Committee with cuts totaling $9,081,326 in requested appropriations.

The Record budget reflects a reduction in the property tax rate of from $4.73 to $4.42 as it now stands.

Councilman Curran explained that the new budget carries pay raises for all city employees.

Police, firemen and teachers are to get theirs Sept. 1, and others are to become effective Sept. 18.

Lone dissenter in the voting was Councilman Thomas Ward (2nd D.), who asked that the budget be sent back for another $6,000,000. in cuts. He termed the budget "a burden on the taxpayers."

Councilman Ward noted that there were substantial pay increases for persons in high level jobs in the budget, but pointed out that the city would still not raise the pay of laborers to $2. an hour

• • •

ANOTHER EXPECTED Council action that did not materialize Thursday evening was the resignation of Councilman Leon A. Ruberstein (5th D.), the switch to his seat of Councilman Maurice J. Soypher, who represents the 4th District but now lives in the 5th, and the appointment of Robert C. Marshall, Council clerk, to fill the Soypher 4th District seat.

Mr. Rubenstein has been named head of the city's Department of Legislative Reference, making this expected switch possible. He takes office July 1.

This planned switch will not come, however, without opposition.

Mr. Marshall is affiliated with the Pollack forces in the 4th District.

Councilman Parks, an official of the rival 4th District Democratic Organization, plans to submit his own nominee for the coming Council vacancy in his district.

Strong reports are that this nominee will be John R. Hargrove, prominent attorney and former People's Court judge

• • •

ON WEDNESDAY the Council passed by a 14 to 6 vote the controversial ordiance authorizing the reorganization of the Department of Public Works.

This is the measure which provides that Mayor McKeldin, if he wishes, can make ten key departmental appointments to stand through 1971 —the four-year term of the next mayor.

However, William D. Schaefer (5th D.), who previously opposed the ordinance, said he had an assurance from the mayor that he would only make interim appointments to run through the coming December.

The 4th District's Councilmen Walter T Dixon and Henry G. Parks Jr. split on the voting. Councilman Dixon voted for the measure.

Explicr, Councilman James J. Duffy (1st D.), who opposed the ordinance, pointed out that there was a creation of the ten new high level jobs, while clerical and other employees of the department were faced with decreases in the new budget.

COUNCILMAN PARKS, in voting against the ordinance, again attacked the mayor for pressing for what he termed "a purely political matter."

Here is some of what he said:

"The mayor said publicly on TV he didn't know about this bill. This is an administration bill.

"If he doesn't know about this bill, Lord help us. Maybe he doesn't know about public accommodations either.

"This kind of political move by this Council is wrong. If the same interest here was put on human rights, matters would be far better for the city of Baltimore."

UN reporter to speak for Evers Day

Malvin R. Goode, UN correspondent for ABC News, will be the principal speaker at Montgomery County NAACP's Medgar Evers Day Observance on Sunday, June 25, at 4 p.m. in the Educational Services Center, 850 North Washington St., Rockville, Maryland.

Demonstrations against tavern segregation on Greenmount Ave., picked up tension Wednesday night as a huge crowd of whites, whipped up by the National States Rights Party, took to the street in a counter-demonstration that produced anxious moments for city police.

Despite a potentially explosive period during which marchers mobbed the sound-equipped car driven by the party leader, Joseph L. Carroll, relative calm prevailed as police moved in promptly to order the badly-shaken Carroll from the area.

• • •

DURING THE three - hour march from Greenmount and North Aves., to 28th St. and Greenmount Ave., one of the taverns closed as the marchers approached. In two others they were served.

Still another kept its doors open but all seats in the place had been filled by whites.

Here, the demonstrators, led by CORE representative Stuart Wechsler, clapped, sang, and marched around inside the premises before leaving.

• • •

DICKLER'S CAFE, at North and Greenmount Aves., original target of demonstrations, closed its doors earlier in the evening in anticipation of further protests.

Before the Carroll car was pounded by the marchers, a crowd numbering over 500 was drawn to the scene, with whites heavily outnumbering the demonstrators.

No arrests were made and Deputy Police Commissioner Wade Poole later said:

"The situation was well in hand. There has been no real trouble so far, and I don't think there will be."

Salem's Youth Council sets pageant, exhibition of roses

The Youth Council of Salem Community Church will hold an exhibition of roses, followed by a pageant on Sunday.

The rose show will feature members of the For-Win-Ash Garden Club as well as individual exhibitors, and will open at 10 a.m. in the Provicent Hospital Annex, 1501 Division St.

• • •

THE PAGEANT will take place at 5 p.m.

Participants will include the Young People's Choir of Salem Community Church, and three soloists: Miss LaVerna Tyree, senior at St. Frances Academy and member of the Cecilian Choral Glee Club; Miss Linda Poulson, Forest Park High School and member of St. John A.M.E. Church; and Miss Evelyn C. Dildy, Peabody student and member of Morning Star Baptist Church.

Miss Tayna Wells is chairman and Miss Yolanda Harvey is president of the Youth Council.

Science Council picks Dr. Talbot

Dr. Walter R. Talbot, professor and chairman of the Department of Mathematics at Morgan State College, has been appointed to the Scientific Council of the Maryland Academy of Sciences, it was announced Tuesday by J. Cookman Boyd, Jr., chairman of the Academy's Board of Trustees.

The Scientific Council advises the Academy on scientific activities, particularly as to their scientific soundness, their relative importance and their relation to the work of other organizations and institutions.

Dr. Talbot received his A.B., A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. Prior to joining the faculty at Morgan State, he taught at Lincoln University, Missouri.

In addition to his participation in various educational programs of the Academy, Dr. Talbot is a member of the American Mathematical Society, Mathematics Association of America, Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers Association, Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society and Sigma Xi.
