PASADENA, Cal. — Ohio State administered a sound thrashing to Southern California in the New Year's Day Rose Bowl game and thus established herself as the No. 1 college team in the nation for 1968.

Figuring prominently in the victory over the Trojans were nine colored Buckeyes. The USC squad included 11 tan athletes, bringing the Rose Bowl total to 20.

• • •

Ray Gillian, a halfback from Uniontown, Pa., tallied one of the Ohio State touchdowns. Others aiding the Buckeye cause were:

Halfbacks Leophus Hayden of Dayton, Ohio, and John Brockington of Brooklyn; ends Jan White of Harrisburg, Pa., Tim Anderson of Follansbee, West Va., and Dave Whitfield of Massillion, Ohio; guard Phil Strickland of Cincinnati, and tackle Rufus Mayes of Toledo, Ohio.

• • •

Southern Cal's futile bid for the Roses was led by O. J. Simpson, whose 70-yard touchdown run was a highlight of the first half. Other tan Trojans were:

Ends Sam Dickerson of Stockton, Cal., and Jim Gunn of San Diego; backs Mike Berry of Minneapolis, Skip Robinson of Pasadena, and Humphrey Covington of San Deigo;

Tackles Willard Scott of Los Angeles, Al Cowlings of San Francisco, Tony Terry of Long Beach, Cal., and Ron Clark of San Diego.

Alcindor, Jo Jo White All-America repeaters

NEW YORK — Seven-foot, 1½-inch senior Lew Alcindor of UCLA, and 6-3 senior Jo Jo White of Kansas, are repeaters on Sport Magazine's preview All-America basketball team, according to an article in the current issue of the magazine.

Also named to the squad are juniors Pete Marvich (6-5) of LSU, Calvin Murphy of Niagara (5-10) and Bob Lanier (6-11) of St. Bonaventure.

Alcindor, who was named to Sport's team for the third straight year, led UCLA to back-to-back NCAA championships with 39 wins in 60 games during the last two seasons. His 1967-68 average was 26.2.

The other senior on the squad, picked for the second straight year by the experts, can do everything on a basketball court, according to the people who watched him lead the U.S. Olympic team to a gold medal.

Jo Jo, whose 15.3 average belies his true abilities, is recognized as an exceptional ballhandler, playmaker, shooter and defensive ace. Boston Celtics general manager Red Auerbach says: "I'll take him right now!"

Pete Maravich, whose 43.8 scoring norm broke the NCAA Major-College record last season, scored 50 or more points in nine games as a soph. Though Maravich has been criticized for shooting too much, ABA star Doug Moe calls him "as good as any basketball player I've ever seen."

Calvin Murphy, second in the nation with a 36.2 average last season, has been called "the most exciting player in the country." The 5-10 speedster who can dunk with two hands is highly respected by the experts.

Detroit Piston coach Paul Seymour says: "No one in the NBA could guard Murphy today." Villanova's Jack Kraft, in complete agreement with Seymour says: "He's the best shooter I've ever seen — pro, lege or high school.

Completing the preview All-America is Bob Lanier, who took St. Bonaventure through an undefeated regular-season schedule (22-0) and into the NCAA playoffs. Lanier, called "a real fine one," by Red Auerbach, averaged 26.2 points and 15.6 rebounds per game.

Milwaukee who moved ahead of the Big O.

Lennie has 346 assists to Guy's 333 and Oscar's 331. Robertson with a 9.7 per game average is highest with Rodgers averaging 8.5 and Wilkens 8.4.

Hayes widens scoring lead

NEW YORK — By tallying 95 points in three games during the past week to raise his total for the campaign to 1132, Elvin Hayes of San Diego increased his league leading per game average to 30.8.

The Big E is followed in the scoring tables by Bob Rule of Seattle with 956, Earl Monroe of Baltimore, 877; Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles with 915, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati with 906.

• • •

Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles, continues to maintain his lead in the field goal percentage column with .591 and in total rebounds and per game averages with 781 retrieves and 24.4.

Jerry Lucas of Cincinnati continues as runner-up among field goal percentage leaders with .567 while Wes Unseld of Baltimore has displaced Hayes as rebound runner-up with 673 grabs to 656 for the Big E.

• • •

The durable Seattle backcourt ace, Len Wilkens, held his assist lead of 13 feeds over Guy Rodgers of

Bowie jockey colony gets newest young riding star

BOWIE, Md. — Doug Thomas has come a long way since he registered his maiden victory at Bowie on April 7, 1966. On that occasion the Canadian jockey booted home Dark Apache to victory for a $303 payoff.

The 23-year-old rider probed his initial victory was anything but a fluke. And he did it the hard way on the New York circuit where he closed out the 1968 season as the leading apprentice on Long Island.

The past season has been a big one for Thomas with 136 victories through Nov. 30; his mounts earned short of $1,000,000 ($919,454) to rank him among the national leaders.

When Bowie opens on Monday, Thomas will return without the benefit of the five pounds apprentice allowance to the scene of his first success.

He will do the riding for the stable trained by R. B. Murray who will ship 15 head this week from Belmont Park. The loss of the "bug" during the latter part of the New York season didn't deter Thomas and it is quite likely that his services will be in demand here.

DALLAS — Two colored players were seen in action in the Cotton Bowl victory of Texas over Tennessee on New Year's Day.

Chris Gilbert, the Southwest Conference's rushing champion, was in the starting lineup of the Longhorns, while end Lester McLain integrated for the first time, the makeup of the Volunteers of Knoxville.
