Morgan trustee banquet for degree winners

The Morgan State College Board of Trustees hosted the six recipients of honorary degrees following commencement exercises on Monday evening.

The banquet was held in the Memorial Refectory.

The honorees, all of whom were given doctors of law degrees were:

The Hon. Spiro T. Agnew, governor of Maryland;

The Hon. Patricia Roberts Harris, Ambassador to Luxembourg;

The Rev. Edward G. Carroll, District Superintendent, Methodist Church;

Fred I. Archibald, retired News-Post publisher and civic leader;

Clarence Mitchell Jr., director, Washington Bureau, NAACP; and

Dr. John T. Williams, president, Maryland State College at Princess Anne.

* * *

PRESIDENT MARTIN D. JENKINS, who presided, took special notice of faculty members who prepared the citations read during commencement earlier in the day.

They were: Augustus Adane for Governor Agnew; Dr. Walter Fisher for Ambassador Harris; Dr. Howard Cornish for the Rev. Mr. Carroll; Dr. Thomas Cripps for Mr. Archibald; Dr. Roland McConnell for Mr. Mitchell; and Dr. Frank DeCosta for Dr. Williams.

IN ATTENDANCE at the banquet were relatives and friends of the honorees and faculty members, alumni and community leaders.

Among guests were Theophilus Parker, class of 1895, oldest living alumni; and Judge and Mrs. Scovel Richardson of N.Y., who were present for the graduation of their daughter, Mary.

Also, Dr. Luna Mishoe, president of Delaware State College, presided at graduation exercises at his own college earlier in the day and rushed to Baltimore to see his daughter finish Morgan.

* * *

HIGHLIGHT OF the banquet was the informal talk given by the honorees.

Her Excellency, Ambassador Harris confessed she was honored to have this degree from Morg an".

Governor Agnew said he was 'so impressed with you and your college that I don't see how I can refuse you any logical request. . .this has been a very pleasant. . . memorable day. . .'

* * *

THE REV. Dr. Carroll observed, 'my heart is overflowing. . .37 years ago, I was on this campus. I am glad to be back home. . .'

Dr. Archibald saw his award as providing a wonderful occasion for me. . .I will always cherish it. . .'

* * *

DR. MITCHELL turned the tables and cited members of his family present who should share the honors.

He also credited the late Dr. Carl Murphy, chairman of the Morgan board of trustees for 'it was his thought that this honor should be given (me). It came from his heart in his last minutes. (Reference was to the fact that Dr. Murphy helped select honorary degree winners on his death bed in Feb. 1967).

* * *

DR. WILLIAMS acknowledged the trustees accolades that he has been a man of courage who has not been afraid to speak up, down on the Eastern Shore and to protest when he and his college have been mistreated.

RICHARD W. EMORY, the new trustee chairman gave a brief eulogy for his predecessor. Dr. Murphy. He told the gathering: 'It was a pleasure to serve with him for 18 years. . .we have suffered a great loss. . .his was dedicated service for Morgan. . .'

* * *

MUSIC FOR the banquet was by the Ensemble directed by William H. Haithcock, Dr. Howard.

The Rev. Howard Cornish, director, Morgan Christian Center, gave the invocation.

* * *

CORE project to receive federal help

WASHINGTON — Rep. Clarence D. Long (D. Md.) has gotten action on a proposal by CORE to expand its Target City Youth program in Baltimore with federal assistance.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, asked by Rep. Long to assist in expanding Target City job training programs for service station operators, agreed this week to consider funding the project.

Wirtz told Rep. Long that representatives of the Maryland State Employment Service and the Maryland Department of Education will review with CORE officials "the possible funding of the Target City Youth program for service station operators as a regular training program under the Manpower Development and Training Act."

* * *

MILTON HOLMES, director of the target city program, recently asked Rep. Long's help in getting the CORE job proposal included in the Baltimore Concentrated Employment Program.

Department of Labor officials replied that they were not able to include the CORE proposal in that program but agreed to consider financing it under other federal auspices.

Other civic activities included work as senior hostess at the USO Center and former president of the Inter-City Club.

Mrs. Barksdale, a resident of this city for 39 years, is an active member of Bethel AME Church. She is not only a charter member of the National Medical Auxiliary, but also a charter member of the Maryland State and Baltimore City Auxiliaries. She holds the office of treasurer of the Maryland State Medical Auxiliary.

In 1960, the local Auxiliary honored her at an elaborate luncheon where she received an engraved silver revere bowl and in 1961, the National Medical Auxiliary presented her with a service award. She is also chaplain of the Women's Auxiliary of the Me-De-So Club.

* * *

ASIDE FROM her past civic work, Mrs. Barksdale has devoted the majority of her time to being a housewife and a mother. As a hobby, she is well known in Baltimore and on the Eastern Seaboard for her gourmet dishes. To those who know her, she is considered not only a mother, housewife, and nurse, but also a "Good Neighbor."

Race Unity Day slated Sunday

The Howard county Baha'i community with other Bahai's throughout the United States will observe Race Unity Day Sunday, June 11.

