KEEN TEEN SCENE

By KAREN BANFIELD

The big day is here! Who will be taking that sacred oath in January? It all depends on the big guys — the over 21'ers.

We keen teens have a roll to play, too. Encourage your parents and neighbors to exercise their constitutional right. Get out there and vote!

Don't forget it is not just an election for President and Vice President. There are several important loans to be voted on.

One of the most important ones is the School Loan. At least that is the one that hits closes to home for young people. If it is approved by our citizens, schools will gain a great deal.

Some of those old textbooks we have that were printed when George Washington was just a little toddler will be replaced by ones that were written when he became president.

* * *

SERIOUSLY, more modern equipment will be put in schools from elementary through high schools. So, talk to your parents and encourage them to vote for the School Construction Loan which is Question I, the last on the list of loans.

Another that will directly affect young people in the Parks and Recreation Facilities Loan.

This loan may be the answer to all those who have been asking the city for more and improved recreational facilities.

This loan is listed as Question E on the ballot.

There are also candidates for the U.S. Senate, Congress and judges.

Many of you will be able to help your parents select candidates from discussions in school, reading the newspaper and chatting with friends.

Teens, do your part by encouraging people to vote and informing them of current issues.

I HAVE a new scout at Douglass High. She is Miss Vickey Lewis, an out-of-sight senior. (Oh, those mighty seniors)

Recently, Douglass played a really hard game of football against Edmondson at Kirk Field.

Even though those Indians plucked the Ducks, it was an exciting game. The score was 12 to 6.

The Ducks' only touchdown was made by rugged Jerry Walker. On the scene to cheer the determined Ducks were:

Vickey Lewis, Staley Jefferson, Sharon Nickens, Robert Byrd, Donnee Dawkins, Tai Thompson, Donald Warner, Valeria Norris, Ronna Stokes, Jackie Cross, Jimmy Wilson, and many, many more swinging Douglasites.

Best wishes in future games to the team and especially Jerry Walker, No. 11, who made that hard-won touchdown.

* * *

THIS FRIDAY, Douglass will celebrate its annual homecoming by playing those powerful Black Knights of City College. It is sure to be an exciting game with many excited Keen Teens on the scene.

If you are planning to attend, send me a line and the names of some of your friends making the scene.

The day after that, Nov. 9 will also be another exciting happening for Baltimoreans, young and old — Morgan's homecoming.

This is bound to be a real soul-stirring, exciting day for Morganites and their fans. It is the day when all the alumni flock back to their alma mater and cheer those Morgan Bears.

So all you soul brothers and sisters, I will definitely see you there.

Kirk Field was also the setting for the aggressive McDonogh boys and the hard-hitting Foresters. The Woodsmen held on to their title of being undefeated while the Military Men tried in vain to grab it from them.

Before this game McDonogh was also undefeated. The final score was a gleaming 27 for Forest Park and a discouraging for McDonogh. Maybe next year fellas.

* * *

LAST SATURDAY morning was a grueling experience for many seniors. It was the first S.A.T. test given this year. Flocking to test centers were teens from all over the city.

Now that you have experienced one of the tests, let me tell you, this is just the beginning.

With that kind thought I leave you to cry in peace.

Until next week, Keen Teens, send me the latest happenings. (3700 Springdale Ave.)

TEEN TALK

By MICHAEL BELFIELD

It's election time once again and people all over the USA will be going to the polls today (Tuesday) to elect the man who will run the country for the next four years.

We as teenagers can play a big part in the election by urging our parents, aunts, uncles, and older friends to get out and vote.

If they do not vote, we might have to live in a country of poor leadership and poor government. So I say again, Urge your parents to VOTE.

DO YOU know how a band that plays soul and sycadelic music? If you do call Carolina Cotton at 233-2081.

Douglass High school is sponsoring a dance on Friday, Nov. 8 from 8-11 p.m. Admission is $1.00 with an assesment card and $1.25 without card. Music by the Castells.

ON NOV. 1, Cathy Russell had a very successful birthday party. Cathy was 16. She attends Morning Star Baptist Church.

She attends Towson Senior High School and is in the 11th grade.

When she finishes high school, Cathy plans to attend Morgan or Hampton. She wants to be a social worker.

