—Master plan

increased in good measure, but much is still left to do. In 1959, there were 773 black faculty members on integrated faculties; and in 1968 there are 3,774 such teachers.

However, he points out that there are still 39 completely non-white faculties and eight all-white ones, and that the term "integrated" may include just one white teacher on an otherwise non-white faculty.

"We understand that all of the teacher organizations in Baltimore are strenuously opposed to any unilateral re-assignment of staff members." Mr. Russell said, adding that the law still requires the School Board to act.

Mr. Murnaghan also mentioned the unwavering stand of the teacher organizations as a barrier to complete faculty integration.

The solicitor's opinion was requested by Mr. Glenn to determine the impact on the Baltimore system of the Supreme Court's ruling that the Kent County, Va. "freedom of choice" plan was not in compliance with the Constitution.

The Kent County plan, the Supreme Court ruled, did not bring a transition to a "racially non-discriminatory school system", as ordered in "Brown vs. Board of Education," the original school desegregation decision by the Supreme Court.

Baltimore also has a freedom of choice system.

Mr. Russell quoted the high court decision that mandates the elimination of discrimination "root and branch" and places the "burden on a school board...to come forward with a plan that promises realistically to work, and promises realistically to work now."

Mr. Russell said that the 34 per cent of the 124,150 black pupils attending segregated schools compared favorably with the 80 per cent attending such schools in 1955, but this one-third of the black children in Baltimore is still being deprived of the constitutional right to integrated education.

The great portion of elementary schools, 100, are integrated, but there are still 49 segregated non-white and nine segregated white, the opinion says.

Thirty-six secondary or vocational schools are integrated, but 10 are still all-non-white. None are all white.

The non-white secondary vocational schools have decreased by only one since 1955, Mr. Russell noted. He added that a school is considered integrated if it has just one student of the opposite race.

"Baltimore would appear to have gone as far as it can to bring about integration under a 'freedom of choice' plan," the solicitor stated. He doubted that zoning would be effective, and noted that the situation is aggravated by housing patterns in Baltimore and the fact that there is a larger percentage of black students enrolled in the schools than white students.

Mr. Russell declined to make any suggestions on plans for increasing integration in the schools.

Dr. Sheldon, in a televised news conference a week ago, before the opinion was presented, acknowledged the lack of complete integration in the schools, adding that to attack the problem at the elementary level would call for large expenditures which are not available.

On the secondary level, he said, he hopes to integrate the non-white schools by providing them with some special courses which would draw students from all races.

Mr. Murnaghan also cited the cost on the elementary level and added that even bussing may not be a workable solution, because parents dislike having younger children travel long distances to school.

But integration ideally has to begin on the elementary level, he stated, "if it is going to work on the secondary level."

before the court, an investigation had been under way for some time and on Nov. 26, unknown to him, Turnage was given $179 in marked money and checks made out to JIU to go on the errand as usual and make the despoit.

Records also show he was given a four-part deposit slip for the bank to tear off the carbon and give it to him to return to the University.

However, as the "doctors" of the SA investigation staff observed him, the report shows the suspect went down in the basement of the Reed Medical Residence Hall at 1260 McElderry St. and transferred the money to his pocket.

The record also shows he tore off the carbon and returned it without going to the bank.

-Bishop

cepted the call to the deanery of the Cathedral in Washington.

The Rt. Rev. Edward T. Helfenstein who was approaching retirement, asked the diocese to elect a bishop coadjutor to help him with his duties.

Bishop Powell had already declined three elections as bishop, but in 1939, after a short period of meditation at his cabin, which he built himself, in the Blue Ridge Mountains, he accepted to become a bishop.

In 1963, Bishop Powell broke precedent by writing Archbishop Shehan to address the clericus of the Episcopal diocese.

Folowing his retirement as bishop of the diocese, he remained active, traveling to the various parishes and speaking at numerous commencement exercises.

The bishop resided at 5003 Charlesmeade Rd.

Bishop Powell is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Rustin Powell, and two sons, Philipp N. Powell and Dr. Thomas H. Powell, all of Baltimore.

-Local 44

had been none before, then it's a whole new ball game."

Mr. Lively stated that on the day after the elections some 200 members of another union withdrew from that organization.

