Job for ad unit

BOSTON, Mass. — A newly formed black ad agency, the Articy Advertising Company, has been retained as public relations-advertising representatives by the Robells Department Stores announced Robell's president, Lester Oshry, recently. Articy is headed by Mrs. Maria Coleman.

Announcing the appointment, Mr. Oshry, who participates in the Urban League-Boston College Joint Center for Inner City Change, said, "Technical assistance and encouragement to black businessmen is important—but it's not enough. We must also do businesswith them!"

Biafra appeals to Red China

(UPI) — Biafran leader Lt. Col. Odumegwu Ojukwu has appealed to Communist China for help in the war with Nigeria and against "Anglo-American imperialism and Soviet revisionism," it was disclosed Sunday.

His appeal was revealed as Federal Nigerian forces closed in on this last major Biafran stronghold and Nigerian air raids continued to take a heavy toll of lives in this refugee-packed city. At least 121 civilians were reported killed or wounded in a raid on Saturday.

Western observers in London said they believed this was the first time that Ojukwu had included the United States among the enemies of Biafra.

National league roundup

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Bob Gibson compiled the National League's lowest season earned run average Friday night by tossing his 13th shutout at the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Houston Astros 1-0.

Gibson bettered the mark of 1.2 set in 1915 by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Phils. Gibson went into the game with a 1.18 mark and lowered it to 1.12.

Freddie Schupp with the 1916 Giants compiled a 0.90 mark in 1916 but he pitched only 140 innings and Alexander, who pitched 376 innings in 1915, was considered the era leader until Gibson shattered his record. The major league record of 1.01 was set by H. B. "Dutch" Leonard of the Boston Red Sox in 1914 with 222 innings pitched.

Gibson (22-9) struck out 11 and didn't walk a man. Larry Dierker (12-15) started and took the loss for the Astros.

St. Louis won the game with a fifth inning run achieved when Julian Javier walked, went to second on Gibson's ground out, reached third on Lou Brock's single and scored on Curt Flood's single.

Warner hits well in bid for Bench

NEW YORK — Popular Bronx State Senator Ivan Warner has won the endorsements of two prominent civic groups in his campaign to become the first colored New York State Supreme Court justice from Bronx County.

The 50-year-old veteran legislator, who has the Democratic nomination for the $39,100-a-year, 14-year judicial post in the Nov. 5 election, was notified this week that he has won the endorsements of the Bronx County Bar Association and the Affiliated Young Democrats of New York.

"I am very delighted to receive these endorsements, particularly when your fellow lawyers give you their backing," Warner said in a comment at this headquarters in the Concourse Plaza Hotel.

A MEMBER of the New York State Legislature for the past 10 years, Senator Warner is considered one of the most active civic leaders in the Bronx. He is leader of the Jackson Democratic Club, chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Bronx County and a member of the advisory committee of the Democratic State Committee.

Recently, he was vice chairman of the New York State delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

A one-time high school dropout, Senator Warner returned to school at nights to earn his high school diploma and attended City College of New York and American University in Washington before going to New York Law School, where he received his law degree.

He served for several years as a Congressional secretary before he was elected to the legislature in 1958.

Benefits for today's veterans include special assistance for young veterans with limited education.

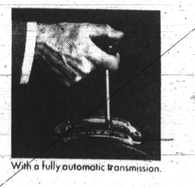
Volkswagen leaps into the present.



With a fully automatic transmission.

If you bet a friend we never would, we almost didn't.

10 years ago the decision was made. To design a fully automatic transmission. The kind you get in drive and forget.

Our aim was to make things easy, but for us changes aren't easy to make.

Especially in this case. There were certain things we just didn't want to lose.

Like horsepower, and our reputation for being economical.

What we've ended up with is a 3-speed automatic transmission that's pure Volkswagen—designed from scratch to get the most out of the VW with the least expenditure of effort.

It has the fewest moving parts.

