

compensation, other than their necessary expenses, board, etc., whilst on official business.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after its passage.

Approved April 7, 1900.

CHAPTER 486.

AN ACT for incorporating the Baltimore Law School.

Baltimore Law School.
Incorporated.
Trustees appointed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a school of law by the name of the Baltimore Law School be and is hereby established in Baltimore City, and that Bernard C. Steiner, Howard Bryant, Wm. F. Campbell, Ralph Robinson and Edgar Allen Poe be and they are hereby appointed and constituted trustees of the said law school.

How vacancy filled.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever any of the trustees above named or their successors shall die, resign, decline serving, be removed for cause or remove out of this State, a quorum of said trustees duly assembled shall proceed by a new election to fill such vacancy.

Rights, powers and privileges.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid trustees and their successors by the same name shall be able and capable in law to purchase, have, hold and enjoy to them and their successors in fee, or for any less estate, any lands, tenements or other hereditaments within this State by gift, grant, bargain, sale, alienation, enfeoffment devise, bequest, release or confirmation of any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, capable to make the same, and such lands, tenements or other hereditaments or any less estate, rights or interest of and in the same at their pleasure, to grant, alien, sell and transfer in such manner and form as they shall think meet and convenient for the furtherance of the said school, and also that they may take and receive any sum or sums of money and any kind, manner or portion of goods and chattels that shall be given, devised, bequeathed or sold to them by any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, capable to make a gift or sale thereof, and to employ the same toward maintaining the said school in such manner as they shall judge most necessary and convenient for the instruction, education and improvement of scholars in the study of the law.

Trustees may sue and be sued, etc.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the trustees and their successors shall be able in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court or courts, before any judge, justices or judges within this State and elsewhere in all and all man-