in the professional organization is open to all administrative housekeepers (or Adair), who remained until the closing exercises were over even though he had received word his father died.

He was the Rev. Russell B. Ford, 91, of Tuskegee, Ala., wiere he was a pioneer resident. So sorry.

* * *

More setting the record straight: The lady we spotted at the American Cancer Society dinner was Mrs. Eleanor Shorter, who received an award for work with the Baltimore unit.

More about people and things

People being kind to other people: A week back, Mrs. Vivian C. Palmer received a certificate and gold award in recognition of outstanding service with the state.

For the past ten and a half years, she has been on the staff of Spring Grove Hospital.

The last two years she has been mother, friend, supervisor, counselor to youngsters living in the hospital's Charles Moylan unit.

* * *

Mrs. Palmer is no stranger to outstanding service. Many know her as a volunteer driver for the American Red Cross and as a volunteer at the Perry Point Veterans Hospital.

Plus, she served as den mother for Troop 544 at St. Matthews Church . . . has been active in school affairs and has been a foster mother . . .

Many know her as a concerned and helpful good neighbor and many times she finds the time to help so many.

Helios to this good neighbor at 414 E. Lorraine Ave.

* * *

Death note: Mrs. Eugenia Young, 2411 W. Lafayette Ave., died Thursday at Sinai Hospital after a brief illness. Remember she taught at Ft. Meade Anne Arundel County.

* * *

Orchids to those Epicureans Inc. They are the young women who hosted the national conclave here over the weekend—and it was truly a glorious weekend they had.

Theme of the convention: space ship to progress.

Their space timetable was launched Friday afternoon at Blue Crest North where guests from out-of-town were briefed . . .

There followed dancing (a real gone affair to which they invited localites).

By noon on Saturday, there was a pretty luncheon meeting where they gave notice to the NAACP (and got a life membership) . . . and to the Provident Hospital building fund . . . plus they heard a challenging talk by Judge George Russell (on the role of women in today' world)

* * *

Cuff note: These young women, all of whom are active in their communities, subscribe to the theory of Epicurus, the Greek, who taught life can be meaningful yet gay . . .

* * *

Baltimore members are Mesdames Gwendolyn Parker, Nikki Randolph, Phyllis Diggs, Sylvia Henry, Dorothy Johnson, Audrey Pinderhughes and Merita Stokes, who is national vice president.

Also, Mesdames Elva Edwards, Sadie Jenkins, Claire Parker, Nikki Randolph, Phyllis Diggs, Sylvia Henry, Dorothy Johnson, Audrey Rawlings, Frankie Hender-son, Gladys Daniels, .
