[p. 184] In Council June 29th. 1790

Whereas Patrick Halfpenny and Catharine Halfpenny of Baltimore County, were presented in the Court of Oyer and Terminer for said County, at March term last—the former in two, and the latter in one, Presentments, and fined on each twenty shillings. And the said Patrick and Catharine having by their Petition represented, that the said fines were for an Assault, and that the fines and fees are too burthensome, having a large family of Children to support, and nothing to depend on but the daily labour of him the said Patrick, they
