

1 study carefully the considerations before you, not to
2 consider the weekend coming up, as many of you are, and I
3 have been hearing talk about getting out of here early
4 as possible. I don't think this is really justified as 5 far as education is concerned, and that you consider the 6 questions very carefully.

7 I urge you to adopt this amendment.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to
9 speak in opposition? Delegate Mentzer.

10 DELEGATE MENTZER: I just wondered if I was going
11 to get an answer to my question of Delegate Kirkland.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: As soon as the Chair has recog-
13 nized everybody who desires to speak, I will afford you
14 that privilege.

15 Any delegate desire to speak in opposition? The 16 Chair recognizes Delegate Pullen.

17 DELEGATE PULLEN: Mr. Chairman, I promise to be
18 brief, and I hope and believe that the people interested
19 in education will set an example after all, we have gone
20 through in brevity in arguing the interest of one million
21 children in the State.
