Miss Monroe bride of Joseph C. Scott

Miss Bettina V. Monroe, daughter of Mrs. Lillie D. Monroe and the late Robert H. Monroe, and Joseph Clayton Scott were married in Concord Baptist Church, recently.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Scott, Sr. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. R. Silver. Gerald Wilson was organist and Mrs. Roslyn Cattin soloist.

• • •

THE BRIDE wore a silk linen sheath wedding gown appliqued in lace and seed pearl, with matching coat which featured chapel train.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a silk linen pillbox covered with seed pearls. She carried white carnations, nasturtiums and lilies of the valley centered with an orchid.

• • •

MRS. SIDNEY SMITH of San Francisco, Calif. was matron of honor. Her gown was of orchid silk linen and had a matching coat. She carried a basket of carnations and roses.

Bridesmaids wore similar gowns, in blue, carried smaller baskets of the same flowers.

They were Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Mrs. William Grannison, Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. Alfred Randall, Mrs. Roland Harper, Mrs. Michon Williams. Miss Delores Mabry and Miss Brenda Thompson.

Rhonda Cook, flower girl, wore an A-line dress of blue lace and orchid silk lenen, and carried a small basket of carnations. Candle lighters in similar dresses, were Chandola Tillman and Denise Scott.

• • •

DONALD SCOTT was best man for his brother.

Ushers were Vincent Scott, Ronald Harper, Ernest M. Sewell, Rufus Watson, William Grannison, Leonard Johnson and William Harris. Julian Harris was ring bearer.

A reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church. Hostesses were Mrs. Juliaetta Harris, Mrs. Olivia Wooden, and members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority and the Pams Social Club.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Monroe chose an embroidered peau de soie dress with matching jacket in champagne gold with matching accessories.

Mrs. Scott wore light blue jacket dress of silk linen and matching accessories.
