A TRASH CAN, just delivered by the Sanitation Department, is being moved a few doors away by the Clean Block captain and her workers, Brenda Henderson, Pamela Parson and Teresa White. In this block only three children are helping with the Clean Block Campaign.

1000 SARAH ANN ST. — "This unsightly cluttered lot is one of three found in this block," said Clean Block director Jeanette B. Leath. In spite of this, workers are painting and fixing their block while waiting for the city to do something about these lots.

DIGGING UP cans, bottles, rubbish and leveling the ground so it can be cemented and fixed up for neighborhood play area for children are William Cooper, Charles Flemings of CAA, and Michael Swarty, VISTA worker. Not shown but heading the project is Robert Harding, art professor at the Maryland Institute of Art, also pictured are neighborhood workers, they are helping, too.

Clean Block Sidelights

By LINDA CALLOWAY

The July 14 meeting of the AFRO Clean Block meeting was called to order by the director, Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath. It was opened with the Lord's Prayer.

George Barrett, from the Compliance Division of the Bureau of Building Inspection Bureau plays in making city Clean Blockers some vital information concerning the part the Building Inspection Bureauplays in making sure that their homes are kept in good condition.

"Any complaints that you may have concerning the bad condition of your homes and grounds surrounding your homes, call PL 2-2000. This is a special complaint bureau to help people with their problems", said Mr. Barret.

Later in the program 20 captains from choice blocks were called to the front of the auditorium and were told that their blocks were the first to be on the Honor Roll.

The Clean Block captains were overjoyed and received plenty applause from their fellow Clean Blockers. This is what they had to say when asked to say a few remarks about the progress and colors of their blocks:

"Our colors are green and white . . . everything is finished in our block . . . only three of us are working", said Capt. Ann Rice 1300 Etting St.

"Our colors are light white . . . we get to early in the morning . . . all of our steps are finished", said Capt. Wayne Hicks, 2000 W. Lexington St.

"Our coloscolors are light green and dark green . . . everything is finished," said Capt. Larry Morris, 1900 Fayette St.

"Our colors are green and white . . . everything is finished", said Capt. Vanessa Nole, 1700 Preston St.

"Our colors are green and white . . . we cut grass that was so high in one back yard you could not see out of the back door," said Capt. Fannie Smith, 100 S. Catherine St.

"Our colors are green and white," said Capt. Denise Pittman, 500 Fulton Ave.

"We have ine more housecleaning completed. We are coming along very well," said Capt. Charles Peaker, 900 Argyle Ave.

Two blocks had planned entertainment for Clean Blockers, but due to difficulties beyond our control they were unable to do so because the record player would not play. They promised to come back next week with hopes that the record player would be in good working order.

Tickets to the Movie Jamboree which will be on July 18 were distributed to all Clean Blockers living on the west side because the movie is too small to accommodate all of the clean blockers.

The west side was chosen because it was thought it would be easier for Clean Blockers to get to the Harlem Theater, which is located on the west side.

Next week tickets will be distributed for the Apollo Theatre which is located on the east side. At that time tickets will be distributed to Clean-Blockers for next week with hopes that the same reasons.

"In order to be eligible for a Clean Block award, a block must appear on the Honor Roll at least once. In order to stay on the Honor Roll you must maintain your block but if you fail to keep up, your block is removed from the Honor Roll," said Clean Block director, Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath.

And lay them gently on your grave.

Council starts beauty drive

The Henry Highland Garnet Neighborhood Council kicked off their second annual Beautiful Backyard Contest Saturday and will continue it through Aug. 31.

Last year's contest saw 35 blocks participating. This year more than 50 are expected.

Considered in the judging will be painting, whitewashing, removal of trash and repair of hazardous fixtures and general appearance of the yards.

The Sanitation Department and other city agencies have been contacted to assist the program.

Judges will be picked by the council. The winners will be announced soon after the contest ends. William Peaks, 572 St. Mary's St., is chairman of the contest.

JULY 21

The University of Maryland Summer Choir will join the National Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at the Merriweather Post Pavilion in Columbia, Maryland. The concert will feature pianist Leonard Pennario and soloist Annie Walker.