An international talent and fashion show at Howard High School on Maryland Route 108, at 3 p.m., will be the attraction to which the public is invited.

According to Fred Myers, local assembly chairman, the most challenging issue that faces America today is still the racial issue.

He stated that "we yet have to learn how to remove the marks of prejudice from the hearts of men. The solution to this problem is not only the concern of one race, but of all."

He concluded by saying that religion is the only force strong enough to change men's hearts.

FIRST IN — Lela Brown, sweeps her sidewalk, while Deborah Cornish, Capt. of the 2100 block W. Fayette St., looks at the attractive boxes in windows of Lela's home. Clean Block Director, Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath looks at window boxes of another neighbor who has used an array of color. The 2100 block W. Fayette was the first block registered in this year's AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

12 Clean-up hints

'Don't let your neighborhood become a slum area. If you can remember, the slum areas were once respectable neighborhoods," the "Clean Block Lady" urged this week.

"Organize your block, work together for a better community, if you have unity you have organization.

"Let's get together in our respective blocks and report to proper authorities the many things responsible for a neighborhood becoming a slum area," said the "Clean Block Lady": Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath in her clean blocks tips this week.

She asks 12 timely questions.

DO YOU KNOW:

1. That your children are litterbugs, if allowed to throw ice-cream, candy, wrappings, containers, orange peelings, and banana skins on the street?

2. That children can not live beautiful lives when there is not beauty around a neighborhood that tolerates unwholesome influences and undesirable practices?

3. That you and your neighbors should live up to your obligations as civic-minded and law-abiding citizens?

4. That the law requires you and your neighbors to have metal containers with handles and a tight-fitting lid?

5. That you should urge your friends, neighbors and their friends to stop blowing their auto horns early in the morning and late at night?

6. That it is a law violation for trucks to be parked for long hours in front of your home?

7. You should feel proud of your surroundings and help to safeguard the peace and quiet of your neighborhood?

8. That you must respect yourself first and respect for others will be automatic?

9. That your children should not run on your or your neighbor's lawn if the grass is expected to grow and keep beautiful?

10. That the grass in front and in back should be kept tidy by regular cutting?

11. In sweeping the sidewalk, it gives a neater appearance to the block?

12. That your neighbor has a television and radio too, and you need not play yours so loud?

'C Day' set for June 25

Total war has been declared:

A mighty crew of AFRO Clean Blockers is beo-r in clean Blockers is being organized and every available resource is being geared for the campaign against the number one enemy — LITTERBUG.

"Littered sidewalks unsightly alley, unkept yards, weedchoked vacant lots and unpainted porches and steps must go," said Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath, campaign director.

Clean Block Captains are mustering their forces for "C Day," Monday June 25, when the 33rd Annual AFRO Clean Block begins in earnest, Mrs. Leath declared.

The Clean Block Kick-Off Rally is set for 10 a.m. June 23 at Masonic Temple, 1307 Eutaw Place.

With the goal of a clean and beautiful community before them, full cooperation has been pledged by captains, co-captains, advisors and workers, according to the director.

Literature and material have already been issued to 'early bird" captains, who have organized Clean Block Clubs and have been working in their neighborhoods, Mrs. Leath said.

"KEEPING A clean city depends on everyone. Keeping a clean neighborhood depends on you," the director emphasizes and adds:

"Remember the slogan, "Take Pride in your community and be a good neighbor.''

Captains qualifying for the "early bird" club are:

Deborah Cornish, 2200 W. Fayette St.

Ann Rice, 1300 Etting St.

Shirley Jones, 1100 Montford Ave.

Thomas Hill, 1120 Somerset Ct.

Rhonda Draper, Unit block N. Bentalou St.

Joan Street, 300 Monastery St.

Wanda Cooper, 800 McDonough St.

Fannie Smith, 100 N. Catherine St.

Wayne Hicks, 2000 W. Lexington St.

Prize Fund getting help from friends

The Prize Fund for the 1967 Clean Block Campaign started to climb this week, Mrs Jeannette Leath reports.

Several Clean Block supporters sent their checks in, many of which have been yearly donors for a number of years, according to Mrs. Leath, director.

Accompanied with his check was a letter from Siddney Hollander, a long time supporter of the project. Excerpts follow:

"I'll continue to support the Clean Block Campaign. I've been doing it so long no it's really a habit.

"Every such effort to beautify the city or make it more habitable is most commendable, and the AFRO should be congratulated on its inauguration."

Rosemont opens 'clean-up drive

The Rosemont Neighborhood Improvement Association, held its regular monthly meeting in the auditorium of the Belmont Elementary School No. 217, on Tuesday. Joseph Wiles, president presided.

One of the most important items on the agenda, was the spring clean-up program for the entire area. Dedicated workers, living in the area used their Memorial Day holiday to canvass the neighborhood, inform neighbors of plans for the clean-up program and to ask for their cooperation and support.

AFRO'S CLEAN BLOCK director Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath was among the invited guests who took part in the discussion.

This group is interested in maintaining and beautifying their area. It has been noted that there is a critical need for a spring clean-up.