It's the lightest per horsepower output. And it's incredibly sensitive. (A model airplane engine is powerful enough to turn it.)

So come see how far Volkswagen has come.

The Squareback and Fastback. Both have disk brakes, an electronically controlled fuel injection system, and now, a fully automatic transmission.

If you're interested, it's available as an option on our 68 models.

If you're not interested, we sure went to a lot of trouble for nothing.

'They made me proud of them,' admits Banks

NEW YORK — "I must confess, they made me proud that I am their coach," said Earl Banks, 9-7 victory by his Morgan State College football team over Grambling College of Louisiana, still fresh in his memory.

His next statement should have convinced any listener that the rotund Golden Bear mentor was in a rare mood.

"It's obvious to me that we've got the makings of a real, good football team. It's young now, and it's making a lot of mistakes. But potentially, we're as good as we've ever been."

IT IS hard for this writer to recall when it was that Banks last admitted to having a "good football team." For years, he has been known to be one of the more conservative minds in a conservative arena. Each victory was greeted with a "yes, but" or a "well, I'm not sure," or some other non-committal response.

But this time, Earl was bubbling over with enthusiasm for the kids who made him "proud."

"I THOUGHT going into the game," he said, "that we were definitely hurting in our defensive line. But youngsters like James Garrett, Roland Nicholson, Rollie Washington and Vincent Robinson converted me.

"They played magnificently; just wouldn't be beaten.

"FOR THAT reason, I'm sure they'll be better with experience. I think they established a degree of pride and esprit d'corps that will have to be reckoned with in the rest of our games.

"They're a good team!" . . . SAM LACY.

Classic sidebars

NEW YORK — Those of us who were surprised by the manner in which the Morgan State College offensive line opened the gaps for running in the early moments the Yankee Stadium football classic with Grambling Saturday, were given a ready explanation by Earl Banks.

"I asked Marse Hill to come out of retirement as a personal favor to me, and work with our offensive line," said the grateful Bear head coach. "He readily agreed and spent an entire week before the game preparing the kids for what for many was their first bigtime experience. I'll be a long time making it known how much I appreciate his help."

THE BOOS that greeted two flubbed punts by Morgan kicker Gregory Spriggs wore heavily on the Morgan coach's mind well after the contest had ended.

"What those people! don't know," he said, is that this boy walked into my office exactly a week ago. He had never punted in a college game in his life, but he knew we were desperately in need of a kicker. He said: "Coach, I can punt." Can you kick 30 yards?" Banks said he asked Spriggs. He told me he could do better than that. So, the next day, he came out to practice and did. I liked his guts and his confidence. And you mark my words, he's going to be okey."

RON MAYO, who does Morgan's kicking off and boots the extra points and field goals, is a younger brother of former Bear halfback star, Earl Mayo.

THE GRAMBLING-MORGAN game was more than just a clash between two schools to Ralph W. E. Jones Jr., a former Golden Bear assistant coach and now a member of the Hillen Road faculty.

Ralph's father, Dr. R. W. E. Jones Sr., is president of Grambling; his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Edward and Mrs. Frankie Gibson; his younger brother, John A. Jones, a teacher at Coppin State College, and another sister-in-law, are all graduates of Grambling. All were in New York for the game.

I told them," said Ralph, I'd help them by pulling for the band."

INCIDENTALLY, THE Tiger band did a spectacular halftime show and had the crowd on its feet through the final ten minutes of its flawless routine.

For the information of those who watched and marvelled at the size of it, an additional 45 members had to be left at home because accomodations couldn't be found for them.

IN ADDITION to expressing his gratitude to Marse Hill for the help given the Morgan offensive line, Earl Banks paid high tribute to John Mackey, all-pro end of the Baltimore Colts; ex-Colts George Taliaferro and Jesse Thomas, and defensive end Bubba Smith "for coming out and offering advice and encouragement to our kids."

THERE WAS no mistaking the fact that Grambling was the sentimental favorite among the 64,204 customers who rocked Yankee Stadium with their cheers.

