Stadium, Edgewood list 4th of July events

The annual 4th of July fireworks and celebration at the Stadium is again sponsored this year by the Greater Northeast Baltimore Association.

Also open to the public is a daylong picnic at Edgewood Arsenal which last year attracted an interracial gathering of over 15,000 persons.

The Stadium event starts at 7:30 p.m.

The entertainment will feature clowns of America who will do their famous act "Fireman Save My Child."

Following the entertainment the fireworks will be presented at 9:15 p.m.

Tickets for this year's event will be 25 cents for children and 75 cents for adults, and can be purchased at the stadium all day on the Fourth in the main lobby booth. At 6 p.m. tickets will be sold in the outside booths. Gates will open at 7:00 p.m.

• • •

THE GATES to Edgewood Arsenal open to the public Thursday, July 4 for the 6th annual fundraising fun fest in support of local youth activities.

The Arsenal's civilian and civilian personnel have teamed up again to offer something for everyone in the "family fun day" which starts underway at 11:a.m. Thursday.

A full schedule of activity is planned to delight and entertain people of all ages as 32 booths have been erected and ready to offer fun, food and frolic.

Continuous entertainment throughout the day will feature parachute jumping, band concerts and fireworks.

The midway erected alongside the Arsenal's airfield will hold 11 booths with refreshments ranging from popcorn to charcoal broiled beef sandwiches, home baked goodies and jugs of suds. Hot dogs, hamburgers, pizza, french fries, ice cream, snow balls and soft drinks will also be on sale.

• • •

GRAND PRIZE this year is a 1968 Javelin SST, while runner-up prizes are a 14-foot boat complete with trailer and 33-horsepower engine, and a color television set.

Games of skill and chance include the wheels of fortune, ring toss, bingo, fish ponds, dunking games, darts and penny pitching.

The awarding of the grand prize just before dark and the carnival's activities will close with fireworks.

Personnel of the 149th Ordnance Detachment will fire more than 175 nine and eighteen inch bombshells in different displays.

Market No. 2 breaks ground

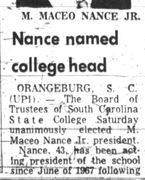
The Rev. Frank L. Williams, president of the second Jet-Market in Baltimore and vicinity, breaks the groundbreaking ceremonies that were held Monday at Lafayette Avenue and Chase St. The New Jet-Market is owned by Super Jet Foods, Inc. Monumental Foods, Inc. is comprised of 300 laymen and clergymen of seven faiths, a cross section of the vicinity—Baptist, Methodist, Religious community, Presbyterian, African Methodist, Episcopal, Community and Apostolic of the City. This thrust by Monumental Foods, Inc. like other Super Jet Markets is designed to be actually owned by the people in the community through the purchase of stock.

• • •

THE SECOND Super Jet Market, like the first Super Jet Market located at Patterson Park Avenue and Chase St., will be a completely new, modern structure built from the ground up. There will be parking for approximately 150 cars.

The Rev. Mr. Williams stated that this mass ministerial involvement in a major community business enterprise represents a first for Baltimore, if not the nation, and will go a long way toward helping colored citizens make a serious breakthrough into the economic mainstream of America.

Nance named college head



M. MACEO NANCE JR.

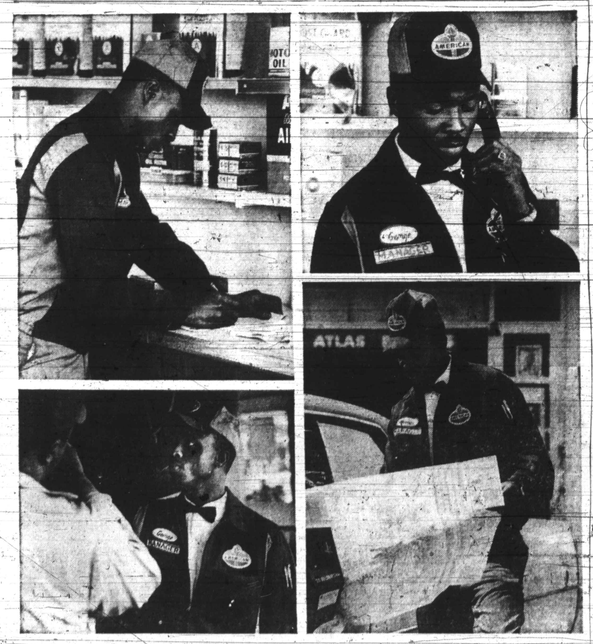
ORANGEBURG, S. C. (UPI) — The Board of Trustees of South Carolina State College Saturday unanimously elected M. Maceo Nance Jr. president.

Nance, 43, has been acting president of the school since June of 1967 following the resignation of Dr. B. C. Turner, who resigned during a student boycott of classes last year.

Board chairman James Rogers of Forence said Nance "has earned the right to be elevated to the presidency."

"He can lead the college into a fruitful period of educational progress," Rogers said.

Nance, a Columbia, native, graduated from South Carolina State College in 1949 after service in World War II. He recently received an honorary doctorate from Morris College of Sumter.



Million Dollar Oil Man: George Dixon

George Dixon is a successful American Oil Dealer. His success comes because of the way he uses the million dollars in equipment, facilities and products American Oil has put in his hands.

He makes them work for his customers—and their cars are better for it.

As George says, "They're long but happy hours because I like to meet my customers... they're my neighbors and friends."

One good dealer doesn't make an oil company great ...but, 29,000 good ones do.

House okays $100 million for 'Poor'

The House Monday approved $100 million yearly for free and cut-priced school lunches for needy children, a major goal of the Poor Peoples Campaign. More than four million poor youngsters would benefit.

The House approved 274 to 78 the three-year program and sent it to the Senate over the objections of some farm bloc conferees committee members grew more conservative and appropriations who termed it "back door" spending.

The money would be appropriated automatically from so-called "Section 32" Agriculture Department funds provided under a 1935 Act that turned over 30 per cent of U.S. customs receipts for purchase of surplus farm commodities to bolster farmer's prices.

• • •

"THIS IS an emergency," said Chairman Carl Perkins, D-Ky., of the Education and Labor Committee, urging passage of the bill under a short-cut procedure requiring a two-thirds vote for approval.

"We are taking funds not otherwise utilized. This is the only way we can reach this emergency."

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman told the committee at recent hearings on hunger he needed congressional authority to use for that purpose any part of up to $300 million a year that he normally holds in reserve from the customs collections.

The committee drafted a bipartisan bill giving Freeman that authority. It was in support of this and food distribution programs that anti-poverty marchers repeatedly picketed the Agriculture Department at the height of the Poor Peoples' Campaign in Washington.
