The convention proceeded to ballot for a council of safety, and John Hall, George Plater, Charles Carroll, barrister, Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, Thomas B. Hands, Benjamin Rumsey, Thomas Smyth, James Tilghman, and Joseph Nicholson, junior, Esquires, were duly elected for that purpose.

On reading and considering the account and letter of Amos Garrett, supervisor of the salt petre works in Harford county, Ordered, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to the said Amos Garrett the further sum of fifty pounds on account of his salt petre works aforesaid.

Whereas, many farmers and planters are indebted in sums of money bearing interest, and from their being no market for the tobacco, wheat, and other usual produce of their farms and plantations since the tenth day of September last, they have not been enabled to pay the interest accrued since that time, and from a continuance of the cause may probably continue disabled to pay the interest which may accrue on their debts for some time to come; it is therefore Resolved, That all interest which hath accrued since the tenth day of September last, or shall accrue before the tenth day of July, 1777, shall and may be payable in indian corn, wheat, tobacco, flax, hemp or cotton, or linen or woollen cloth, which was
