

1 of December 3, 1891, in the old Constitution, it just 2 referred to the general assembly shall not alter or amend 3 the character of any corporation existing at the time of 4 the adoption of this article, and presumably the adoption
5 of this article was in '67, and not '91.

6 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: No, that is not correct.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

8 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: The sentence beginning
9 "with the General Assembly" which exists on line 41 was 10 added by the 1890 General Assembly, and submitted to the 11 electorate and voted upon favorably on December 3, 1891, so 12 that entire sentence beginning with "The General Assembly" was 13 an 1891 Constitutional amendment to the earlier two 14 sentences which appeared in the 1851, '64 and '67
15 Constitutions.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions, Delegate
17 Grant?

18 DELEGATE GRANT: I follow what you intend.
19 However, the wording in the old Constitution refers to 20 article, and not to amendment, and the adoption of the 21 article was in '67. The adoption of the amendment was in
