Youth acquitted at shooting trial

CHICAGO — A 16-year-old Southside youth has been acquitted on two charges stemming from the shooting of Fifth Ward Alderman Leon Despres last Dec. 27.

Willie Plair, who was charged with aggravated battery and conspiracy to commit murder, had denied having anything to do with the shooting.

A CRIMINAL COURT jury of 10 men and two women deliberated 11 hours before reaching the verdict.

Plair was implicated in the attack by Samuel Stewart, 18, whom Despres identified in a police showup. Stewart is scheduled to have a separate trial in the shooting.

WINNER AND LOSER — Minnesota Vikings Clint Jones (26) is off on one of several long runs that helped scalp Washington Redskins in NFL action Sunday. Gain was for 25 yards before stop by Skins' Brig Owens (23) and Carl Kammerer (66). Vikes won, 27-14. In action at right, Gloster Richardson, younger brother of Colts' Willie Richardson, spears pass with acrobatic catch for Kansas City in Chiefs' 38-21 loss to Oakland Raiders. Trying to defend on scoring play were Raiders' Roger Bird (21) and Dave Grayson (45).

THUMBNAIL ROUNDUP:

Pro football's weekend

Willie Richardson scored one touchdown on a pass from quarterback Earl Morrall and tight end John Mackey caught two key passes in third-down situations to help the Baltimore Colts in their 26-0 victory over the New York Giants at Yankee Stadium.

In the meantime, the Baltimore defense, with Billy Ray Smith, Bob Boyd, Bubba Smith and Fred Miller leading the way thoroughly stymied the Giants. Boyd was particularly effective in holding New York's best receiver, Homer Jones, in check.

MEANWHILE, the Vikings enjoyed a 27-14 romp over the Washington Redskins at Bloomington, Minn., on the strength of a record-tying, 98-yard punt return by Willie West and two TD catches by Gene Washington.

West, a rookie from Missouri, equalled a 35-year-old NFL record with his sensational sprint, matching a similar feat by Gil LeFevre of the 1933 Giants. The scoring passes of 61 and 5 yards to Washington were heaves by Viking QB Joe Kapp.

AT ATLANTA, Pittsburgh flanker Roy Jefferson became the first National Football League player to catch four touchdown passes in a single game since 1963, when he led the Steelers to a 41-21 victory over the Falcons.

Jefferson, a four-year veteran from the University of Utah, caught touchdown passes of 27 and 61 yards from quarterback Dick Shiner in the first period, another for nine yards from Shiner in the third period and then took a 38-yard touchdown pass from reserve quarterback Kent Nix in the final period.

AT GREEN BAY, Gale Sayers raced for 205 yards against the rugged Packer defense and played a vital role in the Chicago Bears' 13-10 win.

Sayers set up the only Bear touchdown and one of his team's two field goals. the first when he sprinted 46 yards with a kickoff return and the kick when he spun 63 yards with a pitchout to the 10-yard line.

IN NEW ORLEANS, Bob Hayes caught touchdown passes of 54 yards and 13 yards from quarterback Don Meredith to pace the Dallas Cowboys to their 17-3 triumph over the Saints.

LEROY KELLY'S 173-yard rushing output lifted the Cleveland Browns from a 14-3 deficit and on to a 33-21 win over the Forty-Niners at San Francisco.

The former Morgan State-College (Baltimore) star contributed 39 of the 76 yards driven for the first Brownie score tallied the second six-pointer himself, then set up one of Cleveland's four field goals with a 32-yard scamper in the third quarter.

Clifton McNeil caught a TD pass in the losing 49er cause.

AT PHILADELPHIA, the St. Louis Cardinals used three touchdowns by running back Roy Shivers, and another by Willis Crenshaw to crush the Eagles, 45-17.

IN THE American Football League, the Raiders pleased their Oakland hometown crowd with a 38-21 decision over the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gloster Richardson, younger brother to the Baltimore Colts' Willie Richardson, caught a 29-yard TD pass from quarterback Len Dawson in the first period, then closed out the day with a 92-yard reception.

Daryle Lamonica hit Warren Wells with a 29-yarder for one of the two KC tallies.

Robinson, who had not been expected to make the squad — to say nothing of the starting team — paced the freshman club with a 68-yard pass reception.

FLOYD LITTLE and Garrett Ford, the latter a Washington (DC) high-school product, led the Denver Broncos to a 35-14 victory over the Patriots in Boston's Fenway Park.

