

pose shall not be repealed or applied to any other object until the said debt and interest thereon shall be fully discharged. The credit of the State shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, nor shall the General Assembly have the power in any mode to involve the State in the construction of Works of Internal Improvement, nor in any enterprise which shall involve the faith or credit of the State, nor make any appropriations therefor; and they shall not use or appropriate the proceeds of the Internal Improvement Companies or of the State tax now levied, or which may hereafter be levied, to pay off the public debt to any other purpose, until the interest and debt are fully paid or the sinking fund shall be equal to the amount of the outstanding debt, but the General Assembly may, without laying a tax, borrow an amount, never to exceed fifty thousand dollars, to meet temporary deficiencies in the Treasury, and may contract debts, to any amount, that may be necessary for the defence of the State.

Sec. 34. No extra compensation shall be granted or allowed by the General Assembly to any public officer, agent, servant, or contractor after the services shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into; nor shall the salary or compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office.

Sec. 35. No lottery grant shall ever hereafter be authorized by the General Assembly.

Sec. 36. The General Assembly shall pass no law, nor make any appropriation to compensate the masters or claimants of slaves emancipated from servitude by the adoption of this Constitution.

Sec. 37. No person shall be imprisoned for debt.

Sec. 38. The General Assembly shall grant no charter for banking purposes, nor renew any banking corporation now in existence, except upon the condition that the stockholders shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in such banking institution, for all its debts and liabilities upon note, bill or otherwise, and upon the further condition, that no director or other officer of said corporation shall borrow any money from said corporation, and if any director or other officer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of directly or indirectly violating this section, he shall be punished by fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the Court. The book, papers and accounts of all banks shall be open to inspection under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.
