IT'S NOW SUMMERTIME AND THE LIVING IS LOVELY ON THE BEACH IN ATLANTIC CITY

Gadabouting U.S.A.

by Lula Jones Garrett

Aurelia Erskine Brazeal of Atlanta, Ga., was sworn into the Foreign Service of the United States in a ceremony at the White House, in Washington, Thursday. Miss Brazeal, who is the daughter of the Dean of Morehouse College Dr. B. R. Brazeal, and Mrs. Brazeal, received the appointment after successfully completing highly competitive written and oral examinations.

The Foreign Service of the United States is a career professional corps of men and women who are selected and trained to carry out the foreign policy of our Nation. Miss Brazeal will later be assigned to a position with an Embassy or Consulate in one of the 119 countries with which the United States maintains diplomatic relations or with the Department of State in Washington.

A graduate of Northfield School for Girls in East Northfield, Mass., she received a bachelor of arts degree from Spelman College, and is now studying for a master's degree at Columbia University. She has traveled in many countries including those of Scandinavia, Europe, as well as Puerto Rico and the Virgin Isles.

PAUL STEWART GREEN of Manson, N.C., medical officer in the Navy, has been promoted to the rank of captain. He is stationed at the U.S. Naval Hospital in San Diego, Calif.

A graduate of Shaw University, with a medical degree from Howard, he is the son of Mrs. Roxanna Jenkins Green, and brother of Reverson's (N.C.) Dr. Joseph Green. His wife is the former Virginia M. Green of Arkansas City, Kansas. They have one son, Paul, Jr., who is at Fort Lewis, Washington.

Incidentally, the Navy has only two other non-white captains.

GLORIA O. VARNER of Charleston, S.C., and S/Sgt George L. Brown, now stationed with the U.S. Air Force in Colorado Springs, have plans for an August Wedding.

The ceremony is scheduled to take place in a chapel at Charleston Air Force Base.

MISS CORINNA TATE of Montclair, N.J., has added a new dimension. Already an ordained elder in the Presbyterian Church, Miss Tate has now been named remedial reading specialist of the Garden State for her prowess in the field of education and work with youth and teachers. She's a product of Johnson C. Smith and the University of Pennsylvania, from which she holds bachelor and master degree respectively.

PEREGRINATORS: The the 1968's Miss Universe competitions, last Saturday evening, was the beautiful Anne Marie Braafheid, a lovely brown miss from Curacao, South America.

PEREGRINATORS: executive secretary and five members of the Florida A and M University General Alumni Association are on a three-week educational tour of Europe. The group left New York on Monday, and will return August 5.

Persons on the tour are Mrs. Annie Wilkie and her granddaughter, West Palm Beach; Mrs. Lucille Massey, Mims; Mrs. Flossie B. Bryant, Melbourne; Mrs. Charles Williams, St. Petersburg; and G.W. Conoty, executive secretary of the FAMU alumni association.

The group will visit cities in England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, France, and Monaco.

MR. AND MRS. Edgar Richmond, of Baltimore, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Richmond is a 1960 graduate of Dunbar High School and attended Coppin and Morgan State Colleges. She is now a teacher of Special Education at St. Ann's Parochial School. In addition to her teaching career, Patricia has also been a dance instructor for the Department of Recreation and Parks for the last 4 years.

Her fiancee, Leon, also a recreation leader, is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith College in North Carolina and is a member of the Marine Reserve Unit of Maryland.

The couple, who met whild working at the same center, will be married by Fr. Thomas Polk, on Saturday, October 5, at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church.

Joyce Ann Taylor of Meredithville, Va. has just returned from Miami Beach, Fla., where she attended the the national meeting of Future Homemakers of America.

Miss Taylor was one of 1200 FHA delegates representing a national membership of over 600,000 high school home economics students. She reports that it was an exciting week packed with workshops, discussion sessions, outstanding speakers, fun time and a chance to make a lot of new friends.

"The whole week was so exciting," she said," and we learned so much that it is very difficult to pick out any one event as the most outstanding. Of course, election of our new national FHA officers is always very thrilling. We heard from leaders in the education field, held idea swap shop sessions that were just wonderful, had a chance to do some sightseeing, and had a beautiful Aqua-show at the Americana pool.

"I thought one of the most inspirational things at the meeting was the presentation Which Way America? This was a program which carried out our conference theme of Citizenship A Challenge To Cherish. It included appropriate choral music by the FHA All-States Chorus and commentary projecting the challenges we as youth face as citizens. I wish every teenager in America could have seen this program."

Six debutantes bow in Philly

PHILADELPHIA — At the annual International Extravaganza and Debutante Ball, here, Friday, the Association of Business and Professional Women of Philadelphia and Vicinity presented six young women:

The debutantes were presented in the Sheraton Ballroom, where parents, relatives and friends gathered for the presentation, to enjoy the modern and classical dances presented by Sidney King, and to witness the crowning of Miss Margaret Hall as "Queen" for 1968.

THE MARINE HONOR guard from Headquarters 4th Marine Corps District, Philadelphia, under command of 1st Lt. J. W. Ellis, U.S. Marine Corps initiated the Debutante Presentations.

Sub-Debutantes Karen E. Porter, Helen Holmes, Anita Bailey, Karla Thompson, Darlene Falcon, Nathaniel Thomas, Taran Hicks, Romona Seldon, Carol Wright, Jean Ramseur, Reneta Smith and Myrtle Brown danced an intricate cha-cha to the music of Benny Fields Orchestra.

They wore matching pink lace and chiffon gowns with pink accessories.

DEBUTANTES INCLUDED Misses Fredericka Bacon, Deedra Baxter, Anita Louise Burnette, Lorraine Shirley Carey, Stephanie Muse, Margaret Hall and Marlene Wright.

They were escorted by John Alston, Preston Hill, Kenneth Jarrett, Robert Payne, Michael Graves, Anthony B. Jones, Augustus Baxter Jr., George Bond, Samuel F. Wyche, Quinton B. Joyner Jr., Vaughn Morrison and Kemel Dawkins.

Debutantes, met at the foot of the stairway by their fathers, were lovely in white gowns of lace and chiffon.

Post-debs participating were Misses Terry Aycox, Barbara Williams, Jeannette Thomas, Margaret Bracy, and Joyce Hands.

THE 1967 Award Queen, Miss Terry Aycox, crowned Miss Margaret Hall, Queen for 1968. Miss Hall was awarded an all-expense trip to Bermuda.

Miss Romona Seldon received the "Miss Congeniality" award and Miss Helen Holmes received the Charm Scholarship Award.

Escorts receiving awards were George Bond and Kemel Dawkins.

MISS MARGARET HALL was crowned "Queen" by Miss Terry Aycox, retiring queen, at the Debutante Ball sponsored by the Association of Business and Professional Women of Philadelphia and Vicinity. Flowers were presented to the new queen by Mrs. Mary Wilson, left.

$100,000,000 for re-building

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Bank of America is planning to allocate up to $100-million for real - estate loans to aid home-building efforts in California's minority neighborhoods.

The Watts area of Los Angeles and the Hunters Point Bayview section of San Francisco would be among the primary benefits to encourage home-ownership in the slums.

Group endorses James Farmer

BROOKLYN, N.Y — James Farmer's campaign to become Congressman from Brooklyn received an added boost when he was endorsed by the Young Professionals' Civic Association as a "man of outstanding and proven leadership ability."

The former national director of CORE, is running on the Republican and Liberal Party ticket for a Congressional seat in Brooklyn's 12th C.D.
