In Council September 12th. 1792

Augustus Delarue of Prince Georges County by his Petition sets forth that He came to reside in the town of Bladensburgh in October 1791 and opened a store for selling Liquors about December, when a licence could not be obtained, but concluded that if he paid his Money at the next Court it would be sufficient and accordingly at April Court he took out licence, and informed the Court of what he had before done, and offered his Money to pay for the time he had sold, but the Court informed him they had no power to receive it, that a Mr Dyer one of the Grand Jury coming to the knowledge of the above Circumstances considered himself bound to present him, that he submitted to the Court and was fined according to Law. The Chief Justice and one of the Associate Justices having recommended the Petitioner—the Board taking into consideration all the Circumstances attending his case do order and direct a Remission of the aforesaid fine on payment of all the Costs.
