AFRO man sets film precedent

BURBANK, Cal. — Studio publicity director Max Berecutt has announced the assignment of unit publicist Vincent Tubbs to the Warner Bros.-Seven Arts film version of the best selling novel "The Arrangement" by Elia Kazan.

The assignment, according to industry sources, is a major precedent-making one for a colored publicist and will cover two years on location in New York City.

Tubbs is former AFRO assistant managing editor.

TUBBS HAS been employed by Warner Bros. since 1961 and is first vice president of the Publicists Guild, Local 818, IATSE. He is the only senior publicist in the industry.

Kazan, who authored the novel currently topping the best seller lists, will also produce and direct the Warner-Seven Arts film, probably with Marlon Brando in the starring role.

ONE KEY sequence of the film will be from the section of the book in which the principal's daughter is courted by and engaged to a colored man.

The breakthrough is at hand

Men who desire freedom must have representation. In our city the Negro has no representation in the Sixth District, nor the Third District, nor the First District nor the Second District, nor the Fifth District.

We can now change this with able candidates to be elected. For the breakthrough I am working for:

Clarence Mitchell, III
For President of the City Council

Robert Douglass
and
Floyd Rogers
Second District

Levi Miller

Prize money going to Hanoi

MOSCOW (UPI) — Pastor Martin Niefoeller, a World War I submarine commander and now a leading West German pacifist and chureman, said Sunday he will donate $11,100 of his Lenin Peace Prize money to the North Vietnamese Red Cross.

The 75-year-old president of the German Peace Society and high official of the World Council of Churches, was awarded the Lenin Prize this year. He said he has decided to use most of the prize money to buy medical instruments for Hanoi.

A part of the prize also will be given to German charities, he said.

Niemoeller is vacationing in the Moscow countryside on his seventh visit to the Soviet Union.

laws, Mr. D'Alesandro's name could always be found in the "for" column.

As a young, vigorous, and alert city official attuned to the strengths and weaknesses of all sections of Baltimore, the AFRO is convinced Mr. D'Alesandro has performed well.

THE COURAGE, maturity, and determination Mr. D'Alesandro has demonstrated throughout his years of public office was absent during last year's general elections.

He failed to take a stand against his party's nominee for governor, who campaigned on a racist slogan.

While Mr. D'Alesandro didn't actively support the 'home - castle' nominee, his refusal to speak out against him was the subject of bitter criticism, and properly so, we think.

Mr. D'Alesandro's explanation was that while he did not agree with his party's nominee, as titular head of City Democrats he deemed it unwise to bolt.

We felt then, feel now, that was a tactical error. In retrospect, the Council president agrees.

We are convinced nevertheless, that this one instance of a judgement error does not overshadow an otherwise long and creditable record of public service. He deserves his party's nomination.

MR. ANGELOS is a bright, young, aggressive, and effective candidate. His most glaring weakness is the lack of experience in public office.

Frankly, he is a total stranger in our community.

Further, while he has created an impressive liberal image, during the current campaign, while a Third District councilman, the AFRO feels Mr. Angelos could hardly have been considered a liberal.

Maturity, however, has a way of reshaping a man's philosophy and outlook. Mr. Angelos is no exception. With additional experience we are confident he will become an able public official.

FOR REPUBLICANS

On the Republican side we favor Mr. Culotta over Arthur W. Sherwood because there is basically little difference in their political philosophy.

They only find themselves on opposite sides now because of an internal party squabble.

Their past and present ties with Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin give evidence of this. It does not ring true that Mr. Culotta is the reactionary he is pictured as being.

Otherwise it is highly unlikely that he would be allied with the city's leading Republican of color, Marshall W. Jones.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT

The Democratic race for president of City Council between Councilman William D. Schaefer and Sen. Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd presents a vital factor for AFRO readers specifically and voters generally.

Since its inception 75 years ago the AFRO has urged colored citizens to seek positions of power and influence in the higher echelons of politics.

Mr. Mitchell, young, aggressive, intelligent, and endowed with a family background of devoted service to the cause of civil rights, is a living symbol of that AFRO credo.

His candidacy is consistent with the trends of changing times and we strongly urge all voters to support him.

This in no way reflects upon his chief opponent, Mr. Shaefer, an able and distinguished councilman.

We are certain that Mr. Schaefer agrees that it is time for more than 40 per cent of the city's population to have representation at that level of government.

