Oratory barrage marks campaign homestretch

With less than three weeks remaining before election-day Maryland candidates launched their last-ditch efforts for Senate and House bids around Baltimore this weekend.

Independent Senate candidate George P. Mahoney attempted to gain support in his drive by issuing statements supporting law and order, this year's amorphous campaign issue, and opposing gun control.

Scoring both Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster and Republican candidate Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, Mr. Mahoney stated that "I am unalterably opposed to licensing and registration, as violative of the basic and constitutional right to bear arms."

Mr. Mahoney stated that Rep. Mathias had refused to clarify his views in a lengthy attack on the Republican challenger in the three-man Maryland senatorial race.

REP. MATHIAS' campaign apparently has picked up steam in the last days of October with the announcement that David J. McDonald, former International President of the United Steelworkers of America and vice-president of the OFL-CIO, would accompany the candidate on several political appearances.

Rep. Mathias has been attempting to gain union support in his fight for the Senate against incumbent Sen. Brewster.

CONGRESSIONAL races heated up around Baltimore over the weekend with Republican challengers in traditionally Democratic areas asking for and charging corruption in Vietnam.

John E. Mudd, candidate for Congress in the Second District, called for reform in the treatment of narcotics addicts including institutionalization during treatment.

REPUBLICAN MUDD, making a bid to unseat Democrat Rd. Clarence Long, stated that addicts "commit up to perhaps 50 per cent of major crimes against property."

James E. Chew, Republican candidate for congress in the third district, hit "scandalous handling of American post money in Vietnam that has resulted in a booming black market business.

Thomas Paul Raimondi, Republican candidate for Congress from the Fourth District, into the fight with a blast at President Lyndon B. Johnson's "progress report to the nation," calling it "milestones of non-achievement."

Raimondi stated that "While the President talked of Great Society triumphs the American people were too busy trying to cope with Great Society problems to listen."

The candidate also predicted a Republican sweep in November.

He is trying to unseat Rep. George H. Fallin, Democrat.

Mrs. Mueller NAACP speaker

The NAACP membership campaign report night is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday (tonight) at the Sharp Street Community Hall, 106 Etting St.

Guest speaker is Mrs. Catherine Mueller, president of the Democratic Ladies Guild and the Grand Jury oath clerk who recently resigned.

CHARLES PINDERHUGHES

Pinderhughes, ex-coach, dies

Charles L. Pinderhughes, 77, died Saturday at his home 3562 12th NW, of a heart attack.

He was a well-known figure in the field of physical education at Dunbar High School in the District. He coached at Dunbar for more than 40 years.

Mr. Pinderhughes began his long coaching career at Dunbar in 1917. This was a year after he had received his law degree at Howard University.

AT DUNBAR, he coached several sports. Among them were football, swimming, track, and baseball. He had played football and wrestled for Howard.

He retired from coaching at Dunbar in 1958. He still remained active in various organizations in the city. Pinderhughes was born in Providence, R.I.

HIS SURVIVORS are his wife, Gladys, two sons, Drs. John L., of Montclair, N. H. and Charles A., of Boston, and eight grandchildren.

The funeral services will be Wednesday, Oct. 16 at 11 o'clock in the morning from the Simpson Memorial Methodist Church, 13th and Monroe Sts.

Student's buses

the buses should roll more smoothly.

Several schools noted no great improvement in attendanceism, on the first day of the emergency bus service.

Approximately 50 per cent of some school students have been absent since the beginning of the 22-day-old bus strike.

"Some of the students called in and reported that the buses were too crowded, and some didn't stop at all. There was no anyone under 21 years of age to carry or use a car gas gun or any ear gas device.

THE WAY was cleared for the replacement of Clarence W. Blount as head of the Community Action Commission with the approval of an ordinance that makes it possible for a full-time employee of the Department of Education to serve on the CAC.

CHARLES E. MOYLAN JR., the state's attorney, told the AFRO on Monday he assumed the Grand Jury was properly constituted and operating, "unless some judge holds in court it is not."

As to the panel's racial composition being disproportionate, he stated he knows of no current legal challenge on the matter.

proportionment, there seven Republicans, 10 colored and 13 white citizens; an arm or a leg of a Chinese; one Greek, 3½ Italians; 2½ Poles and six Irishmen."

I doubt that can ever be done," he concluded.

The AFRO was unable to reach Judge Dulaney, Foster who was on the bench Tuesday.

pick-up in Westport," said Rubin Jones, principal of Carver Vocational High School.

