PARTY TIME—Six-year-old Adrienne Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jones, 3509 White Chapel Rd., and her young guests were spellbound by ventriloquist who entertained at her birthday party.

By VASHTI M. SMITH

The week end was a swift one as they all seem to be nowadays. It just isn't long enough to do but so much but others seem to do quite a lot. Wanda Wooten gave another party Saturday night which seemed to have been a nice one.

FOOTBALL

The subject most talked about these fall days is football. Morgan played North Carolina College this week end in Durham. Naturally the Golden Bears won the game. 26 to ought.

Alvin Mitchell, Philly home boy, made the first touch down for the Bears in the 1st quarter. He is 2rd in the individual pass-receiving records at Morgan. Last year he caught 4 passes for 93 yards with one T. D.

Many Morganites went to view the first game and most were graduates. Some that were there included: Earl Mayo, Timmy Fisher, Dean Nix, Cookie Reynolds and Bubby.

ELECTIONS

Beside the big elections in B-more coming in November, the Freshman class at Morgan held theirs this past week.

President of that class is Miles "Gal" Harrison.

Running along on his ticket were Jimmy Wood and Chico Forte, both won Senatorial spots in the Student Government. Miss Freshman is Marsha Evans.

HOME

Home this weekend and making the most of it was Jon Robinson. He is currently in-the Air Bourne at Fort Dix, N. J., so he isn't so far away.

John Jones is home from Uncle Sam's Misguided children corps (Marines) He will be home for a few days relaxing until he has to return to war.

CUFF NOTES

Congratulations (belated as they are) to Teena Coles and Helen Paterson, Coppin students. Both were two of a long line of Zeta Phi Beta probates at Coppin who recently crossed the burning sands.

Birthday wishes are to Malinda Wilson and Joan Dixon who just became of age this past weekend. Now that they are 21, they can go see the Five Stair Steps appearing at the Black Jack Club and make it in at least.

By the way, coming soon to the Club Venus are the Fifth Dimensions. They're the ones who sing, "Up, Up and Away."

COMING UP

Speaking of shows in town, there is one that's coming to the Civic Center. So you don't have to be 21 to get in. (Isn't that nice of them.)

On October 22, the Miracles will headline a show. Along with them will be the Contours and the Mad Lads singing," I Found a Love."

The young lady who made such a big hit here with "Hypnotize" and "What Have I Done to Make You Mad" will also be here. Needless to say her name is Linda Jones.

The Kings of the Funky Broadway, Dykes and the Blazers will be on hand. Bring up the rear end of a good show will be the Echoes and the Admirals Band.

DRUID SIAN CENTER

The Druid-Sinai Health Center has done a lot of good for a lot of people. This summer, they initiated a program something like Head Start. the program was operated by Mrs. Raefield and a handful of volunteers. During the week they took one child on a field trip in and around B'more.

Now that school is in-session, the health center is again asking for volunteers. It isn't too much to ask of a person, now is it?

Volunteers are only expected to be there at the center in the afternoons after 3 p.m. but not every afternoon. This is a study program and no special talents are necessary either.

If you so happen to be an Art major or Music major at your particular school, would it be too much of a bother to spend one or two days a week for two hours helping a youngster starting out in these areas?

Some have never had a chance to paint or see many musical instruments let alone hold one. You'd be doing them a great service not to mention yourself. Why not call Mrs. Raefield at the Health Center and find out what you could do for a child. Why not try to help someone who needs your help. Give them a chance for a change.

THE END—SCOPE

A lot of pure "innocent" new falling snow has hit B-more and a lot of young men haven't learned to tip without leaving tracks yet. Even upper classmen (what a shame) Upper class women have learned to walk on this new snow with snowshoes and manage to keep above water a lot of times.

Last year's snow bunnies came with skis and it was a race to see who was going faster than whom. But it looks like this year's snow is really deep and a lot are buried up to their necks. There is no thaw in sight.

Have a nice week, et cetera. Don't forget to drop a line around the place and let everyone know what you're up to. How's the weather where you are?

In Memoriams

BAUCOM — In loving memory of my dear husband, FREEMAN BAUCOM, who passed away October 3, 1965:
A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memory ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
LOVING WIFE, MARY

LEE — In loving memory of my dear husband, DAWSON LEE, who passed away six years ago today, October 4, 1961:
Do not ask me if I miss him:
There's such a vacant place.
Oft I think I hear his footstepe
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears in silence often flow:
Memory keeps him ever near me,
Though he left me six years ago.
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of you my husband who once sat there.
Come to me in my sadness,
Wrap your arms around me tight
And DAWSON dear, ask God to comfort
Your heartbroken wife tonight.
Loving Wife — OVETTA.

SHARPE — In loving memory of my wife and our mother, ELLA SHARPE, who passed away October 2, 1966:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine"
Her weary hours, the days of pain,
Her weary nights are past;
Her eyes closed, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving — HUSBAND and CHILDREN.