Some, he said, have signed membership cards in Local 44, and others have stated their intention to do so in the near future.

Although Mr. Lively would not specify which other union was involved, a brief check with DPW workers indicated that a number of Local 1231 members were known to have defected to Local 44.

-IOC plan

about 80 per cent, staff workers say.

In jeopardy were the 53 night-school students at the center, and many of the 44 enrolled in day-classes, according to staff-members.

Not effected is the future to the OIC-Concentrated Employment Program, which is separately funded by the Community Action Agency.

Adding to the tenseness of the situation was the recent firing of staff director Robert Holt, who was dismissed effective Nov. 30, after two years in the $15,000 position.

Board spokesmen earlier cited differences in staff questions, hiring and pay scales in the dismissal.

What will be necessary to continue the program beyond December says the Rev. Mr. Daniels, is massive community support for the fund-raising drive in progress.

OIC must survive on private contributions until proposals for Office of Economic Opportunity or Model Cities Agency funding are accepted, the board president explained.

This means that the $12,000 monthly budget, which is expended chiefly for staff salaries, must be donated by the community.

Planned for Dec. 7 is the raffle of a 1969 auto; and a dance-cabaret, the following week. Information regarding tickets or contributions can be obtained by call 752-2052.

Maroons trip NCC Gray squad

Durham, N.C. — Dennis Robinson scored 37 points, 22 in the second half, to lead his Maroon team to a 86-71 victory over the Grays in the North Carolina College annual intrasquad game played last Saturday night in the R. L. McDougald Gymnasium.

Trailing 35-32 at intermission, the Maroon team caught fire in the second half behind Robinson and freshman Robert Byrd to score 54 points to put the game out of reach.

Birthday Tribute

CARTER — A Birthday tribute in memory of our beloved one, BEVERLY ANN, on her birthday December 3, who passed away June 7, 1967.
She left behind an infant son, whom she never saw nor knew her. But we will not forget her, because she was so concerned about every human being. Leaving all her friends and family in grief. May God keep her peacefully.
SON — MOTHER and FRIENDS.

FORD — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear beloved mother, CARRIE E. FORD, on her birthday, December 4th, who departed this life May 4, 1966:
There is not a day that goes by Mom, that we don't speak your name.
Since you have been gone, life has not been the same.
The sweet memories of you are so precious and dear.
And will live with us year after year.
God blessed us with a ruby rare.
He blessed us with you, Mother dear.
You stuck by us through good times and bad.
You were the best Mother anyone could have had.
You sacrificed your life — no one could give more.
We know He had something very good for you in store.
God alone knows the loss we bear.
God alone knows how much we care.
How much we miss you, words could never say.
The loss grows deeper with each passing day.
Some day we will meet on that blessed shore,
And will live together forever more.
Forever in our hearts —
Loving Daughters
(Miss) MARLENE FORD
(Miss) DORIS FORD.

In Memoriam

FAIR — In memory of my dear friend, WILLIAM (BILL) FAIR, who passed away November 29, 1966:
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of one who thinks of you.
EVA BLACKWELL.

KNIGHT — In loving memory of my beloved husband, THEOSALONIANA KNIGHT, who passed away December 1, 1967:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend.
We think of you often, and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
— Wife ERNESTINE KNIGHT and CHILDREN

PEACOCK — In remembrance of my mother, DELLA PEACOCK, who passed away December 3, 1966:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one who was loved by all.
Just to think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
Sleep on and take your rest.
We loved you, but God loved you best.
Daughters —
MISS EULA ADAMS
BEULAH LUCKETT and GRANDCHILDREN.

MALLWOOD — In loving memory of my beloved daughter, NANCY LEE, who passed away December 7, 1966:
Two years have passed since that sad day,
When the one we loved, was called away.
God took her home — it was his will.
Within our hearts she lives still.
MOTHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

WRIGHT — In loving memory of my dear husband, our father and grandfather, CHARLES WRIGHT, who passed away December 3, 1966:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Two years ago today.
Wife, WILLIE MAE
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

YOUNG — In loving memory of our dear mother, ELLA YOUNG, who passed away November 30, 1965:
A wonderful mother, woman and guide,
One who was better God never made,
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million — that mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.
