N. B. This Act stands at present suspended by the Inspection Law of 1763, ch. 18.

BE it Enacted, by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Majesty's Governor, Council, and Assembly of this Province, and the Authority of the same, That from and after the Publication hereof, every House-Keeper and Inhabitant within this Province, having a Plantation whereon he maketh, or causeth to be made, any Tobacco, shall build and erect, or otherwise fit up and make ready, a good tight House, with a good Door, Lock and Key, upon every Plantation where such Tobacco is made as aforesaid, and sufficient to contain the Tobacco made on every Plantation.

Every Tobacco Plantation shall have a good tight Tobacco House built thereon.

II. And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid; That every Inhabitant or House-Keeper as aforesaid; having a Plantation whereon he maketh, or causeth to be made, any Tobacco as aforesaid, and that shall pay away, and dispose of any Tobacco to any Merchant, Master of Ship, Sailor, or any other Person whatsoever, shall, notwithstanding such Disposal or Payment, secure and keep the said Tobacco, as he would do his own proper Goods, for and during the Space of one whole Year, commencing from the Time the Tobacco was Received as aforesaid. And if any Tobacco, so received as aforesaid, for want of such House as aforesaid, should be damnified or stolen, the Person neglecting to provide such House, shall make Satisfaction to the Party that received the same.

Wherein the Planter shall secure all Tobaccos by him paid away, as he would do his own proper Goods for One Year, or make good any Damage, &c.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained, shall be construed, meant, or intended, to make any Inhabitant or House-keeper liable

Except thro' Casualty.