Little scored on a 55-yard run and Ford on a 17-yard pass catch.

Boston's top rusher Jim Nance, tallied two TD's in the AFL loss. . .SAM LACY.

Realtors charged for bias acts

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Henry Ross and Martin Ross, president and vice president respectively of a realty firm.

The men are charged with discriminating against persons on the basis of race, color, religion and national origin. This act violates section 53-35 of this city's ordinance against bias.

The action was seen as a example of how a city agency such as Commission on Equal Opportunities and the Prosecutor's Office, can enforce laws, thereby creating confidence in the administration's good faith.

The best kept secret in Washington, D.C.

What's the most popular car among diplomats in Washington, D.C.?

Put that question to a diplomat and you get a very diplomatic answer.

In other words, they don't tell.

So we did some snooping around on our own and contrary to public opinion, the car most diplomats buy is neither very big nor very fancy nor very impressive.

Hint: It can be bought and serviced in 140 countries throughout the world.

Hint: It costs $1729+ in the U.S.A.

Hint: It has tremendous resale value.

Final hint: It gets around 27 miles to the gallon and uses no antifreeze whatsoever.

At last count, there were over 1200 diplomats and embassy staff members driving this little car throughout Washington.

So that story about big important people driving only big, important-looking cars may not be altogether true.

On the other hand, if big important people would rather have you believe they drive only big, important-looking cars, that's all right with us.

We won't let the bug out of the bag.

Gilmanite Dartmouth's top frosh

HANOVER, N.H. — Freshman Stu Simms of Baltimore continues to lead the Dartmouth College freshman football team in rushing after four games. In last Friday's 28-18 win over the Yale freshmen Simms accounted for 68 yards in 20 carries.

At one point in the Yale game, as the Indians were driving 80 yards for the winning touchdown in 18 rushing plays, Simms carried the ball eight times for 46 yards.

In four games this year he has totalled 176 yards in 64 times rushing. He has also caught one pass for 28 yards and a touchdown against the Harvard freshmen in a 27-2 Dartmouth win.

A FORMER Gilman School star, Simms won all-Maryland honors at fullback while captaining the Gilman squad. He also participated in basketball and track while i Gilman.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simms, 2101 Southern Ave., Baltimore.

The Pea Green will visit New Hampshire this Friday for a game against the Wildcat freshmen before returning to Hanover to close the season against the Boston College freshmen on November 15.

for the 1rst Congressional District.

In the Second District, we believe Rep. Clarence D. Long has earned another term in office and should ge supported.

Rep. Edward A. Garmatz of the Third District cannot be considered an outstanding legislator, but he far outstrips his opponent. He should be returned to Washington.

The same applies to Rep. allon of the ourth District. Hervey Machen in' the ifth deserves support. J. Glenn Beall Jr. of the Sixth has an lfpressive record in public office. We strongly support his candidacy.

Rep. reidel who was opposed in the primary by Parren J. Mitchell, in the Seventh District has serve long and ably. We endorse him.

Mrs. Margaret C. Schweinhaut would ge a definite improvement over Incumbent Gilbert Gude in the Eighth District.

The ARO is urging all voters to vote for Joseph C. Howard for a seat on the Baltimore Supreme Bench. An editorial detailing our reasons is printed elsewhere in this edtion.

Solomon Reddick and E. Paul Mason Jr. are choices for seats on the People's Court Bench.

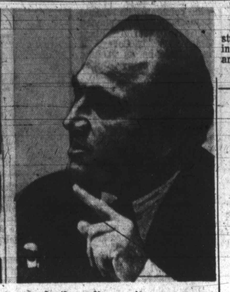
Mr. Reddick's candidacy offers voters an opportunity to correct an injustice in fair representation in the important People's Court.

Incumbent Judge Mason is a long-time chapion of equal justice in whatever position he has served. We urge his support.

We are asking voters to support all loan questions on the balot with the exception of Question No. 2, Charter Amendment.

Samuel Gilmer, president of the Anne Arundel County NAACP, contends that adoption of the amendment will work hardships on non-white citizens of Annapolis.

It would not be in their interest, according to evidence presented by Mr. Gilmer. We urge an "AGAINST" vote on Auestion 2.



