Foreign ring boards cool to Clay draft conviction

Boxing officials and fans throughout the world appeared unimpressed this week in the wake of Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay's conviction and 5-year sentence for rejecting service in the armed forces.

In the Soviet Union, one newspaper went so far as to charge that the fighter was found guilty in a Houston court because he is colored.

"White judges have chosen the maximum peanlty for a colored spokesman," the paper, Komsomolskaya Pravda, said. "But all the dirt which official America is pouring on him will not blacken the name of a fighter whose spirit is so strong."

* * *

"FOR US Soviet sports fans, Clay remains the best boxer in the world," Radio Moscow said.

Komsomolskaya Pravda said, "The authorities have succeeded in hiding Clay in prison, but he has won his duel with them — perhaps the most important battle of his life."

MEANWHILE in Stockholm promoter Bertil Knutsson said that he hopes to get Clay for a bout in Sweden.

"We still recognize him as the world champion and if he gets permission to leave the United States, we hope we can arrange a fight here early in August," he said.

"We have not yet chosen any opponent for him, but the European champion, Karl Mildenberger of West Germany, Oscar Bonavena of Argentina, and the winner of the Joe Frazier-George Chuvalo bout are possible men for him," Knutsson said.

A EUROPEAN boxing union official said in Rome, that the EBU has no immediate comment to make on the conviction of Clay for refusing the induction.

He said the stand EBU had taken in the past as a member of the World Boxing Council was that Clay could not be stripped of his world heavyweight title until his case had been closed by a final court ruling.

"In our view the case is still pending because we hear Clay intends to appeal his conviction," the EBU official said. "Our feeling is that any decision should be postponed until his appeal is acted on."

AT THE same time, the British Boxing Board of Control announced that it will discuss Clay's conviction at its meeting next month.

Secretary Teddy Waltham said "It's a matter which will have to be discussed by the full board. The next meeting is next month and there will be no statement before then."

He added, "In view of his announced appeal there may be some difficulties in taking a stand. As we see it, the matter is subjudice at the moment."

Lady Carling golf aids cancer fight

Members of the Ladies Professional Golf Association of America will participate in the Lady Carling Women's Open to be held at Pine Ridge Golf Course, July 7-9.

Proceeds of this special event will go to the American Cancer Society.

As an added event, there will be a Pro-Amateur tournament on Thursday, July 6, at which time, local men and women (maximum handicap 18) will have the opportunity to test their skill and be a playing partner with one of the lady pros.

SEVERAL motion picture and television personalities will appear, and other dignitaries from state and local government will participate. Several nationally known ACS volunteer celebrities will make spots and promote the tournament. The coverage in all the media will be extensive.

The Golfer's Charitable Association, Inc., is a group of 68 prominent civic leaders and businessmen who have each contributed $1,000 toward the success of this venture. In addition, Carling Brewery has given $7,500.

The ticket price to view the entire three-day tournament is $5.
