If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places and things

You read it here first—City Solicitor George L. Russell and Mrs. Russell (Marian), are readying for a trip to Israel and Rome.

He will be a member of the Jewish National Fund's study mission. More on this later.

Plenty of sunshine, please, to Mrs. Anna E. Goodman, a Baltimorean, who is bedridden at Long Beach General Hospital at 2597 Redondo Ave., in Los Angeles County, Long Beach, Calif. 90806.

Many remember Mrs. Goodman as the mother of Sonny Goodman, the long-time Howard U. public relations exec., now in a foreign post in Copenhagen.

He flew home a week back to visit with his mother. Also at her bedside, her niece, Mrs. Edna McCormick.

• • •

Mrs. Guy Smith, another Baltimorean in Los Angeles, advises that Mrs. Goodman is unable to answer cards and notes but is glad to have your thinking-of-you hellos.

Which reminds me to mention that Mrs. Smith is executive secretary to the vice president of the National Safety Council.

Mr. Smith is still with Los Angeles County. He was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the L.A. Employees Association.

• • •

Right here at home another senior citizen who is housebound is Mrs. William H. McAbee (Ruth), for years an active teacher and civic worker.

Let her know you remember her. Visit her if you can. She is at 1225 W. Lafayette Ave.

• • •

In Anne Arundel County Hospital nursing a fractured hip she suffered in a fall in her Glen Burnie Home is Mrs. Maurice Doles (Waltye), wife of the dentist.

And do remember Douglass J. King, the long-time Annapolis educator.

He is confined to the same hospital.

• • •

Luckiest man in town is Dr. Charles Venter, the brilliant young internist.

His neighbor, Royal Weaver, heard his car motor running, pulled him from the vehicle before it caught fire.

Mrs. Venter said this week, the young physician is doing fine, no ill effects. So glad.

Baby Note: The Paul Scotts (Roberta), named their firstborn, Michael Pemberton Scott.

More about people, things

Good news from New York: Mrs. Alice Arrington, the YWCA executive, is much improved.

She returned to work on Nov. 1, has retired from the YW, and when you read this will be on a Barbados vacation.

Many Baltimoreans may remember her as the energetic leader of the Madison Ave. Y. Remember?

Cuff note: Mrs. Arrington's unique Yule card carried this message by James Baldwin: "It is necessary while in darkness, to know that there is light somewhere, to know that in oneself, waiting to be found, there is light."

• • •

Speaking of unusual greeting cards: the slender black one from Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lewis (he's art prof at Morgan) had black embossed letters.

It contained these Ashanti proverbs:

"When a king has good counselors, his reign is peaceful."

And, "The ruin of a nation begins in the homes of the people."

Christmastime was vacation time for this column.

It enabled a change of pace, with plenty of time at home with the kids and to visit friends.

One such trip took us to Cascade, Md., site of an a Cascade, Md., site of a top secret Army installation.

There, we visited with Sp/4 Frederick Marion Mitchell and his wife, the former Paula Thomason, of St. Paul, Minn. She is our godchild.

Her mother, our former U. of Minn. classmate, Mrs. Paul Thomason (Shirlee), was also there from St. Paul.

• • •

Young Mitchell and Paula have an apartment near the base.

It is located in a rambling house directly in front door; used colorful paper curtains to dress up the living areas.

• • •

And, for the dining area, candles for the table, colorful mats, and a lamp we discarded which looks elegant!

Which goes to prove that when you live one day at a time, and when you are sensible youngsters intent on finding happiness wherever you are, you don't sit in a corner and complain.

You make sunshine wherever you are.

Orchids to these young people. They are beginning to build a solid marriage.

• • •

Police grad note: Edward Joseph (Ted) Van de Castle Jr., was among graduates at the police academy this morning (Friday).

He's a nice kid like his dad, the senior Mr. Van de Castle, whom many know as the Catholic lay leader and good neighbor.

By the way, the senior Mr. Van de Castle won his battle with heart trouble, has lost some pounds and looks the picture of health.

A bit about this and that

Now—we've-heard-everything-department: Out in California last month, a Black Panther supporter of Eldridge Cleaver (author of the best seller, "Soul On Ice"), gives this description of U.S. Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall:

"He is an Uncle Tom, boot-lickin' n—r pig."

This dastardly attack on one of our country's proven black leaders, is indefensible.

The Panther spokesman was peeved because Justice Marshall agreed with California courts that Cleaver must serve a term for parole violation.

• • •

It is to be noted that some Johnny-come-lately black leaders are ignoring the contributions of pioneer civil rights leaders.

They seek to descredit those who have been campaigning against injustice — marching, demonstrating, speaking out—long before they were born.

This is unfortunate. Certainly, Thurgood Marshall does not deserve such an indictment. He's been there. Honest!

• • •

It's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wainwright Jr. (Thelma Wilson) of Palmer Ave.

Baby weighed in at 5 lbs., 14 oz., on Tuesday, Jan 7, at Hopkins Hospital.

Her name: Cheryl Patrice. Mother is a welfare department employee. Dad is a postal worker.

• • •

Proof that men can get along together for a sustained period is the Zeus Club.

Members marked their tenth anniversary during the holidays, held a party at Mardell's West. They are young business and professional men.

President is Eugene Parker. Other officers are: Samuel Costen, vice president; John Liner, treasurer; Maurice Staples, recording secretary; and James Bennett, financial secretary.

Other members are Hollis Posey, Pennington Mason, Sidney Sheppard, Samuel Costen, Ellis Robinson, Maurice Staples, John Haythorne, Fred Lockett, John Tisdale, Franci Turner, Ellsworth Davage, Joseph Yates and James Bennett.

• • •

Pretty lady seen at the Zeus party: Mrs. Ellis Robinson (Faneal). She was a picture in an attractive red knit—frock with triangle color. She and her husband are both teachers.

• • •

Cuff note: Dr. and Mrs. Martin Jenkins (Morgan State), and Dr. and Mrs. Roy Berry will be in from a South American vacation

• • •

This thought for the New Year is by Mrs. Howard Cornish (Althea), and was scited by her at the opening metting of her club (the Philomathians):-

Lord, help us as we start the year to withhold words that hurt and smear;

Another soul who Thou hast made; let tender love for all be assayed;

Cleanse our hearts, our minds, and fill us with a hope to do Thy will.

Give us grace to see in others, that which makes us kin and brothers;

May our aims be high and noble, as we face these times of trouble.

• • •

Wisdom, let us have with zeal, discerning the unreal from the real;

Strengthen ties where they are weak, make us humble, kind and meek.

Thanks to Thee for all Thou hast done, for the gift of Thy son, we must atone;

To the newness and year, shower Thy blessings and lend us Thine ear.

• • •

Make it a date to take the family and friends to see the fabulous and hilarious Ice Follies now at the Baltimore Civic Center.

The colorful ice show stars Peggy Fleming, U. S. Olympics Champion and only medal winner at last years Winter Olympics.

Fifteen performances are offered from now until Jan. 19.