Cathy's guests were:— Valarie Hawkins, Shelia Phillips, Tina Ward, Alan Pulson, Pat Marshall, Carroll Jenkins, Tipy Ward, Jimmy Smith, Gregory Scott, Curt Debea, Purnell Shaw, Verna Wright, Ver-Lavanda Shaw, Darrier Dickson and Lesley Hawkins.

NOW FOR some news from Annapolis. Congradulations go out to Roxanne Broadway. Roxanne is a candystriper at Crownsville State Hospital.

The Candystripers are teenagers who volunteer their time and services to help comfort patients at Crownsville.

Denise Hicks, a student at Annapolis Senior High was elected "Homecoming Queen" by the student body.

She is a senior. She says she was excited and that her parents were surprised, and that everyone was happy for her.

As queen, Denise was the main attraction at the Homecoming Parade and at the dance after the game.

Her especially big thrill was at the dance following the game, even though the Annapolis Panthers lost.

Denise says she will go on to college and study to be a sociologist because she says, "People are very interesting."

NOW FOR the Sports News: Well for all you Baltimore Bullet fans the "new" Bullets are really off to a great start this year.

With Earl (the Pearl) Monroe, Gus (Honeycomb) Johnson, Wesley Unseld, Ray Scott, Jack Marin, and Leroy Ellis the Bullets have all the makings of a championship team, and in my opinion should be champions.

RESULTS of the prep football games:

Edmondson 34 Mount St. Joe 13

Loyola 30 Douglass 8

Carver 38 Southern 14

THESE ARE THE records I think should be the top 5:

2. Count to Ten
3. Nitty Gritty
4. Say It Loud I'm Black and I'm proud.
5. For Once In My Life.

WILL THAT'S it for this week. Don't forget to urge your parents to vote, and remember your Youth Council.

If you know of any parties, dances, or things of importance that you would like printed in the AFRO send your cards and letters to:

GBC backs school loan

The Greater Baltimore Committee has endorsed the $60 million School Loan which will appear as Question 1 on the Tuesday ballot and, through its chairman, Austin E. Penn, the organization of business leaders termed the bond issue one of the most important ever to be put before the voters.

He equated the massive school construction program envisioned by the bond issue with the Charles Center and Inner Harbor Redevelopment Projects in terms of their impact on Baltimore's economic strength.

"The Greater Baltimore Committee planned and has helped implement the Charles Center and Inner Harbor programs," Mr. Penn said, "and obviously we are convinced of their positive influence on Baltimore's economic growth.

"But at the same time, the business community has a vested interest in the public school system and the calibre of the young people it turns out.

"Business and industry depend more than ever upon an educated and skilled generation competent to enter the present and future labor force. And experience leaves no doubt," he added, "that Baltimore's economy depends upon a viable commuter market and the tax paying ability of all of its citizens.

"The Greater Baltimore Committee feels strongly," Mr. Penn stated, "that the proposed School Loan represents the soundest possible investment the city can make in its future."

Safety Club hears Sheldon

The Safety First Club of Baltimore held a luncheon in the Lafayette Room, at the Stafford Hotel, last Tuesday.

Bernard Potts, an attorney and member of the organization was moderator.

Dr. Thomas Sheldon, superintendent of public schools was guest speaker.

The designing of automobiles with safety device features was stressed.

The general education of the public concerning safety is a must, Mr. Potts said.

He added that the early education of youngsters in safety is as important as early orientation in the prevention of communicable diseases.

In his speech, Dr. Sheldon told of the four police officers detailed to the public elementary schools to help induce safety for children.

He added, "I was happy to find that a safety guideline is featured in our public school curriculum."

Among the guests were: Harold Jennifer, Judge E. Everette Lane, retired; Isaac Dixon, Sr., John Leak, Abe Weiner, Jules Greenspun and Isaac Dixon, Jr.

In Memoriam

HUTCHINSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, father and brother, George W. Hutchinson who passed away November 5, 1967:
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts, your memory lingers,
Sweet, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear husband
Dad, and brother, that we do not Think of you.
BELOVED WIFE — CORNELIS
— HEARTBROKEN CHILDREN — and DEVOTED SISTER — MRS. ELIZABETH SAVAGE.

OWENS — In remembrance of my DEAR HUSBAND AND OUR FATHER, TOM OWENS, who passed away November 4, 1965:

It was to part with one so dear.
