Prexies watch Texas-Tenn. tilt

NASHVILLE—With their brand-new college presidents watching, Tennessee State University eked past Texas Southern, 11-10, under the lights in W. J. Hale Stadium Saturday night.

Both in the initial year as their school's chief admissitrators, Tennessee State's Dr. A. P. Torrence and Texas Southern's Dr. G. M. Sawyer were among the 9,500 fans who saw the Big Blues' defensive might, linebackers James Greer and ends tom McCord and Bob Stevenson dump Texas' quarterback David Mays in the end zone for a game-winning safety with just a little better han six minutes remaining in the game.

"One point is as good as a hundred," coach John A. Merritt extolled. "It still goes down in the record book as a win. We are still undefeated and 3-0 on the season with an eight-game win skein going for us."
