Supremes' writers sued by Motown

DETROIT — The three men credited with turning out some of the biggest hits of the world's No. 1 female group — Diana Ross and the Supremes — are being sued by Motown.

Motown is the multi-million-dollar recording company which is responsible for the top music hits that put Detroit on the airways over the nation is suing its top trio of songwriters for that amount in Wayne County Circuit Court.

* * *

MOTOWN SAYS Edward Holland, Lamont Dozier and Brian Holland have "utterly failed to deliver any musical propositions since late 1967."

The team is described in the suit as "the behind the scenes force that is responsible for the skyrocketing of the Supremes to their position as one of the top female vocal groups in the world."

* * *

THE COMPANY has lost at least $4,000,000 as a result of the failure of the writers to meet the terms of their contract, the suit said.

The suit said that from 1965-1967, the three men earned over $2.2 million in royalties from 27 albums and 70 singles recorded under their direction.

Ask Count Basie to nix lily-white dance date

ST LOUIS — (NPI) — A local civil rights group last week appealed to Count Basie to cancel his orchestra's engagement to play for a dance, scheduled for Sept. 27-28, in Kiel auditorium, because, it said, the sponsoring Veiled Prophet committee is composed of businessmen who discriminate against black citizens.

Percy Green, chairman of ACTION, said he sent Basie a letter and news clippings to provide him with background information on the "white" Veiled Prophet committee.

ACTION told Basie in the letter that he was being "used" by the white organization, and asked him to reconsider and cancel the engagement in the interest of "Black unity."

* * *

ACTION also pointed out that the organization will be demonstrating against the dance. It explained that many ACTION members have agreed to risk going to jail to protest the Veiled Prophet function.

Comedian, civil rights activist Dick Gregory will lead the demonstrations at Kiel auditorium, as well as during the committee-sponsored parade.

THE VEILED Prophet Committee is also sponsoring a parade in conjunction with the dance, and ACTION accused the organization of "using" black high school groups as window-dressing.

Basie's reaction to the appeal was not immediately known.

Rep. Goodell to get Kennedy Senate seat

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Tuesday will name Rep. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., to succeed the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, according to sources close to the governor.

Goodell, 42, a nine-year veteran of the House, won the governor's favor with ardent campaigning behind closed doors for changes in the Republican National Convention's platform plank on Vietnam.

The changes made the GOP Vietnam policy expressed in the platform acceptable to both Rockefeller and party presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon, the sources said Friday.

ROCKEFELLER COMMENTED at the convention, "I don't know what I would have done without Charlie. Her certainly did a fine job on the floor . . . it was a battle all the way but we won."

Goodell for several years has been an enthusiastic supporter of Rockefeller policies and worked on behalf of the governor in his unsuccessful bid for the party presidential nomination.

Goodell's work at the convention apparently won him the Senate seat the man Kennedy defeated for the post in 1964, Kenneth B. Keating, now an associate justice of the State Court of Appeals. The Senate term runs through 1970.

Chesterfield schools shut

All public schools in Chesterfield County, South Carolina, were shut down Monday until further notice.

Superintendent H. C. Campbell ordered the closings because of problems the county is experiencing with desegregation plans in several communities.

Colored pupils have been eighth grades at a Page-eighth grades at a Page-land school, and whites are threatening a boycott at the Cheraw schools unless officials pledge to return to a freedom of choice desegregation plan.

Colored parents have brought suit against the school board's failure to implement the original desegregation plan as approved by the Department of Health Education and Welfare. They say their children are bused to distant schools in the county contrary to the approved plan.

Newport Jazzfest must move

NEWPORT, R.I. —The Newport Jazz Festival is being forced to move.

Impresario George Wein and Rhode Island Governor John H. Chaffee met last week to hold discussions preparatory to finding a new field site for the musical extravaganza.

* * *

GOV. CHAFEE told Wein the present festival field site will be unavailable after next year because of highway construction, and said it was hoped a new site could be Aquidneck Island.

There are no state sites in the three island communities of Newport, Portsmouth or Middletown which would be satisfactory, he said.

* * *

AS THIS administration has done in the past," the governor stated, we will continue to bend over backwards to keep the festivals in Rhode Island.

"They are a great thing for the state, and I hope the people are beginning to realize how great they are."

Motown inks blind writer

DETROIT — Raynard Miner, youthful and skinny and blind, has been hired as a songwriter-producer by Motown Record Corporation, the nation's largest independent producer of vinyl discs.

Miner, formerly with Chess Producing Corporation in Chicago, joined the Detroit-based firm late last month and has already been credited with producing recording sessions for The Four Tops.

MINER WROTE and produced such hits as Fontella Bass' "Rescue Me" and Little Milton Campbell's "We're Gonna Make It," while he was with Chess.

Miner, who has been blind since early childhood, is scheduled to write and produce for other Motown-Tamla-Gordy artists including Martha Reeves and the Vandellas, The Temptations, and Diana Ross and the Supremes.

Miner presently commutes between Detroit and Chicago, but word is out that Motown executives are helping Miner find a home here for his wife and child.
