Local representatives at Church Women's assembly

Art by Roman Catholic Sister Mary Cerita and sculpture by Robert Ames set the stage for the historic gathering at Purdue University, Ind., of Protestant, Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox women.

Thirteen church women from Baltimore joined 2,000 others who met together with one common purpose: To explore, dialogue and reaffirm their mutual beliefs and concerns in what some of them called "a wounded and suffering world."

This was the Ecumenical Assembly of Church Women United.

Its opening program featured a contemporary play by Canadian playwright Hilda Pewicke, which stressed the theme of "No Longer At Ease."

The idea, developed in programs and study, is that the church women, not just in the Americas, but the rest of the world, no longer are at ease — not sitting back and waiting — but pledging their Christian action toward a better world — one in which persons, more than things, mattered.

Mrs. James M. Delbey of Cincinnati, newly elected president of Church Women United, said in her inaugural address that the "wholeness" of the individual is the "answer to our mechanical, impersonal world."

"Today's woman has particular contributions to give to an urban society," Mrs. Delbey said. "She has a voice to express her aspirations as well as her fears; she is a channel for communication and most certainly can be a reconciling force in solving the problems created by a society striving to live fully at all levels.

Calling on Church Women United to work through its 2,400 councils toward a mere humane society in which individuals count for more than the mass, she said: "Today men and women cry for change in their cities — changes of attitudes, changes in human relationships — changes in direction — and they cry for action to get the city rebuilt."

THE REPRESENTATIVES of Church Women United of Baltimore have returned, accepting the challenge put before them, now ready to translate their commitment into action as they realistically face the complex needs of Baltimore.

Miss Lillie A. Ross, member of the Leadership Council for Housing in Maryland, represented the local Church Women United.

She told the AFRO on her return trip she met Mrs. Margaret Young Brown, of the AFRO staff at the airport in Chicago. Mrs. Brown, AFRO teletype supervisor, was on the way to school to study advanced techniques for the newspaper firm.

A meeting of Baltimoreans attending the Assembly was held Monday, July 24 at 10:15 a.m. at 14 W. Madison St.

Those present at the Assembly and residing on Purdue campus during the conference were Miss Helen V. Benton, Dr. Mary N. Brooks, Mrs. Virginia L. Brown, Miss Mary Cessford, Mrs. Laura Giles, Mrs. Robert Heflin, Mrs. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Kelly Jackson, Mrs. Gladys Johnson, Mrs. Sherman Morris, Miss Lillie A. Ross, Mrs. Addye T. Smith and Mrs. Ann K. Morgan, president, Church Women United of Baltimore.

This has marked the first triennial assembly of the organization since it became Church Women United and admitted Roman Catholics to its membership — thereby becoming the first and only thoroughly ecumenical national agency of Christian women.

Church of God ends 4-day Bible session

The 12th annual Sunday Bible School Convention closed a four-day session here Sunday at the House of God Church, 163 W. Cross St.

Delegates from New Jersey, Florida, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina, as well as from Maryland, attended the meetings.

The convention was considered highly successful. Each session was highlighted with gospel singing, preaching, panel discussion and scripture lessons.

AWARDS WERE given to the outstanding superintendents, pastors and students. The students helped express the theme of the convention, "Meeting the Challenge of Tomorrow," with discussions and essays.

The young people in the convention took a trip on Saturday for an afternoon of fun at Gwynn Oak Amusement Park.

Saturday evening service was a specialty. A song festival developed around the theme, "A Rainbow of Songs."

This idea was executed uniquely. Young ladies in pastel gowns were arranged to give the impression of the colors of a rainbow. The men were dressed in evening attire.

* * *

OFFICERS elected during the convention were: the Rev. H. Currey, superintendent; the Rev. Miss V. L. Pickford, assistant superintendent; Miss Faye Henderson, acting secretary; Miss Rosetta Ryan, assistant secretary; Elder Mrs. E. M. Jennings, presided.

The convention was officially closed by Bishop Julius R. Lockley, pastor of House of God.

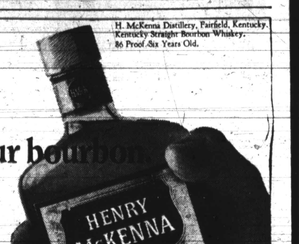
Rehabilitation hearings slated

Dr. B. Stanley Cohen, chairman of the Baltimore City Task Force Committee of the Governor's Study Groups on Vocational Rehabilitation, has announced three more public hearings on vocational rehabilitation.