It also points up the need for formulators of major political tickets to remain ever mindful of the need to include all segments of the population.

As to the argument that he lacks experience, we merely cite the case of Mr. D'Alesandro as a rebuttal.

Mr. Mitchell has all the potentials of becoming an effective Council president, given the opportunity. We think he deserves just that.

The AFRO recommends that Republicans vote for Horace H. Ashby for City Council president. A teacher, young (34), and aware of the city's needs, we think he too, is a symbol of the new thinking in urban politics.

One of his chief opponents, Daniel W. Ham, a 52-year-old engineer is also a competent candidate. However, there aren't but so many Republicans and they can ill afford to split their vote.

THERE IS little comparison between the experience his chief opponent for comptroller, Francis J. Valle, has of Hyman A. Pressman, the city's watchdog and We urge Democrats to vote for Mr. Pressman.

* * *

REPUBLICANS SHOULD vote for Melvin A. Callaman, an experienced businessman, who at 50, has a firm grasp of fiscal know-how.

CITY COUNCILMEN

It is disheartening that in view of the present low state of councilmen of caliber in the First District the AFRO has no recommendations.

ONE OF the most crucial districts for both colored citizens and the city in the Thursday primary is the Second. Despite a majority of registered colored voters, the district has never elected a colored councilman.

While Thursday will present the best opportunity to do so, factionalism is threatening to dissipate that opportunity. For colored voters to waste their votes on the abundance of candidates of color is criminal.

With rank racism figuring prominently in the Second District election, it is mandatory that colored voters go to the polls in great numbers and cast a unified vote.

We urge Democrats to ignore appeals of racism and division and cast their vote for Robert L. Douglass, Floyd E. Rogers and incumbent councilman Thomas H. Ward.

Both Mr. Douglass, former high school math teacher and now an engineer, and Mr. Rogers, a labor official, are on major tickets and are eminently qualified to represent all residents of the district.

Teamed with Mr. Ward they are capable of bringing the district the kind of leadership in City Council it has lacked for to many years.

A solid vote for them is the only way to starve out the rabid racism represented by the candidacy of Clement Prucha and Joseph V. Mach.

REPUBLICAN SIDE

On the Republican side in the Second District, Melvin E. Amy, the Rev. George A. Cramley Jr., and Paul A. Jones, all representative candidates.

DEMOCRATS – THIRD DISTRICT

The AFRO recommends that Democrats cast their ballots for Robert C. Embry Jr., J. Joseph Curran Sr., and DeHaven L. Smith. It will bring great and needed improvement in the Third District City Council delegation.

He have no recommendations for Republicans in the Third.

FOURTH DISTRICT DEMOCRATS

Fourth District Democrats are urged to vote for Henry G. Parks Jr., Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, and Mrs. Emma Michael.

Because of the dominance of colored voters and candidates in the Fourth there is no issue of civil rights or racism. It is one of unity.

Mr. Parks, one of the most able and respected councilmen in the city, has done more to advance the political cause of the race than any single individual.

Given an effective and cooperative team with which to work, he will not only end boss domination of the district, but will pave the way for true representative government for all the city's citizens.

Mrs. Adams, a member of the Fourth District delegation to the General Assembly and a distinguished civic and community leader, is an ideal candidate to advance the causes for which Mr. Parks and all thinking citizens have been striving for for so many years.

Mrs. Michael has an intimate knowledge of the inner workings of city government, having served on many commissions and bodies dealing with the affairs of Baltimore.

A hard-working and effective member of the Community Relation Commission, a well-educated and devoted community leader, Mrs. Michael will be a valuable member of the Parks team.

FOURTH DISTRICT REPUBLICANS

The AFRO recommends that Fourth District Republicans vote for Verdell Adair, William Carruh, and Dr. Robert L. Gill.

FIFTH DISTRICT

THE FIFTH DISTRICT presents the best opportunity in history to send a colored man to City Council.

With 30 per cent of the registered Democratic vote colored, voters should cast a solid ballot for Clarence Blount, the Rev. Levi Miller Jr., and Alexander Stark.

Mr. Blount, vice prncipal of Dunbar High School and well attuned to the shortcomings of the community, will make an able councilman. So will the Rev. Mr. Miller, one of the most active religious and civic leaders in the city.

