

of speech that was then standing and put up another that was both longer and broader for satisfaction for himselfe diet for viuent shutelework, and my selfe further it was agreed that I was not to pay for my diet so long as I was upon the works, and that was more here than was before, but a fortnight of the time viuent shutelework was away to the best of my knowledge so far as I have to say as matter to the diet of viuent shutelework and further saith not; /

W<sup>m</sup> Warrelow

After reading upon examination the said will saith the house was builded according to bargain

W<sup>m</sup> Warrelow

ordered that the def<sup>t</sup> viuent shutelework def<sup>t</sup> pay unto Richard Whitt<sup>r</sup> pl<sup>t</sup> or his order fiftene pounds of tobacco and costs of suite

The same day Com<sup>r</sup> as above

John Spicer pl<sup>t</sup> } Anon of the Cas<sup>e</sup> } Phillip Birne def<sup>t</sup> } refused to the Co<sup>rt</sup> for m<sup>r</sup> Russell and m<sup>r</sup> Avery to view the works & to give their report pl<sup>t</sup> & def<sup>t</sup> being called appeared
The def<sup>t</sup> & An<sup>t</sup> being read m<sup>r</sup> Russell and m<sup>r</sup> Avery being called appeared

Saith The deposition of Randall Russell taken in the house is not sufficient many such boards dropt off one pine post in it and further saith not

Saith The deposition of John Avery taken in the house is five boards off at the end of the house, the house being according to the small building of Virginia housing & Rowe house, many better and many worse & further saith not

The Co<sup>rt</sup> orders that Phillip Birne defendant pay unto the pl<sup>t</sup> John Spicer pl<sup>t</sup> fower hundred pounds of tobacco & costs of suite and execution