In all probability, this was due to the fact that the Tigers and their coach, Eddie Robinson, were the subjects of a nationwide television special recently, and many fans felt this was an acheivement that merited the kind of backing that went to baseball pioneer Jackie Robinson over twenty years ago. . .SAM LACY

Is 6 months enough for Muhammad Ali?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) Cassius Clay will have six weeks in which to shake off the rust from 18 months of ring inactivity for what the 26-year-old dethorned heavyweight champion considers a "world championship" night Nov. 11 at the 9,000-seat State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

"I am still the physical champion of the world whether the World Boxing Association thinks so or not," says Clay who prefers to be called Muhammad Ali, his Muslim name.

THE 15-ROUND bout against a yet unnamed opponent has been sanctioned by the seven-member Columbus Boxing Commission headed by John Hewitt. Ohio does not have a State boxing commission.

The announcement came at a press conference here Wednesday attended by Ali, his manager, C. B. Atkins of Chicago, local promoters William Holloway and Bill Cummings. Atkins, Holloway and Cummings are co-promoters.

There is a strong possibility, according to Atkins, that the fight will be carried on national television by the American Broadcasting Co. or on closed circuit theater television.

ALI, who will be fighting on a percentage basis, should make $200 to 300 thousand," Atkins said.

Atkins had been trying for six months to arrange a fight for Ali but state boxing commissions in Pennsylvania and Nevada turned down his request as did the District Boxing Commission in Washington, D.C.

THE BIG question, even in Ali's mind, was whether or not he could get back to fighting trim in just six weeks.

"I've got 20 pounds to lose. It's almost impossible," he said.

system," in which "each member physician will support, direct and counsel a protege from high school or college through medical school."

"I am encouraged that professional educators conceive of a high school for medical buddies," Dr. Walden said.

Dr. Sheldon, in his program outline, said the new concept for Dunbar would also "address some of our other educational goals such as pupil integration and strengthening community relationships."

Dr. Sheldon also endorsed the middle school concept in which some junior highs would have grades up to eighth and high schools would house 9-12 grades.

The old Dunbar High School could be utilized as one of the middle schools he said, noting it was originally intended for junior high school and elementary use.

Rights movement seen replaced

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —The civil rights movement was pronounced dead Friday by Franklin H. Williams, former U.S. ambassador to Ghana and one of the nation's leading intellectuals.

Williams, who now is director of Columbia University's Center for Urban Affairs, said the movement has been replaced by black power and the latter is here to stay.

He placed the responsibility for the rising tide of black militancy on white Americans.

"The problems will have to be solved by white Americans if they [illegible] a racial minority that never harmed them, never lynched them, never organized mob attacks on them."

TODAY'S THE DAY DODGE is turning up the fever

1969 DODGE POLARA
Big, luxurious and totally new. With such standard items as foam-padded seats, carpeting, concealed windshield wipers and a 230-hp V8. All this at a surprisingly low price.

1969 DODGE CHARGER
Dodge Charger's the car with a 343% increase in sales. And you can't do much to improve on success. But look what we've done. Made Charger still sharper-looking, front and rear. With a new grille and new taillights. We also added a new model, Charger Special Edition, with splashes of leather and wood-grained luxury.

1969 DODGE CORONET
Some people buy Coronet because it's a good-looking car. Others buy it because it's a nimble, easy-handling car. But Coronet appeals to more people because it's the car that's very big for its price. One look proves it. At the Dodge Boys'.

1969 DODGE DART
A brand-new edition of America's favorite compact, Dodge Dart for 1969. Built for the young and the young at heart. It doesn't look, ride, perform or squeeze you like a compact. Then why do we call it a compact? The price. Compact all the way.

1969 DODGE MONACO
So you're looking for a more luxurious car than you've ever owned before. How can you swing it? Meet Monaco for 1969. The Big Dodge. The plush Dodge. The all-new Dodge. The car for the man who wants a luxury car at a standard car price.
