Silhouettes end session with luncheon

Baltimore Silhouettes, closing out three days of entertaining their national ground, culminated the Kappa Silhouettes activities with a superb fashion show and luncheon, Saturday.

The affair was held in the Statler Hilton, where feminine guests sipped cocktails flowing from a fountain, dined and viewed fabulous fashions by Pauline Brooks and furs by Selinskow.

* * *

Jaunita Harris and Carolyn Chissell were chic, witty and poised in their roles as chairmen of the affair. Other Silhouettes sharing the spotlight at the head table were Doris Tarter, president of the local chapter; Geraldine Fowlkes, Jean Adams, Elva Edwards, conclave chairman; Mary Foley of Washington, national president; and Ivy Williams of Winston-Salem, N.C., national financial secretary.

The ladies were unable to conceal their delight when they received 12-inch long floral fabric covered telephone and address books as souvenirs of the afternoon's festivities.

* * *

As usual the fashions worn by the guests in the audience were almost as exciting and breath-taking as those displayed by the models.

Carolyn Willis and Marian Russell both chose chic fur-trimmed suits. Carolyn Chissell wore a beige suit, matching hat and dark brown accessories. Juanita Harris hit a high fashion note in a black afternoon frock with matching hat, shoes and bag.

Anne Davis (who is expecting) wore a pink knit dress with matching hat, and Jean Adams (another lady-in-waiting) was in black and brown tunic suit with matching hat and black accessories. Dorothy Wood selected a hot pink wool knit dress. Geraldine Fowlkes donned a gray, orange and white three-piece suit with matching gray hat and black shoes and bag.

* * *

Of course, spicing the day were many out-of-town Silhouettes, among them Elizabeth Thompson from Philadelphia; Dorothea Jackson of Detroit, Mich., Susie Blackshears of Sanford, Fla., Corliss Williams of Des Moines, Iowa.

Also Wyland Morgan of Kansas City, Mo., Hazel Lewis of the Bronx, N.Y., Louise Pope, Chicago, Ill.; Bessie Stone of Cincinnati, Ohio, Frances Williams of Indianapolis, Ind., Amanda Derricks of Nashville, Tenn., Beulah Hill of Durham, N.C., Mattie Washington of New Jersey.

Charles Tildon on K's Grand Board

Charles Tildon, dynamic civic leader and coordinator for the Provident Hospital Development Committee, here, was elected to the Grand Board of directors of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, during the 55th conclave, here, last week.

Mr. Tildon is polemarch of the Eastern Province which includes the Baltimore Alumni chapter which hosted the conclave. The conclave, attended by 10,000 Kappa men, was the largest in the history of the fraternity.

The Board of Directors is elected by the Grand Chapter and made responsible for supervising and acting upon fraternity matters between sessions of the Grand Chapter.

Mr. Tildon's support of the need for greater communication between undergraduate chapters, alumni chapters, and the Grand Board, and his pledge to bridge the generation gap that seems to exist in most organizations throughout the country, were among the factors that favored his election to the post.

Other members of the board include:

Ernest H. Davenport of Detroit, Mich.; Dr. W. Thomas Carter of Washington, Donald Hance of Atlanta, Ga., H. H. Holloway of Philadelphia, Pa., Dr. Oliver S. Grumbs of Mobile, Ala., Charles R. Woodson of Cheyney, Pa. and Dr. Ezra D. Alexander of Indianapolis, Ind.

The next session of the conclave will be in Charlotte, N.C.

Mrs. Lane marks 89th

Mrs. Lucinda Lane celebrated her 89th birthday last week. She was born in Saint Mary's County.

She is the mother of 8 children, 20 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-grandchild.

Mrs. Lane has resided with her youngest child, Mrs. Estella Brown, for 14 years.

The great-great grandmother still enjoys sewing, reading, writing, and doing chores. Her greatest joy is her two great-grandchildren, relatives said.

Mrs. Lane is a member of the Gillis Memorial Community Church.

"Live so that those who live around you will always want to be around you," is her favorite bit of philosophy, her children said.

Beating ruffles Detroiters anew

DETROIT (UPI) — The alleged beating of a youth on Christmas Day by two police officers attempting to arrest him has stirred new charges of police brutality and brought a direct confrontation between Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and Rep. John Conyers Jr.

Conyers led a delegation of leaders to the mayor's office Thursday to demand a statement "against police racism." Cavanagh said he could not issue such a statement but added he would act quickly on the allegations.

Sears WARNING!

These Pins Contain Poisonous Beans

To Sears Customers Who Purchased Novelty Pins Since November 5, 1968 from the Following Stores:

MONDAWMIN
2000 Mondawmin Mall, Baltimore

GLEN BURNIE
6650 Gov. Ritchie Highway, Glen Burnie

It has been determined that the "eyes" in the comic face designs and the center portion of the flower figures consist of a hard-shelled bean which, if chewed or broken and swallowed, could be fatal, because of its extreme toxicity.

The bean, known as a "Jequirity Bean" or "Rosary Pea," is egg-shaped and shiny, with a red or orange body and black tip on one end. Some beans may be discolored and appear brown or black and shiny. If you purchased or received any of the pins containing these beans, please return them immediately to the store for refund.

These pins range from 1 inch to 2 inches in diameter

She went also to participate in the debutante activities for the season. Her hostesses included Misses Philipa and Stephanie Pemberton, debutante twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Pemberton.

In Baltimore, last week, was Sister Cecilia Marie, SSJ, of St. Bernard Community School, Detroit, Mich. She is the former Etta Morton of this city.

Adele Foreman was off to Temple, Texas, and Christmas with her father.

Ethel Rich was in Los Angeles, visiting friends.

Mrs. Edna Barksdale went South for the season.

And, a sight to warm one all the year round . . . Jerusalem Temple Shriners dispensing shoes to needy children at the dawn of the holiday. The Shriners dipped into their funds for $750 for the gifts.

Orchids to The Druid Station Postal Employees, Mr. W. Raleigh, dean chairman contributed and a box of can goods to the Western District Police and Community Relations committee. They contribute each year to this cause.

The donation was presented to Mrs. Eula Mae Watts, a member of the committee who in turn, turned it over to the Western District. These are the wonderful letter carriers who remember the little unfortunate children ages 8 to 12 and help to make it possible for them to enjoy a Merry Christmas. They dashed through the cold weather on Christmas eve morning and enjoyed a wonderful party and bautiful show which was given for them by the Western District at the Winchester Armory. Many others contributed to this wonderful cause.
