By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

And also the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 27, 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE wish not to protract the session by any unnecessary delay, but the private and public business now on the table cannot, in our opinion, be acted on with justice to our constituents so as to close at the day proposed by you; our exertions shall not be wanting to accomplish the business as early as possible, which we flatter ourselves may be effected by Saturday the fourth of January, but we fear not sooner.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which bills, resolutions and message, were severally read, and the bills and resolutions ordered to lie on the table.

The resolutions respecting the laws of this state compiling by William Kilty were read the second time by especial order and dissented from.
