Daughters of Isis entertain officials from seven states

with Lula Jones Garrett

Mrs. Gladys Dixon entertained, Friday evening, the Imperial Court of the Daughters of Isis, whose officers from seven states had just arrived in town for a weekend session.

Being Imperial Deputy Commandress, Mrs. Dixon knew from experience how to make the partying attractive to her special guests.

Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman is Imperial Commandress.

Things to be said and done were kept in rotation by the local daughters, who charmingly assisted with hostess' duties. Refreshments provided that extra taste of deliciousness and they included a variety of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, assorted home-made sweets and beverages of all kinds.

Those on-the-spot hostesses circling among the guests with refreshments were Ida Norris, Naomi Julius, Nonie Liggin, and the two Richardsons, Inez and Elvera.

Gift presentations were made by Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, Illustrious Commandress of Jerusalem Court No. 1 to two of her superior officers, Mesdames Elizabeth Coleman and Gladys Dixon.

Imperial officers attending the party were:

Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman of Natchez, Miss., Mrs. Dorothy Jenkins of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Susie Berry of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mrs. Idee Dotson of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Amanda Wilbur of Kansas City, Kan., Mrs. Thelma Godon of Huntington, W. Va. and Ms. Ann Bolden of Hartford, Conn.

Local Nobles and Daughters attending as guests were: Merrs. and Mesdames Robert Greer, Robert Julius, Sylvester Norris; Henry Richardson, Edward Liggins, Lawrence Mason, James Richardson, Mr. Paul Roller;

John Craven, John Hawkins, Mrs. Alma Ringgold, Mrs. Ida Croxton, Mrs. Daisy Jones, Mrs. LeRoy Stokes and Mrs. Matdella Storey.

Those busy members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Maryland Dental Society rolled the calendar back and had their holiday party for the husbands, Saturday evening.

'Twas a mini and turtle neck affair and held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Watts. Cocktails, a sumptious buffet, dancing and presentation of gifts to the men was the program.

Their out-of-town guesses were Mr. and Mrs. Van Winston of New Jersey, brother-in-law and sister of Dr. and Mrs. Phillips.

Partying were:

Drs. and Mesdames Curtis Adams, Bruce Alleyne, Cyril Ashby, Sidney Burnett, Eugene Byrd, Bernard N. Christmas, Bernard H. Christmas, Drs. and Mesdames Billy Davis, Sabian Desbordes, Irvin Hawkins, Robert Phillips, Martin Rodney, George Taylor, Dennis Tribble, Robert Rainer, Garland Weaver, Henry Williams and Charles Watts; and Mrs. Edward McDaniel.

On Sunday afternoon, the Couples Club, rounded out their decade of investing, closed out the business . . . and then decided that they had just had too much fun to part.

So they are now pondering what format their new organizaeion will take.

They met with Tom and Dellaphine Warring, where the latter, who is recuperating from a recent illness, took all the adoration the group could bestow upon her, enthroned in a comfortable chair and looking lovely in a beautiful multi-colored house coat. Dinner was the order of the day.

Actually the meeting had been deferred a session in deference to their member, the late John Rich.

But about were The Charles Laws, the Medford Reynoldses, the Lonnie Greens, the James Murphys, the Ben Foremans, the Bill Stanfords, the Cliff Mackays and Ethel Rich, Misses Yvette and Yvonne Barnes entertained at a bridal shower, Sunday, at their Windsor Ave. home, for Miss Sevalyn Hill, whose marriage to John R. White will take place, Saturday, February 1.

Miss Hill was surprised when she arrived at their home at the suggestion of her mother (Mrs. Margaret Johnson) for what she thought was to tell them about rehersal plans ect., to find many of her friends assembled for a miscellaneous shower.

Those who came for the exciting evening, included Mesdames Eva Scott, Carolyn Carter, Marilyn Amon, Carolyn Wainwright, Mevyn Robertson, Victoria Lee, Lena Baskerville, Diane Lawton, Margaret Todd, Janice Petscher, Patricia Murphy, Alice Lee, Betty Brown, Margaret Johnson and Eva Barnes.

Misses Evelyn Wheeler, Veronica Bess, Wanda Robertson, April Styert, Gwendolyn Washington, Catherine Jordan, Marie Sciscore and Jane Manyer.