Robert Diggs, principal of Dunbar High School, added, "The buses haven't made a big dent in attendance. We have 53 more students today than yesterday."

At Douglass High School, 114 students were bused in. Mrs. Edna Campbell, principal, said, "What we really need is more buses and a time schedule of the buses."

"Several students used taxi-cabs to school this morning, because the bus passed them. We are aware that this is the first day of the emergency buses, and we are hopeful that tomorrow will be better."

Miss Deborah Martin, 16, a ninth grader at Calverton Heights Junior High School, complained Monday that "more than 40 of us waited on the corner of Annapolis Rd. and Waterview for two hour...

"Five buses passed us up. Three of them were loaded; but the other two could have taken about half of us."

Miss Martin said she has not been to school since the transit strike began Oct. 1. She added this account of what happened at the intersection.

"One bus did stop, but all the children tried to get on at one time and the driver closed the doors. Several fights broke out during the pushing and shoving.

"The police came. When we told them what had happened they said we should have taken the bus numbers. They also asked us to come back tomorrow (Tuesday) and remain orderly when the bus stops.

"This is awful. I haven't been to school since the strike began. I think they need more than 90 buses. There just weren't enough running in the Cherry Hill and Westport area Monday."

Miss Martin told the AFRO that most of the students who live in the Westport and Cherry Hill area attend during the strike.

10th win in row

In their second meet with the Southwest Bandits, at Carroll Park Sunday, the Chargers beat the Bandits 32-0, bringing the Chargers up to their tenth straight victory.

The Chargers have racked up 122 points in four games, for an average of 30 points per game.

Their defense, strongest in the league, has only allowed their opponents two points in four games.

The Chargers will face the Eagles at Clifton Park on Sunday. Kick-off time 2 p.m.

Council sets

under a resolution that was passed last week asking for any means at the Council's disposal to end strike.

IN OTHER action yesterday an ordinance was introduced that would delineate the "noise" ordinances in the police code.

The proposed bill would make unnecessary noise and public nuisances punisable by a $100 fine or up to 90 days in jail.

Another resolution that is now before the council is one that would ask the Board of Estimates to pay time-and-a-half on Sunday to municipal employees.

Four appointments from the mayor's office came before the council chamber for consideration in the Executive Appointments Committee.

Three appointments are replacements for Community Action Commissioners who resigned when the City Council defeated the nomination of Walter P. Carter as director of the Community Action Agency.

Among the appointments introduced yesterday were Mrs. Sarah Jane Bundy, president of the Cherry Hill Coordinating Council, the Rev. Marcus G. Wood, pastor of Providence Baptist Church, and Mrs. Beatrice Pitts, a former school teacher.

THE NOMINEES will fill the spots vacated by board members of the COC. There are nine more vacancies.

ANOTHER APPOINTMENT of submitted to the council by Mayor D'Alesandro, was that of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Shipley named to replace the Rev. Frank L. Williams on the Community Relations Commission. Mrs. Shipley has served as an official for the Baltimore Urban League.

In Memoriam

BRITT — A tribute of love in the memory of our beloved mother, HERRETTA H. BRITT, who passed away three years ago, October 1, 1965.

Her faith and patience, love and zeal,
Has made her memory dear;
And Lord, do thou the prayers fulfill
She offered for us here.
While Thou has gained, we losers are,
We miss her day by day;
But thou canst every breach repair,
And wipe our tears away.
Her Devoted Sons,
WILLIAM and EARL

MYERS—In loving memory of our beloved father, EARNEST W. who passed away October 21, 1967:

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
But, you left us to remember
Those on earth can take your place,
There is not a day, dear father,
That we do not think of you...
LOVING DAUGHTERS — STEPHENIE and DENISE.

POPE — In memory of my dear beloved wife and devoted mother, BERTHA PAYNE POPE, who passed away October 24, 1958:

She has left us for ten years
Keep her Jesus in Thy keeping
Till we reach that Heavenly shore
Then, oh Master, let us have her
To love and keep her as before.
Husband, HENRY LEE POPE
Daughter, IRIS REENE POPE.

WARREN — In loving memory of my son and our brother, WAVERLY WARREN, who passed away October 23, 1966:

Flowers will bloom in the summer,
In the autumn it will rain,
But the face of our dear son and brother,
We would love to see again.
Son and brother, when the violets open
And the flowers in beauty wave,
We will gather in some bunches
And lay them gently on your grave.
Oh, so often do we wander,
To the place where you are laid
And think if God had only left you,
Longer on earth with us to stay.
MOTHER-BROTHER and SISTERS.
