Old-fashioned sugar cookies

Here's a reliable recipe for Old-fashioned Sugar Cookies.

Use 2¾ cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup butter or other shortening, 1 cup granulated sugar, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1 teaspoon vanilla and cinnamon-sugar.

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cream butter, add granulated sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add vanilla; blend. Add flour, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth.

Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll dough 1/8 inch thick on lightly floured board and cut with floured 2¾-inch round cookie cutter. Sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar. Bake on ungreased baking sheets at 400 F. for 8 to 10 minutes, or until edges are lightly browned.

For cinnamon-sugar, use purchased blend or make a mixture of 1 part cinnamon to about 12 parts sugar.

Lead poisoning warning sounded

The approach of warm weather brings with it a warning from the Health Department to parents to guard their children against the perennial menace "lead poisoning."

Dr. Robert E. Farber, commissioner, reports a total of seven children were poisoned in January by eating paint flakes, paint chips, peeling paint or painted plaster.

In the same five-month period, 19 other children suffered lead poisoning.

Symptoms of lead poisoning include pains in the abdomen, nausea, constipation, headaches and convulsions.

"Alertness to the danger, removal of peeling paint and supervision of young children will help reduce the number of victims," Dr. Farber said.