ROBERT L. CARTER general counsel of the NAACP (left) told the President's Commission on Violence last week the colored person's experience in the U.S. has been one of "callous, indifferent and accepted brutality, brutalization and inhumanity." He said the black community regards the police as its oppressor. Carter's view of the police was backed up by Norman Dorsen, law professor and director of the Arthur Garfield Hayes Civil Liberties Program, New York University School of Law (right). Police inaugurate new grievance rules

The Baltimore Police Department's new grievance procedure in four steps provides: Face to face, employee and immediate supervisor, discussion within five working days after the matter complained of has occurred;

Written appeal to District or Divisional Commander within two working days. At the interview, the employee may be accompanied by a fellow employee;

Written appeal through "Chain of Command" to Deputy Commissioner of Administration within five working days.

Employee and any representative of his choice may request a conference with the Deputy Commissioner of Administration, or may appeal directly to the Personnel Service Board, in writing, within five working days.

Commissioner Pomerleau expresses the plan it will expedite resolution of grievances and improve employee relations. He also states he is available for consideration of any personnel matter.

Poly-Western to host traffic safety seminar

Students from all the high schools in Maryland are being invited to participate Saturday in a youth safety seminar at the Poly-Western complex under the auspices of the Maryland Law Enforcement Officers.

Francis X. Jahn, is president of MLEO.

Lieu. Edwin R. Mettee, of the Maryland State Police, member of the Traffic Safety Committee, has arranged the program, which begins with registration between 8:30 and 9:30 a.m.

The experience of the agencies, Maryland State, Baltimore City and Baltimore County will be used in the various presentations.

Col. Joseph A. Mahrer, of the City Police, will provide a 45-50 minute program, as will Inspector Earl Smith of the County Police, the two differing in content.

THEN TROOPER First Class Pat Bucher of the Maryland State Police will exhibit slides of accidents he has investigated with appropriate comment.

Following lunch to be provided by the host organization, Robert Constante, director of driver and safety programs for Maryland, will present a driving rodeo and demonstration on the parking lot.

United Fund Appeal tops campaign goal

The 1968 United Appeal fund campaign ended here tonight as volunteer workers reported contributions and pledges totaling $7,558,815 for 100.1 per cent of the $7,550,000 goal.

Owen Daly II, general chairman, announced the results of the eight week campaign to some 40 volunteers on hand for the dinner meeting at the Emerson hotel.

The final report represents the largest amount of money raised in the 15 year history of the joint Community Chest-Red Cross fund campaign.

The 1967 United Appeal drive raised $7,310,968 of its $7,490,000 goal.

To mark the 15th anniversary of the United Appeal, cakes were presented to past camgaign charimen who from 1954 through 1968 led united drives totaling $81,668,885.

The campaign to support 35 Community Chest agencies and 21 Red Cross services opened here Sept. 2 and stood at $4,783,019 or 63.4 per cent of goal at the last progress report meeting Oct. 17.

Joseph H. Purdy, vice president, Baltimore Gas and Electric company served as master of ceremonies for the meeting and music was provided by the U.S. Naval Academy Orchestra.

Mr. Daly said that final figures in the six division reports include money anticipated from some industrial and residential campaigns still in progress.

Grand jury hits police

PATERSON, N.J. — Members of the city police department have been charged by the Passaic County grand jury with vandalism, brutality and intimidation.

The jury also said the policemen had used "terrorism" and "goon squad" tactics during a week of racial disorders in Paterson last July.

According to the grand jury presentment, groups of policemen caught Puerto Rican and colored persons and gave them a "vicious beating in an isolated area" as examples to others.

AS IN previous studies showing police and national guardsmen created damage during outbreaks, the grand jury said it had evidence that police broke out windows and used tear gas on colored-owned establishments without reason.

At one point the presentment stated:

The presentment said that "this grand jury states its abhorrence and dismay at the actions of a relatively handful of misguided police officers who, while sworn to uphold the law and provide protection for life and property, chose instead on this occasion to break the law and destroy private property, including that of private citizens not involved in any way with the disturbances."

The grand jury also charged the police department and the administration of Mayor Lawrence F. Kramer of seeking to "sweep the entire matter under the rug."

Superior Court Judge John F. Crane ordered the grand jury to reconvene to determine if any of the policemen should be indicted on the serious charges made.

Indicted policemen would face some sort of action. Under a presentment it is left to officials to decide if they should act on the charges.
