

Attention,
DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES!

---

Rally to the Polls!

---

The test-oath in the present constitution, although modified by the Legislature, has disfranchised 10,000 of our citizens. THIS DAY you strike for liberty.

---

If you are worthy to be free,
VOTE FOR THE CONVENTION!

If you are opposed to inequality and oppression,
VOTE FOR THE CONVENTION!

If you are not radicals,
VOTE FOR THE CONVENTION!

All the Votes Against the Convention will be Counted for your Enemies.

You cannot avoid the issue. The crisis is upon you, and if you fail now, you are unworthy of liberty. Would Jackson have been bullied out of his rights? Did not Clay say that he would rather be right than President? Awake, arouse, or be forever degraded in the eyes of the American people. Send back a cheer to old Connecticut that Maryland marches to the music of the Constitution and the Union! By order of

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
JAMES R. BREWER, Chairman.

The Democrats and Conservatives held a convention and adopted the following statement and resolutions:

Address to the People of Baltimore.

---

FELLOW-CITIZENS: The representatives of the Democratic and conservative party having met in convention to organize for the protection of the constitution and the Union, and to ensure to each and all the blessings that flow from regulated liberty, send hopeful greeting to the citizens of Baltimore.

The war is past and peace reigns over all the States and Territories—every party in arms against the government has been disbanded, and patriots are everywhere seeking to renew that fraternal alliance of State and people which has advanced us to the front rank of nations. But in the midst of congratulations we have been startled by the announcement of principles subversive of the theory
