PLANNING for Md. State Beauty Shop Owners' celebration of National Beauty Salon Week next month are, left to right, Mrs. Lena Holland and Mrs. Julia King, co-chairmen; and Mrs. Leonna Campbell, co-chairman. Celebration is week of February 9. Also on the planning board is a tea to be held Feb. 23 at the Elegante Room.

Shop Owners plan show

The Maryland State Beauty Shop Owners Association have scheduled a National Beauty Salon Week, which will culminate with a tea in the Elegante Room on Feb. 23.

Their "Whirlwind of Beauty "will be designed to demonstrate services for all ages, from girls of four years old to Golden Agers.

There will also be educational features to show customers how to maintain their coiffures after services in the salons.

Chairman of the project is Mrs. Julia Kink of Julia's Charm Center. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Lena Holland of the Charm Beauty Salon and Mrs. Leeanna Campbell of the Campbell Beauty Salon.

Arrange pictures stepwise to glamorize your staircase, suggests the Picture and Frame Institute. With the returning vogue for two story houses, many new homeowners have the opportunity to make an attractive gallery of a stairway.

When buying gifts for toddlers, avoid toys with sharp or rough edges which will cut or scratch. Also undesirable, according to the Greater New York Safety Council: objects with small removable parts, poisonous paint or decoration, marbles, beads, coins and flammable toys.

Founders' Day luncheon was inspirational affair

Lambda Kappa Mu, celebrating the 32nd anniversary of the founding of the sorority, paid special honors to nine charter members of Iota chapter, Saturday.

The honorees were Mesdames Pearl Hall, Valerie Brown, Eulalia Stevenson, Della West, Iola Lyles, Alma Redden, Nevie Wooley, Mary Owens and Esther Yancey.

The nine received plaques and corsages at the luncheon session, held in the Sheraton-Baltimore Inn, which was attended by members of the sorority and several hundred friends.

• • •

Mrs. Zefferene Garth, executive director of the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA, addressed the group.

Speaking from the sorority's theme for the year "Bridging the Generation Gap," Mrs. Garth told the group that much of the conflict between youth and their elders is derived from the great emphasis placed on youth, from the fact that the elders allow their children to blackmail them emotionally; and from the failure of parents to demand the respect due them.

In the first place, said Mrs. Garth, the children are the product of a generation of mixed-up parents, who need the courage to be firm, to say "No" when necessary, and to understand that it is not what is always done for a child that counts, but what the parent teaches the child to do for himself.

• • •

Mrs. Garth was introduced by Soror Olivia Bates. Other participants on the program were Sorors Violet H. Whyte, who gave the invocation, Josephine Maxwell, greetings; Naomi Johnson, history of the sorority; and Eleanor Moore, soloist.

Soror Imogene Douglas, basileus of the chapter made the citations to charter members. Music was by the Haithcock Ensemble.

Soror Margaret Yates, chairman, presided. Her co-chairman was Mrs. Bates. Also on the Founder's Day committee were:

Sorors Olivia Bates, Gladys Baird, Ethel Covington.

The luncheon was attended by: Naomi Johnson, Josephine Maxwell, Lucy Bond, Doris Wiggins, Barbara Bolin, Bertha Sembly, Arabella Ross, Eleanore Moore, Mary Ross, Eleanore Moore, Mary Silva, Ovella Queen and Fannie Ewell.

The Fashionables

Alfreda Williams, Floyd Best married

WILLIAM H. RHONE, shown with Mrs. Rhone above, is a fur fan who didn't wait for the dictators of men's wear fashions to convert him. Mr. Rhone, a merchant seaman for the past 35 years, who has visited some five continents, says he first fell in love with furs in 1942, while in Russia. He bought a fur hat, but being no pioneer, hesitated at buying a coat. Then he saw the movie "Dr. Zhivago," and soon afterwards picked up an English magazine that showed fur coats for men. It was then that he decided he was "big enough and masculine enough" to wear such a coat, and in 1963 had two coats made. Both are Persian lamb, one black and the other gray. He also had the coat Mrs. Rhone is wearing (an ocelot) made. Sable, the Rhones' German shepherd, wears her own natural fur coat.

MISS ALFREDA WILLIAMS and Floyd N. Best were married in Enon Baptist Church, Baltimore, recently.

Miss Alfreda Antionette Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Williams was married to Floyd N. Best, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Best, here, Saturday.

The wedding, which took place in Enon Baptist, at two in the afternoon, was performed by the Rev. Arthur J. Payne and the Rev. James E. Thomas, III.

• • •

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in an original gown of bridal satin, which featured a high neckline, full length bell sleeves and a detachable train trimmed with irridescent seqquins.

Her bouffant veil of tulle was attached to a satin Dior bow, and she carried a bouquet of minature orchids.

• • •

Miss Sundra Williams, maid of honor, wore a gold satin A-line empire gown. Her headpiece was a matching Dior bow. Bridesmaids wore similar ensemble in apple green. They were Misses Joy Best, sister of the bridegroom; Belinda Wildy, Brenda Bennett and Althea Brown. They carried bouquets of orange and green carnations.

