JOSEPH GREEN

Joseph Green, retired, shows artistic touch

"Joseph Green, 66, of the 2600 block Pennsylvania Ave., a retired lumber yard worker, has a new profession.

"I just wanted something to do to pass away the time," is how he explains it.

Mr. Green, a self-taught artisan craftsman, makes lamps and fruit askets from ice cream sticks.

He was seated at a sidewalk table Friday when the AFRO visited his home.

He was browsing in store when he noticed unusual lamp design and decided to duplicate one of them, he recalled.

The first attempt was a complete disaster, and he hit upon his own design and has never made a mistake since, the lampmaker said with obvious satisfaction.

It takes 500 or more sticks to complete a pattern for one of the Oriental motif lamps, according to Mr. Green. Sticks are purchased from wholesale houses.

"For awhile I was really selling them, but most people think I over-charge. I haven't sold any in suite sometime," he said in a matter-of-fact way.

THE MATERIALS of sticks, glue and light fixtures cost approximately $5, not including labor, he volunteered.

"I have never completed a lamp at one sitting. If I did, it would take roughly a day. Usually I work four hours at a time," the retired lumber worker said casually.

Mr. Green, born in St. Mary's County, has lived in Baltimore for many years. A widower for 12 years, he lives alone and has been retired for more than two years, reports.

He is a member of the St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

McCarthy supporters pledged to Humphrey

Former McCarthy supporters: E. Clinton Bamberger Jr., P. McEvoy Cromwell, Herbert W. Gallagher, Dr. Gerald S. Gotterer, Delegate Leonard S. Jacobson, Robert Larson, Baltimore City State's Attorney Charles E. Moylan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Niles, Alhud Pevener, Delegate Alan M. Resnick and Albert G. Salter issued a joint statement in support of Vice President Humphrey for president.

In the statement they said:

As supporters of Senator McCarthy, and of the ideals and positions he has championed, we have opposed this country's policies on the War in Vietnam, and we have objected to the terms the Administration has imposed to achieve peace there.

As political activists, we worked for the adoption of the minority platform plank on Vietnam offered at the Democratic National Convention.

In his television address last Monday, Vice President Humphrey raised our hopes that the costly and futile War in Vietnam could be ended with a prompt political settlement, and that as President his Administration would be committed to terminating our military involvement in Vietnam substantially in line with the tenets contained in the minority plank.

In the light of that address, we believe his noteworthy positions on disarmament, world peace, foreign policy and the urgent necessity for ratification of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty take on added meaning and purpose.

We believe Mr. Humphrey now can present substantive proposals for peace in Vietnam and around the world; for reducing the terrible risks of an arms race, and for limiting the extent of nuclear weapons capabilities — proposals in marked contrast to the simplistic and banal comments of Mr. Nixon and Mr. Wallace.

The War in Vietnam is not the only issue this country must resolve, but it is a controlling one.

Because of the war, we have had a government unresponsive to the people.

Because of the war, our energies and resources have been diverted from other problems overwhelming our country.

The end of the war can mean that the nation will be able to focus its attention on the crucial problems of the city, of poverty, of civil rights and civil liberties, of jobs and job training, of education and health, of air and water pollution, and of law enforcement and criminal justice.

Mr. Humphrey's public life has been one of concern for the individual and the problems he encounters in his life; of concern for the nation and the problems it confronts in ever increasing numbers.

We are now pleased we can associate many of our objectives with his, and in conscience we call for his election.

VACANT BUILDING FIRE — Hoses snake around scene of fire in a vacant store in the 1100 block of Laurens St. Monday afternoon. Firemen reported they have frequent calls for fires in the vacant buildings nearby.

Institute for school dropouts opens today

A bi-weekly Career Institute, designed to give school dropouts and inner city high school students an insight into job possibilities and potential productive futures is scheduled to begin today (Tuesday) 2 p.m. at the Baltimore Youth Opportunity Center, 1727 N. Charles St.

Sponsored jointly by the Personnel Administration Association of Baltimore, and the Maryland State Employment Service Division of the Department of Employment Security, the seminar-type sessions will be hosted by personnel executives from a number of Baltimore's leading business firms.

