FAMU sets $250,000 goal

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Florida A and M University has launched its first organized Annual Giving Fund campaign, according to Willie E. Jenkins, FAMU's development officer. "The goal for the calendar year has been set at $250,000. We are confident that it can be achieved."

Mr. Jenkins pointed out that most of the funds will be used for matching funds for scholarships and loans for needy students. About 85 percent of the nearly 4,000 students attending FAMU need financial assistance of some kind, he said.

Five percent of the U. S. poultry industry is in Texas.
