Avengers Karate Club advances in two years

Beginning with 21 young men in April of 1966, the Avengers Karate Club was started at Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist under the leadership of Church under the leadership of Riley Hawkins.

Today the club has over 500 students.

The club, with main-headquarters at the church at Dolphin and Etting Sts., has won over 100 trophies.

The honors were won in Richmond and Fredericksburg, Va.; Bethesda, Dundalk, Baltimore; Washington, D.C.; New York City and other cities around the country.

Mr. Hawkins holds the classes at the Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church Community Center and at Lexington Terrace, Cherry School 64 and Hilton Street Recreation Center.

Mr. Hawkins not only emphasizes the physical aspects of the sport, but also the character-building qualities of sincerity, etiquette, humility, effort and self-control.

The young men and women in the classes come from Baltimore and surrounding areas of Maryland.

The aim of the club was to build a worthwhile activity off the streets and to inform youths in the area of self-defense, but not aggressive violence.

Library Lectures — 26 Pt.

Subjects and speakers for the January series of Noon-Hour Talks, presented each Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. by the Central Enoch Pratt Free Library, are as follows:

"Romantic Theology in Contemporary Literature," by Ralph Harper, lecturer in the humanities, the Johns Hopkins University, on Wednesday, Jan. 15.

"The Changing Masks of Espionage: 1865-1968," by Dr. Curtis Carroll Davis, editor of "Belle Boyd in Camp and Prison," on Wednesday, Jan. 22.

"Hollywood, the Great American Mythographer," by Jack Russell, chairman, department of English, the Park school, on Wednesday, Jan. 29.

Admission to the lectures is free.

Goucher opens teachers unit

Applications are currently being accepted for the 1968-70 Graduate Program in Elementary School Teaching at Goucher College in Towson.

The one-year program, which leads to the Master of Education degree, was initiated in 1953 with a grant from the Fund for the Advancement of Education of the Ford Foundation. It is designed for men and women who are liberal arts graduates of accredited colleges and who wish to prepare themselves to teach in the elementary schools.

Driver education sessions to open

The Adult Education Division of the Baltimore City Public Schools will offer courses in Driver Education at four evening centers throughout the city beginning Jan. 27.

The schools involved are the City College Adult Center, the Douglass Adult Center, the Hampstead Hill Adult Center and the Pimlico Adult Center.

A course consisting of 10 hours of classroom instruction and 12 hours of in-the-car training will be offered at each school.

A fee of $50 is charged for persons 21 years of age and over.

Classes for youth 16 through 20 years of age, whether in or out of school will include 30 hours of classroom instruction, 12 hours of driving observation and 6 hours of behind-the-wheel practice.

High School students unable to take the course during the normal school hours will be admitted into the program with the permission of their day school principal. The fee for youth is $35.

Registration is scheduled for the week of Jan. 27, at each school beginning 7:00 p.m.

For further information telephone HO. 7-4000, Ext. 739 or 2778.

Inauguration

Chet Huntley and David Brinkley will be anchormen for NBC's extensive coverage of Inauguration 1969 to be colorcast Monday, Jan. 20, on WBAL-TV 11.

Coverage of the day's activities — which includes the swearing-in ceremonies, President-elect Nixon's inaugural address and the Presidential review of the inaugural parade on Constitution Avenue — begins at 10 a.m., and will continue until 5:30 p.m.

A special review of the outstanding events and ceremonies of Inauguration Day will be presented on TV 11, with NBC's Frank McGee as anchorman, from 7:30-8 p.m.

TJD seeks new tax authority

Mayor Thomas J. D'Alesandro 3rd will unveil his new legislation hopes to the city delegation of the General Assembly at a dinner Monday evening at the Emerson Hotel.

The mayor is expected to ask the delegation to:

1. Seek authority by legislation to allow the city to levy new taxes.

2. Press for a local piggyback tax on any new taxes levied by the state.

3. Try for increased state aid for education and police services.

4. Support a revision of the mass transit program, including a state take-over of the Baltimore Transit Company. . . .

Specifics on these D'Alesandro proposals were not complete at AFRO press time.

Nor was it revealed what new taxes the mayor has in mind.

The dinner for the city General Assembly members is an annual affair hosted by the mayor and the Board of Estimates.

Its primary purpose is to gain up support for legislation the mayor and board members want passed by the Assembly.

Assembly open

ANNAPOLIS — Maryland's General Assembly, fresh from electing a new governor, convenes here Wednesday to open its annual 70-day session.