The initial session today will be conducted by representatives from the Baltimore Gas and Electric Co. to be followed on later dates by Hittman Associates, Albert F. Goetz Inc., Monumental Life Insurance Co., Bethlehem Steel and Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

The "Career Institute," is tentatively scheduled to continue bi-weekly through Oct. 30 and on the basis of response from inner city high school officials it is estimated that as many as 1,500 youths will participate.

$224 million project to aid jobless corpse

The National Alliance of Businessmen (NAB) have invited 1,000 Baltimore businessmen to a meeting Oct. 17 at City Hall to explain a $224 million program for the creation of new jobs for hard-core unemployed.

The $224 million "MA-4" project is funded by the Federal Government and will make funds available to reimburse businessmen who participate in the NAB job-creating program.

The money is meant to supply businesses with incentive to hire and train personnel from inner-cities.

Morris Riger, regional manpower administrator for the Department of Labor, will explain Baltimore's share of the program.

Baltimore businessmen may participate in the program on an individual or group basis.

Newsman killed in Nigeria war

LONDON (UPI) — A photographer on assignment for Time magazine with federal forces in Nigeria was killed in a Biafran ambush Wednesday, Time-Life said Wednesday.

He was the first newsman killed in the 17-month civil war. Another newsman was wounded in the ambush near the town of Owerri.

The victims were identified as Priya Ramrakha, 53, a Kenya Indian who lived in Nairobi and was a British subject, and Peter Sisson, 25, a British television reporter.

Ramrakha had worked on contract assignments for Time-Life in Africa for nine years, a spokesman said. Both were among a group of eight newsmen and 15 federal soldiers who were climbing a hill to get a better view of nearby fighting when the ambush occurred.

Birthday Tribute

MELLO — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my grandson and our loved one, ANTHONY (TONY) MELLO, on his birthday, October 8th, who passed away in Vietnam, June 3, 1968.
We do not need special day
To bring you to our minds
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear one
On this, his Birthday Morn.
GRANDMOTHER and FAMILY.

In Memoriam

HALL — In loving memory of my wife, [illegible] who passed away October 8, 1965:
[illegible] I did you wish,
O Love divine that stopped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On Thee we cast our earth born care.
We smile at pain while you are near;
Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crowns each lingering year,
No path we shun no darkness dread
Our hearts, still whispering thou art near.
When dropping pleasure turns to grief
And trembling faith has turned to fear,
The murmuring wind the quivering leaf
Shall softly tell us thou art near...
On Thee we fling our burdening woe,
O Love Divine forever dear
Content to suffer while we know
Living or dying thou art near.
WILLIAM HALL,
And FAMILY

FLEMMING — In loving memory of our devoted friend, ALICE, who passed away October 3, 1967:
In our hearts we'll use to stray
along the road of yesterday
To hear you laugh, to see you smile, to talk with you a little while.
We'd ove to inger, some the way
that leads us back to yesterday.
ALVERTA BOLES
THE EASTERN STAR SISTERS.

GATEWOOD — In loving memory of my dear husband, ELMER, father and grandfather who passed away October 7, 1967:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often We and think of you,
And speak of how you used
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, give him eternal rest.
Loving Wife, ALVERTA
Daughters, CHARMAINE
And FIVE GRANDSONS
RONCEVALLES

GATEWOOD — In memory of our dear brother, ELMER GATEWOOD, who passed away one year ago, October 7, 1967:
It was sad indeed, when I clasp your hand
And you waved your last good-bye.
What would we give his hand to clasp
His patient face to see
To hear his voice, to see his smile
As in the days that used to be.
As sleeping Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none other wake to weep.
Loving Sisters,
MRS. ALVERTA BESSICK
And RACHEL GATEWOOD

GUILLE—A tribute of love to the memory of my beloved husband and godfather LAWRENCE NATHANIEL, who passed away October 8, 1967:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of you.
Oh, how we miss you, Honey dear
Those but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed and
And our hearts still ache for you.
Loving Wife, MILDRED
and Godson, PHILLIP.

KEYS — In loving memory of EL-VIRA who passed away October 8, 1967:
Not dead to those who loved her,
Not lost but gone before.
She liver with us in memory and will forever more.
LOVING CHILDREN — LORENGO and MABEL.
