

IRISH SERVANTS.

shall refuse so to do shall be deemed Papists, for whom the additional Duty shall be paid. Ibid. §. 2.

5. Irish Servants, being Papists, imported in Country Bottoms, are declared liable to the additional Duty imposed by the Act of 1717, ch. 10, (see Art. 3,) by 1728, ch. 8, §. 4, 5.

6. No Person importing any Servants shall be liable to pay Duty for such of them as shall die, or be exported before Sale, provided such Death or Exportation shall happen within Three Months after such Importation; and that the Owner make Oath before the Naval Officer, That such Servants, so Exported or Dead, are part of those Imported or made Entry of. 1735, ch. 6, §. 1, 2.

IRON OLD. See Hides.

IRON-WORKS.

1. Persons, desirous of setting up a Forging-Mill, &c. for carrying on Iron-Works upon any Land, not before cultivated, next adjoining to any Run of Water, not being the Estate of Inheritance of such Undertakers, nor leased to them for setting up an Iron-Work thereon, may purchase a Writ of Ad quod Damnum, out of Chancery. (See the Form in the Act.) 1719, ch. 15, §. 2.

2. Upon Return of which Writ, if the Persons found upon Inquest to be the true Owners, shall refuse to build such Forge-Mill, &c. thereon within Six Months, and give Security to finish the same within Four Years after laying the Foundation, his Lordship, or his Governor, may grant any such Hundred Acres of Land, together with free Egress and Regress to the said Mill, through any Man's Land next adjoining. The Damage found to be paid to the Owner of the Land; and the Grant to be good in Law to the Grantee against all Persons whatsoever. Ibid.

3. But before such Grant be made, the Grantee shall give Bond to his Lordship, with Two Sureties, in the Sum of 100*l.* Sterling, with Condition to begin to build such Forge-Mill, &c. within Six Months, and the same to finish within Four Years after. Ibid. §. 3.

4. For better Encouragement of Undertakers, all Workmen or Labourers by them constantly employed in such Works, shall be Levy-free for Four Years after being employed therein; provided the Number do not exceed Eighty for any One Iron-Work. Ibid. §. 4.

5. But if Pig-Iron, fit for Transportation, be not Run at such Iron-Works within Seven Years from the Grant, the Lands shall revert to the Owners as if no such Writ had ever been obtained; without their being obliged to return any Part of the Purchase Money. Ibid. §. 5.

6. No White Man, employed in any Manner about Iron-Works, shall be obliged to attend Musters, except upon very extraordinary Occasions. 1732, ch. 17, §. 2.

7. Any Ordinary-keeper, &c. harbouring or entertaining any Persons hired or employed in any Manner about any Iron-Work, or giving them Credit for Liquor above the Value of 5*s.* Currency in any One Year, without Leave in Writing from the Owner or Chief Manager of such Work, shall be liable to the Penalties provided against harbouring, &c. Sailors by the Act of 1712, ch. 10. And any Person, so entertained, (being a legal Witness) shall be admitted as an Evidence in such Case. Ibid. §. 4, 5.

8. Owners, &c. of Iron-Works shall, at all Times, suffer One out of every Ten labouring Persons, belonging to, or employed in such Works, to assist in clearing, mending, and repairing Highways, &c. in such Manner as other Male Taxables are compelled to do by the Act of 1704, ch. 21, and subject to the Penalties in the said recited Act, (to be recovered and applied according to the Directions of the Act of 1723, ch. 17.) 1750, ch. 14. See also, 1732, ch. 17, §. 2, 3; and 1736, ch. 17.
