

1 Mr. Chairman. I wish to apologize also. I thought
2 you were calling for a question and I interrupted you,
3 but I have a question.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I believe the Chair lost his 5 equilibrium for a moment.

6 Delegate Miller.

7 DELEGATE BEATRICE MILLER: I would probably 8 like to know of Delegate Willis. He spoke of local 9 school boards being taken over by political subdivisions,
10 and I want to know just how this is possible if we have 11 a state board --

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Miller, may the 13 Chair interrupt you? Since we are on controlled time,
14 I have to allow anyone who desires to speak an opportunity
15 to speak before you can ask questions. Does any delegate 16 desire to speak in favor of Amendment 5? In favor of 17 the deletion?

18 Delegate Clark.

19 DELEGATE CLARK: Mr. Chairman, I wish to 20 make two very brief points. The first is that Article
21 77 of the Code at the present time does give the full
