Convention adjourns till to-morrow morning, 9 o'clock.

FRIDAY, November 8, 1776.

Convention met. All members present as on yesterday, except Mr. T. Wright. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Hooe and Mr. Shepherd appeared in the house.

Resolved, That the privates to be enlisted agreeable to the resolve of this convention, be by their voluntarily subscribing an engagement in the following words, that is to say, "We whose names are hereto subscribed, do voluntarily enlist ourselves soldiers to serve as such during the present war between Great Britain and America, unless sooner discharged by order of the congress; hereby subjecting ourselves to such rules and regulations as are or shall be made by the congress, for regulating and governing the forces in the pay of the United States"—And that the recruiting serjeants who are or shall be appointed in each county by the council of safety, after they have enlisted ten men, shall report the same to such proper and fit person or persons appointed by the council of safety in the counties where the said recruiting serjeants may reside, who shall muster and pass the said men, and the said recruiting serjeants shall immediately return two copies of his muster roll,
