

1 DELEGATE WHEATLEY: I heard from some of the 2 critics on the sidelines and from a memo that this was the 3 data agreed upon. Unless I hear to the contrary, I will 4 assume that it be satisfactory.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gleason.

6 DELEGATE GLEASON: I think it would be import-
7 ant to have concurrence on this date.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair might amplify that a
9 little bit, Delegate Gleason.

10 Great care is being taken by the persons draft-
11 ing the Transitional Provisions to be submitted to the 12 Convention to allow sufficient time for the General
13 Assembly to act in any area where it is necessary. This 14 particular recommendation does not, of course, mean that 15 the entire Constitution and all its provisions will be 16 effective on July 1, 1968.

17 In addition to that, there have been discussions
18 between the leaders of the General Assembly and the officers
19 of the Convention as a result of which the General Assembly
20 will probably provide for a joint committee consisting 21 of representatives of the Senate, representatives of the