Betty Mashall, Sherrie Davis and Sheridan Barclift, flower-girls, wore floor-length dresses of white satin, and carried white basket filled with carnations and tea roses.

Jeffrey Alexander was ringbearer.

• • •

Douglass Glenn was best man for Mr. Best. Head usher was the bridegroom's brother, Alvin Best. Other ushers were Ronald Grant, Gerald Collins and Bruce Jones.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Williams wore a pink and gold suit with gold accessories. Mrs. Best chose green silk and worsted ensemble, with silver accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages. Also present were grandmothers of the couple including Mrs. Susie C. Comp and Mrs. Emily Clemons.

• • •

A reception for 300 guests was held in the Alcazar. Introducing guests to the receiving line was Mrs. Marion Jackson. Receiving gifts and assisting with the guest book were Mrs. Sarah Jones and Mrs. Gwendolyn Carter.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was honored at a personal shower by Mrs. Jean Thomas and Mrs. Vivian Bennett. The bridal party was guests of Mrs. Best following the wedding rehearsal.

• • •

The bride is a graduate of Edmondson High School and a student at Morgan State College. She made her debut in 1967 at the Baltimore Chapter of Girl Friends" Cotillion.

Mr. Best, also a graduate of Edmondson High School, attended Baltimore Junior College and is now employed with the Fisher Body Company.

• • •

Out-of-town guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Shed Walker, Edgar Shoppy and James Smith of Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Hank Watson and Corran and Jimmie Watson of New Jersey; Mrs. Mable Burton of Paterson, N.J., John Shippy of Willingshow, N.J., Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Smickle.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of New Jersey; Alfred Howell of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carter of Washington, Mrs. Thedara Smith, Miss Susie Camp and Miss Geneva Norris of South Carolina.

Senior citizens training course

Valentine party set for lodge

By WALTER W. E. HILL

The Valentine Party at the Spirit of Chesapeake Lodge Friday, Feb. 14, is expected to be a gala affair. Miss Flossie Grimes, as Miss Valentine, will be hostess for the evening. Mrs. Florence Tidwell will prepare the food.

Miss Thelma Lee, long time a familiar face dispensing drinks at the Spirit of Chesapeake Lodge, is in convalescence at her home, 746 Dolphin St.

• • •

The Tri-State Association I.B.P.O.E.W. is holding its 1969 convention in Baltimore this year, and preparations are under way to make this the biggest, as they have not been here in a number of years.

Starting Thursday, Feb. 6, the Spirit of Chesapeake Lodge will have "Clothesline Night!" every Thursday night with prizes and fun. Don't miss it.

• • •

Happy Birthday greetings are extended to Levin Lansdowne, Miss Lucy Hammond, Rudolph Patterson and Mrs. Gladys Greene.

• • •

The Fourth Anniversary of the Missionary Society of Bethany Baptist Church under the direction of its president, the Rev. Mrs. Sarah E. Johnson, and presided over by Mrs. Thelma Stewart, was of much comfort.

The musical renditions by the Youth Choir enhanced the program with wonderful voices. You missed a real treat if you did not come.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the engagement of Miss Charlotte Deellear A. Wing to Reagin Holbrook Brown, son of Mrs. Gustava B. Brown of Washington and the late James R. Brown, has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Elijah J. Royster, Jr. of Woodlawn. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Royster and the late Charles T. Wing. Miss Wing and Mr. Brown are both juniors at Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va. A spring wedding is planned.

Increase in loan for housing here

Senator Joseph D. Tydings announced Wednesday U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development approval of a loan increase of $269,867 for construction of 140 units of low income housing in Baltimore.

The increase brings the total loan to $2,261,941, the senator's office said.

For the smokers around your house, have ashtrays conveniently placed. For safety sake, they should be designed so cigars or cigarettes left burning in them cannot drop onto table, upholstery or floor.

We'd like to make you a star.

This is The Popular Five—one of last year's winners in the Schaefer Talent Hunt. Now we're hunting for you!

Last year, the Schaefer Talent Hunt discovered The Popular Five—along with nine other talented new groups and soloists. And gave them a chance to be heard on radio all over the East—singing the popular Schaefer Jingle. With as much public exposure as they'd receive from a hit record!

And it paid off. With recording contracts, Club dates. Personal appearances. And—for one of the winning groups—TV exposure in an upcoming Schaefer Beer commercial.

Now the new 1969 Schaefer Talent Hunt is hunting for another ten new groups and soloists to record the Schaefer Jingle. And receive the same kind of public exposure. One of them could be you!

Who can apply? Any vocal or instrumental soloist or group. Anybody who sings or plays any kind of music—whether it's Rock, Pop, Folk, Soul, Jazz, or Country and Western.

You must be at least 21 and must submit a demonstration record or tape (on a reel) of your own choosing. You must provide all the information requested on the application, although you need not use the form itself.

Application materials are not returnable and must be received no later than February 10, 1969—so don't delay!
