Baltimore Orioles' Frank Robinson slugging MVP forced to miss game with injury

Marichal to open on hill for NL, Frank on sideline

ANAHEIM, Cal. — Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves and Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants, were tapped as key players for the National League as manager Walt Alston announced his strategy for the All-Star Game here this afternoon (Tuesday).

Aaron will be in centerfield and Marichal will be the starting pitcher.

Alston said by playing Aaron in centerfield, "We will have only one outfielder out of position, and besides, Hank has played enough center so that I don't have to worry about him."

That meant that Lou Brock of the Cardinals, will be in left and Roberto Clemente of the Pirates in right when the game gets underway in Anaheim Stadium at 4:15 p.m. PDT (7:15 p.m. EDT).

The starting lineup, also indicated by Alston, shows colored players in the first five spots of the batting order.

* * *

ON THE American League side, on the other hand, there are problems, not the least of which is the absence of Frank Robinson.

The 1966 most valuable player and triple crown batting champion will be forced to miss the classic because of an injury sustained two weeks ago. He slid hard into White Sox second baseman Al Weiss to break up an impending double play and has been suffering double vision as a result of the attendant concussion.

* * *

THE AMERICANS, who haven't won an All-Star game since 1960, leaned toward ex-local boy Dean Chance to break the NL's dominance.

Chance, of the Minnesota Twins, was a Cy Young award winner with the California Angels and has an 11-7 record this season. Manager Hank Bauer of the American was expected to name him officially as the junior circuit starter.

* * *

PITCHING, HOWEVER, was not the major problem confronting Bauer who has to decide which are the healthy players in his arnica brigade

The American League team lost its two leading sluggers, Al Kaline of Detroit, and Robinson, Bauer's own fair-haired clouters, the day the team selections were announced.

And if that isn't enough, Bauer has to decide if Rod Carew, the young tan keystoner of the Twins! is well enough to play.

Carew is the only rookie in either starting lineup.

* * *

ALSTON SAID he was "leaning" toward Marichal because he doesn't want to hold him back for the end of the game "unless someone can guarantee me we'll be ahead by the seventh inning."

Alston's thinking is that should Marichal start he could use him for three innings. If he held back the 12-game winner, he might find himself in a spot where he might have to go to a pinch-hitter and that way get only one or two innings out of Juan.

* * *

AS TO Aaron playing center, Walt said he will wait until he has talked with Brock, Hank and Clemente.

Brock plays left regularly while both Clemente and Aaron are rightfielders. However, the Braves on occasion have shifted Hank to center.

* * *

THE NL starting lineup will have Brock leading off, Clemente hitting second and Aaron batting third. Then will come Orlando Cepeda of the Cardinals at first, Richie Allen of the Phils at third, Joe Torre of the Braves catching, Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates at second, Gene Alley of the Pirates, at short and Marichal pitching.

Mays, a supplemental entry on the All-Star team, most definitely will see action, inasmuch as he is a centerfielder and one of the game's top clutch-hitters.

Muhammad Tokyo plea unanswered

HOUSTON — A U. S. District judge has postponed action on a request by Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay to leave this country until he could investigate what he said were possible anti-American activities on the part of the ex-champion.

Judge Joe Ingraham called a "piece rally" held in Los Angeles June 25 at which Ali spoke.

"I am concerned about his attending these rallies," the judge said. "I think I need to know more about it."

Muhammad, who is appealing a conviction for refusing induction into the Army, is free on a 5,000 appeal bond. Under the bond, he must obtain Ingraham's permission to leave the county.

He had asked Ingraham to be allowed to go to Tokyo on Aug. 15, for a 30-day period in which he planned to fight. He said he planned the bout because he needed money to pay his alimony and attorneys' fees.

ALI ADMITTED under cross-examination by U. S. Atty. Morton Susman that he had attended the Los Angeles Rally, but said he did not do so to show any anti-American feelings.

"I was invited to say a few words. I spoke about five minutes," he said. "I did not say anything controversial."

Did you tell them anything about not going into the Army?" asked Susman.

"I told them I was not going to encourage them to stay out of the Army, but that whatever they did they had to do on their own conscience," the former champion said.

ALI ALSO said his actions in stopping a crowd of colored rowdies from attacking two white newsmen last month in San Diego, Calif., showed he was not anti-American.

"I told that crowd at the top of my voice that it was unnecessary and that I was not for it," he said. "And they stopped."

MUHAMMAD, SPENT 40 minutes on the witness stand, and 20 of those minutes were spent in arguing his patriotism with Susman.

"If Communism was coming here and fighting us, I'd fight," he said. "But as far as joining up, I don't want to."

"If we were physically attacked, we would have to fight. I would not have to join up. I would just pick up a gun and start fighting."

Lurleen loses

WASHINGTON

Alabama's Gov. Lurleen Wallace has lost her attempt to block a $400,000 federal grant to the Southwest Alabama Farmers Cooperative. Her veto has been overruled by Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Gov. Wallace charged that the cooperative was linked with "black power" activities in Alabama, but FBI and OEO investigators could find no evidence to support her charge.

BTC CHAMPION — Edgar Lee of Washington, D.C., (left) and Bennie Logan of Durham, N.C., captured singles titles in the Baltimore Tennis Club's annual tournament last weekend at Druid Hill Park. Lee won the senior crown with a victory over Alex Brown of this city. Miss Logan, the ranking American Tennis Association player though only 15 years old, took the women's title defeating Bessie Stockard. John Lucas, like Bonnie a product of the ATA's Youth Development Program headed by Dr. R. W. Johnson of Lynchburg, Va., beat David Williams for the boys' singles honors. Making the presentations of awards are William McConley of Carling Brewery (right) and Irvington Williams.

Madeline Manning beats Australian world champ

LOS ANGELES — Madeline Manning of Tennessee State University, and Kip Keino of Kenya (Africa), shared the spotlight among ten colored champions crowned in the British Commonwealth Games, held here last weekend in the form of a United States-Great Britain track and field duel.

Miss Manning romped to a thrilling win over the women's world record holder at 800 meters, Judy Pollock of Australia. And Keino, after losing to one world record holder on Saturday, conquered another in capturing the 5,000 meters event on Sunday.

Keino was victimized by record-breaking Jim Ryun in the 1500 meters, which is the latter's favorite distance, in the sizzling time of 3:33.1, but came back the following day to run away from Ron Clarke of Australia, holder of just about every world mark above that distance.

IN ALL, ten colored athletes took down gold medals in the 2-day competition, seven representing the U.S.

Miss Manning, however, was the only tan champion in the women's competitions.

THE UPSET of the meet in the men's events came in the 100 meters where Jamaican Lennox Miller, a student at the University of Southern California who is used to the Coliseum course, survived four false starts to nip Nebraska's fleet Charlie Greene, Miller equalled the Coliseum record of 10.1 while Greene was clocked in 10.2."

Jimmy Hines and Willie Turner, America's other entrants in the dash, were disqualified for jumping the gun twice each. Both have run in world record time of 10 flat.

Willie Davenport took the 110-meter hurdles as expected but had to run head-and-foot against U. S. teammates Richmond Flowers and Earl McCullouch to win. Davenport was clocked in: 13.8 as was Flowers while McCullouch was a tenth of a second behind.

ON THE distaff side, America's Miss Manning held off a game try in the last 50 yards by Pollock to set a new U.S. record in the 800 meters.

KIPCHOGE KEINO also beat record holder
