Fine Arts Club aids 'Y' program

ANNAPOLIS — Summer activities of the Annapolis YWCA were enhanced greatly this year when the Annapolis Fine Arts Club in cooperation with the "Y", conducted a series of cultural programs centered around the theme "American Music."

The programs, especially set up for elementary school children, were conducted at the recreation center on St. Mary's Street four consecutive Saturdays starting June 24.

The first program in the series was centered around the theme, "Kinds of Music," when Mrs. Douglas R. Lacey provided a program of various kinds of music showing distinct rhythm and melody, and an introduction to harmony, when she used the guitar.

* * *

MRS. LACEY is a faculty member of the Bay Country School in the primary department. She did extensive study at Peabody Conservatory of Music and the Guildhhall School of Music in London, England.

Mrs. Rufus S. Abernethy, a specialist in folk dancing, conducted a session revolving around the theme "Music Through Singing Games and Folk Dancing."

Mrs. Abernthey, a teacher in the Anne Arundel County School System, earned her A. B. degree from Bennett College and her M.A. degree from the University of Michigan. A Crusade Scholar of the Methodist Church, Mrs. Abernethy taught music at Bennett College and in the Detroit, school system. She is presently working toward a Ph.D. degree at Boston University.

Also during this program, Vincent Godfrey Burns, Poet Laureate of Maryland, thrilled the children through his dramatic presentations of his original poems in costume. He gave prizes to those children who could retain clues in the verses of his poems.

Mrs. Willie Q. McManus carried out the idea of "Music Through Drama and Jazz." She made the children aware of the important role of jazz in our American culture, its history and its rhythmic values. She also used "The Sound of Music" airs for a demonstration of music "The Sound of Music" airs for a demonstration of music and drama tied in together and the children sang several songs from the musical.

Mrs. McManus, a teacher at the Annapolis Junior High School, received her A.B. degree from Bennett College and did advance dstudy at Syracuse University.

The program for the last of the series presented Lee Gaffney, folk singer with the U.S. Army Field Band. Gaffney talked to the children on American folk songs and accompanied himselg on teh guitar. The program theme was "Music Through Folklore."

The series of programs were coordinated by Mrs. William H. Richardson, program chairman for the Annapolis Fine Arts Club.

Other officers and members of the club are:

Mesdames McManus, president; Mrs. Ras Johnson, Peters, secretary; Mrs. vice president; Mrs. Everett Henry Holland, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel P. Massey, co-chairman of program; Mrs. Douglas S. King, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Rufus Abernethy, chaplain; Mrs. Kermit Ables and Mrs. Maceo Bonds, hospitality co-chairman; Mrs. George McKnezie Phillips, Mrs. Charles Gibbs, Mrs. James Motley and Miss Jean Franklin.