Mr. Stark, a former Delegate to the General Assembly, is a candidate who has demonstrated enormous sensitivity, integrity, and leadership.

All deserve a chance to serve Baltimore.

The AFRO has no recommendations for Fifth District Republicans.

SIXTH DISTRICT

IT IS difficult to believe that Sixth District voters are satisfied with the caliber of leadership they have been given by their incumbent councilmen.

They can brag a chance by voting for Mrs. Madeline W. Murphy, a courageous, talented, and well-trained leader.

Both colored and white voters should cast off the yoke of the ingrid Sixth District political machines and nominate Mrs. Murphy for City Council.

There is no contest for Sixth District Republicans.

THE AFRO urges all voters to exercise their most precious right Thursday and go to the polls in unprecedented numbers and vote for the candidates recommended above.

We believe they are best equipped to lead the city in the next four troubled years.

—Candidates

didates are running more or less as independents.

Front runners at the moment are Councilmen Parks, Dixon, Mendanes Adams, Michael and Dr. Julian, but not necessarily in that order.

THE 5TH DISTRICT poses a crowded field of colored Council Democratic candidates, similar to the situation in the 2nd District.

There are eight of them in a field of 23, seeking three party nominations.

Top runners at this writing are the Rev. Levi B. Miller Jr. and Clarence W. Blount, a Dunbar High School vice principal.

The Rev. Mr. Miller is on a ticket with Councilman Jacob J. Edelman and Alexander Stark, a former House of Delegates member, and is the only one of the eight candidates so attached.

Belated attempts were made by a citizens committee recently to form a coalition ticket that would include the Rev. Mr. Miller, Mr. Blount and James E. Eastmond, but the move fizzled in the face of opposition of other candidates.

This action came after the legal July 24 withdrawal date.

The 5th District is considered a Jewish one, and the only one of its kind in the city, though it has fast become integrated.

There are 21,805, or 30.5 percent colored Democrats registered there, and 49,751 white party members.

Along with concern of the colored community for Council representation, there is even bigger concern that the district does not re-elect Reuben Caplan, a freshman councilman who has consistently voted against civil rights legislation.

DOWN IN the city's 6th District embracing Cherry Hill, Mrs. Madeline W. Murphy is the lone Democratic candidate of her race seeking a City Council seat.

Mrs. Murphy, who has run before, has been waging a strenuous campaign as an independent.

She is bucking, however, a combine of the district's two white factions agreed on a Mutual Council ticket that includes the incumbents.

The district has a registration of 16,035 or 37.2 percent colored Democrats and 27,002 white party members.

ON THE Republican side of the picture, city-wide there are two candidates for president of the City Council — Horace A. Ashby Jr., and Daniel W. Hamm Jr.

Mr. Ashby is on a ticket headed by Arthur W. Sherwood for mayor, and Mr. Ham is on another headed by Samuel A. Culotta for mayor.

The Culotta ticket also includes Melvin A. Callaman for comptroller. Mr. Callaman, however, is being opposed by Howard C. Beck, former city auditor who is on the Sherwood slate.

Council-wise, the Republicans will have primary contests in the 2nd District, where there are five candidates — four colored — seeking three nominations, and the 4th, where four colored candidates are running.

Oct. 9 trial in Miss. slayings

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and 17 other white men will go on trial Oct. 9 on conspiracy charges in the 1964 slayings of three young civil rights workers.

The date for the long-delayed trial was set Friday by U.S. District Judge Harold Cox.

Also among the defendants are Rainey's Chief deputy, Cecil Price, sheriff-elect E. G. (Hop) Barnett, and alleged Ku Klux Klan leader Samuel Bowers of Laurel.

The conspiracy indictments, returned by a federal grand jury last February, stemmed from the slaying of Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney during Mississippi's legendary "long, hot summer" of 1964.

REP. GERALD R. FORD (R-Mich): "When a Rap Brown and a Stokely Carmichael are allowed to run loose, to threaten law-abiding Americans with injury and death, it's time to slam the door on them and any like them —and slam it hard."

New deputy

ORANGEBURG, S.C. (UPI) — Marion Harrison, the first man to break the color barrier on the city police force here, has become the first non-white deputy in the Orangeburg County sheriff's department.

Harrison, 48, became the first colored police officer in 1952 and held the job for four years before becoming a campus policeman at the predominantly-colored South Carolina State College here.
