

ner of suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands of whatsoever kind, nature or form they be and all and every other matter and thing therein to do, in as full and effectual a manner as any other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate within this State or any of the United States of America in like case may or can do.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors from time to time and at all times hereafter forever shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint in such manner as they shall think best and most convenient a dean of the said school and professors, with proper lecturers and instructors for instructing the students in said school in the various branches of the law.

Power to appoint a dean, professors, etc.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, The dean of said school, chosen by the trustees as above, shall be a member of the board of trustees by virtue of his office and shall act as president of said board of trustees.

Dean shall act as president.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall meet at least once in every year in stated annual meetings and at such other times as by their own by-laws they may direct in order to examine the progress of students in the study of law, to hear and determine all complaints and appeals, and to decide all matters touching the discipline of the school and the good and wholesome execution of their by-laws, in all of which meetings a majority of the trustees duly met shall constitute a quorum.

Time of meeting of trustees, etc.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That a majority of the said trustees for the time being, when duly assembled at any yearly or other meeting, upon due notice given to the whole body, shall have full power and authority to make by-laws for the government of the said school and of the said board of trustees and for the instruction of the students and also by the same by-laws to delegate to the dean and professors such powers and authorities as they shall think best for the standing government of the said school and for the execution of the ordinances and rules of the same, provided always that they be not repugnant to the form of government or any laws of this State.

Authority to make by-laws.

Power of dean and professors.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall have full power and authority to make, have and use one common and public seal, and likewise one privy seal, with such devices and inscriptions as they shall think proper, and to ascertain, fix or regulate the uses of both seals

Authority to make and use certain seals.