The second will be at 3 p.m., July 25 at the fourth floor conference room, Sears Roebuck and Company, 1400 E. North Ave.; the third hearing, July 26 at 3 p.m., in the Conference Room of the Associated Placement and Guidance Bureau, 5750 Park Heights Ave., where the first hearing on June 29 was held.

The fourth will also be held at Sears Roebuck, July 27 at 3 p.m.



H. McKenna Distillery, Fairfield, Kentucky. Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey. 86 Proof Six Years Old.

Mister, here's your bourbon.

It's made by hand.
With meticulous care.
The hopelessly antiquated, deliciously
old-fashioned way.
Made by men who know good corn and won't take less. Who stop making whiskey when their limestone pond drops below the
"perfect bourbon water" level.
If you've never tasted hand made Kentucky whiskey, try Henry McKenna. It's bourbon, Mister.
Could be your bourbon.

Matthews to be cited to mark his retirement

Charles F. Matthews of 2600 Rossalyn Ave. will be honored at both a party and a reception on the occasion of his retirement. He has been a member of the Reproduction Unit (printing) with Social Security for 25 years.

At 70, Mr. Matthews is probably the oldest printing plant employee in the government since the usual retirement age is 65.

The reception will be in the main cafeteria, northeast corner of the Social Security Building in Woodlawn, on Thursday, from 3-5 p.m.

The party is to be held at 6000 Liberty Rd. This big activity on July 28 will begin at noon with no set time limit.

* * *

ATTENDING the party will be such dignitaries as Paul E. Burke, State commissioner of safety, and State's Attorney Charles Moylan, among hosts of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Matthews was the first executive director of the Baltimore Community Youth Centers Circuit, was appointed to the Baltimore Youth Commission in 1945 by Mayor McKeldin, was appointed chairman of the United Nations Nationalities Committee for the Baltimore Area and was made organizer and director of Youth for Baltimore City at large by Charles Moylan.

MR. MATTHEWS was married to the late Mrs. Mary Vesta Ross Matthews for 49 years before her death. He has one son.

Mr. Matthews thinks "it's a great thing," that his friends want to honor him. As for how he'll spend his retirement, he states:

"I expect to do a little traveling. I'm going to get around to see some relatives and visit my old stomping grounds."

After suffering two heart attacks, General Freeman of 2401 Shirley Ave., died at Sinai Hospital on July 20. He was 65.

He and his wife, Maggie, had been married for 43 years. Mr. Freeman came to Baltimore in 1959. He was born in Columbia, S.C., where he was a farmer.

Funeral services were held on Monday at noon at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, where Mr. Freeman had been a deacon for many years.

In Memoriams

GOLDMAN — In loving memory of our mother, MARY FRANCES, who passed away July 25, 1961.

Your dear smile, your eyes so tender
Your kind ways we remember.
A loving heart that now is quiet.
Deep trust in God that all was right.
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of others.
We know he said, well done, dear Mother.

Loving Son,

HAWKINS — In loving memory of my dear son and our brother, CALVIN WINFIELD HAWKINS, who passed away July 19, 1966:

Peaceful be thy rest, dear son and brother.
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

MOTHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS

PAMILTON — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, J. PAMILTON, who passed away July 19, 1965:

We've missed the sound of your footsteps,
And your voice since you have gone.
And though we no longer see you,
In our minds you still live on.
And so we smile in the daytime,
But some nights our hearts are sore.
As we think of the dear one God took away
To His distant and golden shore.

THE FAMILY

RICHARDSON — In loving memory of our dear daughter, LITTLE MISS SHERRELL RICHARDSON, who departed this life from us July 26, 1966:

One year has passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away;
God took her home — it was His will;
Within our hearts she lives still.

MOTHER, FATHER And SISTERS

THOMAS — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, EDWARD, who passed away July 26, 1966:

Today our hearts are heavy
Our thoughts are all of thee,
On how we miss you EDWARD, dear
None but God in heaven can see;
Some say time heals an aching heart
But no it isn't true,
For one long year has passed dear
And our hearts still ache for you.
