By VASHTI M. SMITH

For some people this has been a very busy weekend. It is all just a prelude of what is to come in the future, however.

ANNIVERSARY

Friday thte 13th along with its obvious connections was also the anniversary of those 1966 Greek lines at Morgan.

Being that it is the first year, there is no harm in doing it up right. So the Clan, better known as Sandy Spruill, Pat Payne, Cindi Carroll, Lena Anderson, Betty Matthews, Vashti Smith, Alpha Iota Queen, Mae Wilson, Alexis Smith, Cheryl Carter, Court and Toni Peck decided to join the natural resources of weekly allowances and weekly pay checks and help the 1966 line of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Alpha Iota Chapter, better known as the "Obscene 14," celebrate their anniversary.

THINGS BEGAN at lunch on Friday when Claudia Stevens, their line queen, presented them with a cake. That was the prelim.

Seeing that not only the "Obscene 14" but all the brothers thought that something was up, they went to dinner early. But guess what, it wasn't to happen there.

While the brothers were anxiously finishing dinner the clan was anxiously setting up the surprise. By the time dinner was over, they were wondering if it all was just their imaginations.

* * *

WELL, THEIR imaginations really went wild when they walked into their surprise. The first thing that hit them was a huge sign congratulating them and citing them all. In the soft glow of candle light beneath the sign was a large cake, and enough gifts to celebrate Christmas twice. It was amazing, all of them were surprised. You would have to see it to believe it.

While they were opening their gifts, the brothers listened to a recording made by the Clan the night before at the gift-wrapping session at Pat Payne's house.

Members of the Obscene 14 include Richard Scott, Turham Robinson, Leslie Boyd, Polemarch; James Pollitt, Irvin Taylor, Walter Lewis, Bob White, Richard Diehl, Bob Young, Kenneth Royster, Andre Summers, Howard Tutman, Carl Turnipseed and Ernest Thompson.

Singing along with the group were brothers, George Saunder, Lou Williams, Michael Valentine, Ed Surrell, Slick Brooks, SweetPea Commegys and many others.

LATER

After the festivities were over, the clan retreated to 2044 Ruxton Ave. for a hen party and session. That didn't last long either. With no intentions of partying that night, the clan had switched to dungarees and sweatshirts. So dressed, they were summoned to a party on Edgewood given by the brothers, and so ended the first anniversary.

BIRTHDAY

James (Rat) Scott celebrated his birthday with a gathering at the Kennedy's Saturday night. As if in a night club, the Rat talked Oscar Brown Jr. and was really in the spotlight.

Belated wishes to Jimmy (Squeak) Clark who celebrated on the 19th.

Wishes also to Ellsworth (Slick) Brooks who will celebrate his on Oct. 23. He's a 1967 grad of Morgan and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi.

COMING UP

The Ira Aldridge Players at Morgan will present their first production on Nov. 7 with Langston Hughes' "Simply Heavenly."

COMING UP

Alpha Gamma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority will hold their Red and White Cotillion on campus, Friday, Oct. 20.

The same day at 6:30 p.m. the Baltimore Alumnae Chapter of Delta will be presenting their annual Ebony Fashion Fair.

Later the same night, The Baltimore Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity will hold their fourth annual Kappa Fall Festival from 10 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the Eastwind.

To start off Homecoming activities, the All Campus Sing will be held in the Murphy Auditorium, Oct. 25 sponsored by the Spokesman.

100,000 students expected at fair

Arrangements are being completed in Baltimore and at least 12 counties to take more than 100,000 Maryland school children to the Maryland Health aFir at the Civic Center, Nov. 11 to 19.

Free to the public, the Health Fair is an educational exposition comprising a vast array of exhibits, lectures, demonstrations, movies and free medical tests, all pertaining to personal health and to the progress being made in the health field.

"To date, we have received commitments from public and private school officials from as far away as Caroline County," said Dr. Fred Brown Jr., of the State Department of Education, who is serving as chairman of the Education Committee for the Health Fair.

"Better than 25,000 city students will attend the fair, with about an equal number from Baltimore and Anne Arundel Counties," he said.

Large student attendance is also expected from Howard, Harford, Carroll, Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties.

"City school buses are being made available to every school desiring to transport students to the fair," Dr. Brown said.

Old Taylor Presents: Ingenious Americans

#6 in a series

Matthew Alexander Henson (1866-1955)

The first man to set foot on the top of the world.

The signs of a true adventurer showed up early in the life of Matthew Henson. At the ripe old age of thirteen, Henson shipped out as cabin boy on a schooner bound for China.

When he returned to Washington, D. C., he met the man who helped make him famous. The then Lt. Robert E. Peary discovered Matt Henson working in a Washington hat shop. Peary was immediately impressed by Henson, and he invited the young man to join a canal-surveying expedition to Nicaragua. Henson accepted.

Under Peary's tutelage, Matt Henson became an able navigator, adept at calculating distances and plotting charts. A short time later, Peary began his renowned arctic expeditions to locate the North Pole, and Henson accompanied the admiral on all seven trips.

On the final trip, Peary lay drained from exhaustion and crippled by frostbite. Someone had to make the last dash to the Pole, and fast, since a number of nations were vying for the claim.

Matt Henson was the man. Trudging the last painful miles, recording observations and calculating a true course, Matthew Alexander Henson became the first man to locate and stand on the North Pole. Peary arrived forty-five minutes later, and, together, the men planted the American flag.

No longer was Matt Henson an obscure adventurer. He was given a Congressional Medal, life membership in the Explorers' Club, a commendation from the President, a Master of Science degree by Morgan State College, and numerous medals and plaques from civic organizations.

April 6, 1959, the 50th anniversary of the discovery of the North Pole, was proclaimed by the governor of Maryland as Matthew Alexander Henson Day. Fitting tribute to the first man ever to stand on the top of the world.
