

and I hereby repeat that it is a continuing policy of my Administration to support effective non-military defense measures designed for the survival of our people and the recovery of our economy. After incorporation of any changes, the need for which may become evident in this exercise, and upon assurances from the Attorney General of the legality of the procedures embodied in this plan, I shall be prepared to sign and promulgate it.

Again, I take this occasion to thank all of you for your contribution to safeguarding the lives of the people and strengthening the economic fibre of Maryland.
